Picture Given Governor

SALLEM, Ore.—Members of the Salem Kiwanis club presented to Governor Pierce a large framed picture of the executive standing in front of a white-faced bull. On the ground was a five-gallon jar into which the bull was shedding copious tears. Following the presentation Christmas gifts were distributed among the other members of the club.

Approximately $50 was raised to assist in providing Christmas cheer for the poor.

WOMAN'S BACK BRANDED

SAN FRANCISCO (By the Associated Press)—Dispatches to San Francisco newspapers stated that Mrs. Charles Sibbe, living on a ranch north of Merced was bound to a chair and a brand burned on her back and shoulder by an unidentified masked man yesterday in an effort to force her to divulge the whereabouts of a letter.

"COUNTESS" TURNS OUT TO BE SALT LAKE BOY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Another "Countess" has taken the count. It was the demure "Countess Tolben Letrovnikki," bent upon attaining the heights of dramatic stardom.

But "her" voice was changing, and when it cracked Tuesday the "Countess" turned out to be Jack McDonald, 14, of Salt Lake.

WAREHOUSE FIRE FATAL

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Fire Tuesday night destroyed the hundred-thousand-bushel grain warehouse of Esten & Bro. here, here, the life of one fireman, and was known to have injured five others.

Capt. Harry Jones, 51, aide to Fire Chief August Ehrlich, was fatally crushed under a falling wall.

Fred Thompson and Silver King Showing at Sherrys

Combining the spectacular with the amusing seems to be the particular forte of Fred Thompson. The latest F. T. O. production featuring that popular star and the famous horse "Silver King," is "The Battle of the Bulge," and while the keynote of the picture might be said to be loud and unadorned laughter, the past-action melodrama which has done much to put Thompson at the top of western heap has not been forgotten. Several thrilling rides, a match race at a rodeo between "Silver King" and "Midnight" and the rescue of the baby by Thompson, fight from under the wheels of an onrushing Express Train are a few of the highlights. "The Battle of the Bulge" at Sherrys for the last time tonight brings the star back into his western togs, after a brief sojourn in his previous picture, "That Devil Quimada" in unaccustomed habiliments. The comedy scenes of the western baby show, where the law of the guns of proud fathers is the rule, and the delightful difficulties in which Fred and "Silver King" are placed when they have to adopt a baby, have been particularly well done. Fred Andrews directed the picture which is an adaptation by Marion Jackson of an original story by Leete Renick Brown.

Outstanding Vaudeville Bill Is Promised

Sunday's offering at the Arcade is the outstanding one of the season with many new novelties, songs, music and comedians. The Connors Troupe in "An Evening at Home" give an entertainment that is unique and refined and will display their many talents. They have no limit as musical harmony singers and dancers. It is an act in a class by itself. MI-with spectacular scenes. A crash between a piquet boat and a tug boat, the sinking of a tramp steamer at sea with eight hundred passengers on board, the battle between hundreds of copper colored savages and a handful of white men—all these episodes are thrillingly recorded by the camera. The chief emphasis of the picture, however, is laid upon the striking story which shows the battle of a brave man against a thousand odds to prove he is not a coward.

Percy Marmont, who will be remembered for his masterful performance in "The Street of Forgotten Men" plays the part of "Lord Jim" Shirley Mason, one of the most talented and beautiful actresses on the screen plays the part of a half-caste daughter of the South Sea. Noah Berry, a man of great physical prowess as well as a veteran actor, is said to do the best work of his career as a brutal sea captain in the picture. Raymond Hatton completes the quartette of featured players.

Joseph Dowling, Duke Kahama-moku and George Magrill are also in the cast. The story was adapted for the screen by John Russell. "Lord Jim" is playing at the Star Theatre today and Sunday together with a Clyde Cook comedy.

Shortly before the primaries last October, a columnist of the Erie Pennsylvania, Times announced in his daily column that he was going to run for sheriff because he "needed the money." He meant the statement for a joke, but his friends took it seriously and would not permit him to withdraw and he was elected sheriff, according to reports.
