Many Dances During Holiday Season
Everything is in readiness at the University hall room for the University Oregon dance tonight. Miss Jeanne Glass is general chairwoman in charge of the dance which will be of an informal nature. An invitation is extended to all U. of students and alumni, all high school students and graduates and other college men and women. Special invitations have been sent to the parents of Oregon students.

The DeMolay is planning a dance for Monday night, which is expected to be a delightful affair and Wednesday night there will be an A. C. dance.

Thursday night, New Year's Eve, is the last dance of the Country club and will take place at the club house.

E. Society Host to Young People
Members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church parlor. About thirty were party for the young people of the church Thursday evening in the church parlor. About thirty present and a delightful evening was spent at games.

The rooms were prettily decorated in accordance with the Yuletide season, Christmas trees being featured. After the games appropriate refreshments were served.

Santa Visits Lodge at Christmas Party
About 145 people were present Friday evening when the members of the Ladies of Mooseheart and the L. O. O. M. entertained all members of the Moose lodge and their families at a Christmas party. A delightful program was given consisting of songs by Ruth Richards, Ruth Brannon and Juanita Shanks; recitations by Josephine Fisher and Marie England; Christmas songs by Mrs. Edith Mearns and Mrs. Wallace Cuss, and address by J. J. Kitchen and Dr. N. Mayville.

After the program Santa Claus appeared and distributed gifts and candy to everyone present. The entertainment was held at the I. O. O. F. hall, which was beautifully decorated in accordance with the season.

Sister Mary Says:

By Sister Mary.
Breakfast—Orange juice, boiled rice with raisins, thin cream, broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, graham toast, milk, coffee.
Lunch—Lamb souffle, carrot salad, holiday graham bread, tea, milk.
Dinner—Boiled fish, egg sauce, broiled potatoes in parsley butter, turnips au gratin, jellied tomato salad, old cake pudding, rye bread, milk, coffee.

Use light brown sugar on the breakfast cereal in place of granulated and use it sparingly. The raisins add some "natural" sugar to the dish, making it almost sweet enough without additional sweetening.

Holiday Graham Bread.
One cup medium flour, 1 cup bread flour, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 cup sour cream, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup strained and chopped dates, 1 cup chopped nut meats, 1 cup candied cherries, 1 egg.
Mix graham flour and bread flour and stir in sugar, salt, soda and baking powder. Mix thoroughly and stir in sour cream. Beat well and add dates, nuts and cherries. Mix well and stir in egg well beaten. Turn into a buttered and floured bread pan and bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven.
Sour milk and two tablespoons melted butter can be used in place of sour cream if more convenient.

FREE HAIRCUT FOR POOR
CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—As a Christmas contribution to the Salvation Army a barber here will open his five-chair shop for two hours after closing time Thursday night to give haircuts to poor boys.

The United States Bureau of Fisheries has discovered that barnacles on ship bottoms collect only on plates painted blue and black and other colors are practically free from them.

He's Lost

The William McIlvoren of London is being sought in northern Peru by a searching party that fears he has met some accident. He left London last August to explore south America and has not been heard from since Oct. 21.

Engaged

Betta Jewell Brown, former actress and widow of Representative W. S. Brown, of West Virginia, is reported engaged to Hugh Miller, dean of the school of engineering, Washington University. Mrs. Brown, who succeeded the nomination of John W. Davis for president at the Democratic convention last year, will not comment on the report.

"MAIL EARLY" CRY HEADED
WASHINGTON (AP)—The public's response to the post office department's "mail early" campaign has resulted in the prompt handling of the largest volume of Christmas mail on record, giving assurance to officials that the first full Christmas holiday for postal employees will be a success.

The postal machine, with the aid of additional help everywhere, was described as functioning perfectly Wednesday, with the prospect of delivering Santa Claus' budgets before the trimming of the tree on Christmas eve.

LIQUOR EVIDENCE TAKEN
MARSHFIELD, Ore.—Chief of Police F. R. Jackson, Sheriff Gage and his deputies have been hijacked and moonshine evidence stored up for the day when accused men were to be tried has disappeared. Not a drop was left in the North Bend city jail when the hijackers finished their job, after breaking the lock on the office door of the jail.

Chief Jackson said that about 15 gallons were removed. The theft was staged while Night Officer Hurd was in another part of the city.

Services at Methodist Episcopal church South, Dec. 27. Don't forget that Sunday school opens at 9:45 a. m. Also remember this will be the last Sunday in the old year. So don't miss it. Preaching at 11 a. m., subject: "Turning a Leaf and Starting a New Page." Epworth league, 6:30 p. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m.

We anxiously desire that you go to church somewhere. And if you do not have a church home you will always receive a hearty welcome at our services on North Fir, 2195. J. A. Hall, pastor.

Presbyterian.
"And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them," reads our Divine record. So the world follows the Christmas day with its Divine message of love and good-will. We also have seen and heard and we must glorify and praise accordingly. This opportunity returns tomorrow at 9:45 with our Sunday school ready to welcome all; our morning worship hour at 11 at which time the quartet will sing "The Night Song of Bethlehem," and J. S. Longfellow will sing a tenor solo: "Arise ye, out of meeting. Always on time. Blood heat—Very much alive, goes to meeting, leads the meeting; prays, speaks. Usually on time.

Temperate—Alive (?); goes to meeting; takes part occasionally; usually found on the back seat. Often late.
Freezing—Dying; goes to meeting occasionally; never takes part.
Zero—Dead! never goes to meeting.
What is your temperature?

"Believing—Enthusiastic, goes to meeting and gets others to go; works anywhere in meeting and O Israel," both having been written by Ludley Buck and the minister will bring the final message of the old year. You will want to be in your place, bringing others with you to the House of God. At 3:30 the Junior C. E. and at 5:30 the mission study class and at 6:30 the Intermediate C. E. following for the young.

Our folks will welcome the privileges of returning the call of the holiday season as we listen to the sacred cantata sung in the First M. E. church at 7:30. We hope that large numbers will be there.
As we enter upon the last week of the old year it is with sincere appreciation for the many favors which it brought and to extend a most hearty greeting to all for a Happy New Year.
Wm. Crosby Ross, minister.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR
Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).
The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without expenses or money make $250 to $500 per month.—Adv.
