Post Office Greeting—
 Several days before the end of the quarter post offices throughout the country deposit box rent due notices in the boxes, to be taken up before the first day of the next month if the renters wish to maintain the privileges they hold. This month the date automatically fell before Christmas but Uncle Sam decided to save his "statements" until after the annual visit of Santa Claus and so today, instead of a day or so before Christmas, the little white slips found their way into the boxes. Uncle Sam's representatives in La Grande thought that would be a nice way of extending the season's greetings.

GRIM ANGEL MARS XMAS DAY IN U.S.
 Nineteen prisoners in the 15-11 cell were gladdened with a Christmas tree furnished by the Salvation Army workers. Fastened to the boughs were 15 pairs of socks and a generous treat of candy and nuts. Dinner was provided by some of the inmates who pooled their resources for the benefit of the crowd.

Prisoners Have Tree.
 Nearly 50 families avoid their holiday dinners to the bounty of high-hearted organizations. In addition to the baskets the Elks distributed, about 25 dinners were sent out by the Salvation Army. There were gifts for 200 kiddies at the Salvation Army tree last evening at the hall.

Attend Theater Party.
 But the day really belonged to the youngsters and they showed no reluctance about claiming their rights.

Party Ends in Death.
 WITTS, Cal. (By the Associated Press)—A Christmas party here ended in the death of one person and perhaps fatal injury to another. Police found Charles Thorpe, 25, dead of gunshot wounds, while Mrs. Katherine Reed was taken to a hospital in a critical condition.

Train Hits Auto.
 WISNER, Neb. (By the Associated Press)—Fred von Zumbro, his wife, and three children, ranging from 15 to 22 years of age, were instantly killed when a passenger train struck their automobile at a grade crossing near here. The son, who was driving, is in a critical condition.

 at almost the last minute. More than 200 persons, mostly children, came out to enjoy the exercises.

The songs and recitations and mime that preceded his call. E. A. Sayre, superintendent of county schools, gave the Christmas address. And three young men contributed vocal tries that captured the audience.

At the Grande Ronde hospital he found physicians, nurses, patients and employees impatient for his coming and the distribution of nearly 200 packages piled under the trees. The Presbyterian quarter furnished a delightful program of carols and other entertainers were there to drive away the pains that would intrude even on such an occasion.

Delicious refreshments were passed to the guests. For the 25 carolers, including the nurses in training, there were substantial checks given in appreciation by the Grande Ronde hospital.

Christmas day brought Andy Loney's orchestra and flowers and a turkey dinner to while the hours away.

 But the day really belonged to the youngsters and they showed no reluctance about claiming their rights.

About a thousand of them thronged the Star theater at 10:30 for the annual party that the management provides. They crowded two and three into a seat, but that didn't matter. The comedy was just as funny. Baby Peggy as cute

And So He Kids the Cops

This is "Morning Glory," prize bird owned by J. C. Harper of Berkeley, Calif. Every morning at 5 he starts to crow and the neighbors call the police, but when the cops arrive he's saying "gobble gobble" in a quiet, friendly tone, and thus escapes arrest. He is the product of the mating of a respectable Rhode Island Red hen and a turkey gobbler.

HEALTH

BLOOD PRESSURE.
 (By Dr. Frederick Stecker)
 Blood pressure is an index not only of your body and your health. The physician who is most likely to have this knowledge is the one who has been your physician for some time. Low blood pressure usually indicates a lack of general tone. High blood pressure, on the other hand, directs attention to certain diseases, the chances due to advancing years and especially in women, to disturbances of middle age. These conditions, like all others, are most effectively and often successfully treated only when discovered early. A blood pressure test, therefore, should be a part of every good examination.

Visible throbbing arteries do not mean high blood pressure. Nor does loss of blood necessarily lower it. High blood pressure does not signify too much blood or any change at all in the blood itself.

HEALTH and its PRESERVATION

END OF YOUR SEARCH
 For years, no doubt, you have been in search of health, or if you enjoy good health in search of a means looking to its complete preservation. In chiropractic your anxious search comes to a satisfying end. Ours is the science that leads to health and happiness. We shall be glad if you will call for consultation.

but means that the blood is attempting to circulate under abnormal resistance.

That one is as old as his arteries is a popular saying. High blood pressure too often shows that the patient, while perhaps knowing the old saying, has not realized what he could do to influence the matter. By overeating and drinking, chronic constipation, repeated unnecessary colds and other infections he has carried a load for years under which he has finally broken down.

Nature provides a wide margin of safety for most of us but it is not inexhaustible. The ill which we generally claim as petty and trivial, frequently repeated, and bad habits of hygiene long continued, are probably most concerned in determining whether we live as long as we should.

You cannot buy a lower blood pressure. The most skillful physician gives advice which you and only you can carry out. Regret and remorse may save your soul but it will lower your blood pressure but very little if years of bad living or neglect have raised it to a high point. On the other hand if high blood pressure is found and leads to discovery of kidney disease, much can be done by proper treatment. If, however, the high blood pressure is only a temporary phenomenon, one of the many symptoms of a natural change which will pass in a short time, there is no need to be unduly alarmed about it. A blood pressure well below normal limits indicates the necessity of finding out what is the cause of the poor condition and eradicating it.

HIGHWAY REPAIR PUSHED

ASTORIA, Ore.—A hydraulic pump is to aid work of clearing the side on the Columbia highway east of here. State highway Division Engineer Clarke inspected the break where the roadbed sank three feet, but was at a loss to explain the sinking.

Repairs to the two big breaks on the Nehalem highway were well under way.
