Closing Out Dishes, Housewares and Electrical Goods

We have been at a great disadvantage in the management of our Houseware Department owing to the lack of floor space, and our inability to give due prominence to the display of this class of merchandise. It has been decided to discontinue this department and devote the space now occupied to other purposes. Our entire stock of Dishes and Housewares are being offered at prices not only the lowest in the history of this store, but lower than has ever been known in this community. Hundreds will flock to our store to take advantage of this opportunity and profit by these Sensational Prices, so make your selection early. We guarantee these to be bona-fide reductions from the original prices as shown.
