Scores Enjoy Hot Lake Hospitality

When Dr. W. T. Pfy opened the always hospitable doors of the Hot Lake sanatorium for a New Year's "At Home" yesterday, he entertained friends from not only the Grande Ronde Valley, but from Pendleton, Baker and points as far away as Huntington, at an affair which will undoubtedly be long remembered in Eastern Oregon's social history. Probably the sanatorium has never been the scene of so delightful a reception as the one at which he was host in the late afternoon hours of the first day of 1926.

The spirit of happiness and buoyancy of the New Year pervaded the sanatorium and every corner of its halls breathed the cordial atmosphere of "At Home" and welcome to the guests who called continuously through the afternoon to pay their respects to its owner. Even before 3 o'clock, the hour named as the opening of the reception, nearly a hundred had reached Hot Lake and from then until 6 o'clock the stream of visitors was unceasing.

This is the second year that Dr. Pfy has entertained on New Year's day. A year ago yesterday he re-introduced to the valley the happy old-fashioned custom of being "At Home" to one's friends the first day of the year. Though the 1925 affair was generally conceded one of the most successful in local social annals, it is said that yesterday's was even more attractive.

Dr. Pfy assisted by his daughters, Miss Marion and Miss Margaret, welcomed his guests in the lobby between the lobby and the ball room. Here the note of the decorations—the holiday red and green—was first introduced. This was elaborately carried out further in the ball room, in the sun porch, converted into a large living room for the pleasure of those who did not dance and in what is ordinarily the sanatorium pool hall, but what served yesterday as the dining room. The ceilings were named or covered with evergreens, while arches of ferns led into nooks where oriental rugs, davenport, inviting chairs and tapestries contributed to the general atmosphere.

Feature numbers by two popular dancers, the Misses Gladis Ashby and Foula Nordin, were pleasing. Miss Newlin demonstrated the much discussed Charleston and to satisfy the demands of those who called after her appearance, danced again late in the afternoon. Refreshments were served at tables attractively appointed in silver service and brightened with red carnations and candles. Pouring were Mrs. McEwen, Misses Jessie DeVinney, E. Mary Evans and Edith Coenen, while Mrs. Louis Bidler, Mrs. Olive Marly, Mrs. Lindley Hoyle and Mrs. N. Skoten cut into sandwiches, minis and waters were also served by a group of young girls.

Though dance music was furnished by a La Grande orchestra many called who did not dance but who spent the time chatting with friends and exchanging the "Happy New Year" of the day.

Celebrates 36th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McGinnis of this city were pleasantly surprised last evening when invited to the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. P. Ballard, to spend the evening. They found at the Ballard home a host of friends who had assembled there to wish them many more happy New Years. Yesterday was Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis' thirty-sixth wedding anniversary.

At the close of a delightful evening refreshments were served. Promise (Special)—At noon December 29 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper, of Promise, Miss Emma Carper was united in marriage to Frank Lindsey, of La Grande. The ring ceremony was read by the Rev. P. G. Potter, the Methodist minister here. Miss Ethel Carper and Howard Carper, sister and brother of the bride, were the attendants.

About 35 friends and relatives were present to witness the happy event. The bride was the recipient of several beautiful and useful gifts.

A reception was held after the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey left here on New Year's day for La Grande, where they will be at home to their many friends at 2801 Third street.
