TO AID KITTITAS PROJECT

CLE ELUM, Wash. — Following organization of joint committees recently named by Cle Elum and South Cle Elum to assist the government in promoting the Kittitas high line project, the following telegram was sent to J. T. Lytle, manager of the Yale project.

"The Elum and South Cle Elum, through their mayors and council, supported by numerous men and citizens in all walks of life, desire to offer the reclamation service their support in the great work you are about to undertake in this country, pledging their assistance in every possible way that harmonious cooperation may be assured. An official delegation from these towns, accompanied by a citizens committee, will bear you this message in person as soon as an appointment may be arranged."

I sincerely believe the best buys in La Grande real estate for the year 1926 will be made during January and February. This is based upon years of real estate experience that, during these two months, the demand for rental will still be greater.

Whether I am a true prophet or not, I do know that I have at the present time several of the best priced houses that I have had during the past three years. Obviously these opportunities present themselves. If you are thinking of purchasing a home I would be glad to show you my listings.

Last Showing of "The Masked Bride" At Sherrys Tonight

Mae Murray, dancing beauty, is a study in evolution. On the stage, a beautiful butterfly, then, on the screen, the same, gradually becoming known as a dramatic actress of wonderful emotional possibilities.

Now comes "The Masked Bride," her sensational story of the Paris underworld, playing at the Sherrys theatre. It presents a new Mae Murray, perhaps the ultimate Mae Murray, although such a thing is hard to fathom, in view of such surprises as "The Merry Widow."

The story, a gorgeous Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production directed by Christy Cabanne, is a dramatic episode in which a great love and an Apache plot are set amid gorgeous cars, glittering palaces, and sinister underworld haunts. Miss Murray fills through a creature of wonderful beauty, in glittering gowns, daring, sometimes, but always beautiful. Then—in a trice—she drops this role and does some acting so remarkable that she holds her audience breathless. This is the strange versatility of Mae Murray.

A great cast appears. Francis X. Bushman makes an imposing hero, and Roy D'Arcy, the Crown Prince of "The Merry Widow," has a role as the naive Prefect of Police. Karl Dane, Hagli Rathbone as a smooth crook, and Chester Conklin who furnishes inevitable comedy relief are also in the cast.

Paper says Coolidge smiled at a caller from New York. That's nothing. We laugh at them.

Frank Carrier is aptly cast as the King. As Norma's father and the ruler of the little principality, he just the right mixture of sternness and whimsicality. He plays an old-fashioned King with new-fangled notions, and mingles the two in exactly the right proportions.

Winter Hall has the American Ambassador and Wanda Hawley as the lovely Dagmar, lady-in-waiting to the Princess, complete the principal supporting players, and each is admirably ideal in his role.

"Graustark" is a modernized version of George Barr McCutcheon's celebrated romance.

EIGHT DIE IN AUTO CRASH

KALKA, Punjab, India (AP)—Eight attendants upon the maharajah of Patiala were killed and two probably fatally injured Sunday when a lorry in which they were riding was struck by a passenger train at a grade crossing. Two of the dead were cousins of the wife of the maharajah.

The accident occurred as the maharajah was returning home from his shooting lodge.

NEW OWNERS FOR IRON DYKE

BOISE, Ida.—Announcement has been made in New York, according to false papers, by the officers of the Idaho Copper corporation of the acquisition and control of the Iron Dyke copper property's mine and mill on the Snake river at Homestead, Baker county, Ore. The announcement states that the cash terms have been accepted and all that remains is the drawing up and signing of the papers after the title have been approved.

The Iron Dyke mine was discovered in 1877, but the property was not opened until the Short Line branch road from Huntington to Homestead was built. The principal
