'The Gringo Devil' Showing at Sherrys

On Saturday, July 15, the population of Espanade turned out to the outskirts of the town to watch a company of movie artists act before the camera.

Everything seemed to continue nicely, the populis being very much satisfied with the interesting sights when suddenly the photoplay called for a scene of a jump off a cliff and land on a horse and rider passing below.

The cowboys were rushed to the nearest hospital and upon close examination it was discovered that one had three of his ribs broken and the other, was badly injured internally.

The latest report shows that they will shortly recover, but those wishing to have their breath taken away by this thrilling episode come to see 'The Gringo Devil' at the Sherrys Theatre, and see daredevil movie stars repeat this phenomenal stunt on the screen.

Flying Cowboy Parachutes in 'Triple Action'

A cowpuncher turned aviator. Such is the transition brought about by the demands of the movies in the career of Pete Morrison, late of the range and now of the screen.

'Well', said Pete Morrison, when shown the script of 'Triple Action' that called for him to do some dangerous flying. 'If other fellows can take a chance in the air I guess I can.'

'But it's not only flying you'll have to do,' said Tom Gibson, his director, 'but you've got to take a parachute and jump from that plane while it is in mid-air. We'll get a "double" for you.'

If Morrison had not already made up his mind to fly and make the jump the suggestion that he be given a "double" eluded his determination to do it.

'I've never used a "double" yet,' modestly replied Morrison, 'and I don't intend to start in now. Bring on your airplane.'

And so that is why in 'Triple Action' Morrison quits his favorite horse lightning for a time to take a seat in an airplane. Morrison is considered one of the most daring men in the movies and those who see this great Blue-Strreak Lariat Production that will be screened at the Star Theatre Wednesday and Thursday will admit that he has earned a right to the title. 'Triple Action' is released through Universal.

Though Morrison takes his thrilling ride in the 'plane and does his daring leap with a parachute this does mean that his admirers are deprived of seeing him in some of his great feats of horsemanship. For Morrison rides as he never ridden before.

I sincerely believe the best buys in La Grande real estate for the year 1926 will be made during January and February. This is based upon years of real estate experience that buying always follows unusual rental demand. The spring rental demand will still be greater.

Whether I am a true prophet or not, I do know that I have at the present time several of the lowest priced homes that I have had during the past three years. Occasionally these opportunities present themselves. If you are thinking of purchasing a home I would be glad to show you my listings.
