This is "HUNCH"
—one of the most famous characters in advertising history. Recognized all over the world as the Prince Albert man. You can find his prototype in any town. He's up on politics, baseball and horses, and has the real low-down on pipe tobacco. Name's "HUNCH."

Play this hunch and you won't lose

GET out that little old jimmy-pipe. Fill the bowl to the brim with Prince Albert and light up! Will you like it? Man, man! Does a kid like ice cream? Can a bullfrog dive? You bet you will like it, like you never liked anything before. Because, what a man's smoke-appetite hankers for, Prince Albert's got nothing else except! Yes, sir, you can bet your life on that. You'll fire-up right after breakfast and stay with it till the little blue stars wig-wag "Good night." Never was a pipe tobacco like good old P. A. Cool and sweet and soothing, the smoke zooms up the stem, bowling over pet peeves and filling your system with a new kind of joy. And how kind it is to your tongue and throat. That's because the Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch-ab-so-lute-ly! So, slip into top-speed and head for the nearest store where they hand out jimmy-pipe joy in tidy red tins. If you haven't got a jimmy-pipe, get one now. Then borrow a match and you're all set for a smoke experience!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin hunters, and pound crystal-glass humidors with 250000-wattener top. And always with every tin of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

Duke of York Moves to Curzon, Langford's Street LONDON, (AP)—The appearance of the Duke of York as a resident of Curzon street, Mayfair, now makes it one of the most exclusive in this aristocratic neighborhood to the detriment of the more famous Park Lane. The duke's landlord, Lord Howe, lives a few houses away at number 35 and the American Ambassador in Crewe House, nearby. The Dutchess of York's brother, John Bowes-Lyon, lives at 25, and 27 is the home of Sir Patrick Hastings, K. C., late Minister of the Labor government. Lord Londsdale, Lord Reading and Lord Beatty also have houses there.

LONDON FOG VISITS U. S. NEW YORK, (AP)—The central and north Atlantic seacoast has had a real taste of a London "pea soup" fog. Shipping in an area from Charleston, S. C., as far north as Boston has been partially paralyzed for the past 36 hours, while normal street and railroad traffic in cities like New York and Boston has been impeded seriously.
