

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS

June 9, 10, 11—Union Livestock show at Union, Ore.

In City from Cove—L. Lantz was a visitor to La Grande yesterday afternoon.

Here from Huntington—Mrs. J. W. Foster, whose home is at Huntington, is in La Grande for a day or two.

Convalescent After Operation—Mrs. Ed Ford is convalescing at her apartment home after a minor operation.

Called by Daughter's Illness—Mrs. Joe Woods has come to Heppner called by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Clay Woods.

Here on Business—S. T. Billow, who owns a farm near Island City was a business visitor in La Grande yesterday.

Changes Time of Trip—The 2:15 p. m. stage trip from Joseph has been eliminated and instead a 4 p. m. trip installed, it is announced today.

Will Move to La Grande—J. R. Nichols, who now makes his home in Idaho, has purchased a home here and will move to La Grande February 1.

Center Second Degree Tonight—Masons will meet at their temple this evening to initiate two candidates into the mysteries of the fellowcraft degree.

Shopping in City—Mrs. Milo Blackford returned to her home at Island City this morning after shopping in La Grande.

Reside Here Temporarily—P. J. Webber, who is connected with the Skaggs Grocery system, and Mrs. Webber have taken up temporary residence at the Sommer hotel during his stay here on business for his company.

Talk School Business—Superintendent E. E. Coad of Coos county in La Grande last evening to discuss school business with E. A. Sagar, superintendent of county schools.

La Granders in Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis, of La Grande, who have been at Walla Walla, Wash., recently, have taken an apartment in the Campbell Court hotel, Portland, Ore., for a period of about two months.

Home after Trip to Idaho—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mattoon passed through La Grande this morning on their way home to Enters, after visiting at various points in Idaho during the past ten days.

Here for Medical Treatment—Mrs. Roy Thompson and little son Roy Jr., who make their home at Enterprise, returned home this morning. They came to La Grande last night. Mrs. Thompson received medical treatment here.

Ill at Home—Miss Ina Mae Webster, who was taken suddenly ill several days ago at her home on N avenue is reported to be about the same. Miss Webster is said to be in a serious condition.

Left Last Night—Called by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Charles Edwards left La Grande last night on her way to Vancouver.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

GRAIN RATE TOO HIGH, BOARD TOLD
(Continued from Page One.)
cause of bad crop conditions and high freight rates. He declared that condition held true throughout the northwest.
H. W. Pickett, Salt Lake, manager of the traffic service bureau of Utah, gave a statistical description of the rate situation in the northwest part of the country. He submitted 12 exhibits.

Bearcat Hoopers Beat Dallas, WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Ore.—Willamette university's hoopers defeated Dallas athletic team, 44-16. The game was generously interspersed with fondle, rough tackling and running with the ball. Hartley for Willamette was high point man of the game with 14 points to his credit. Fuschel followed with 12 points. Farley contributed most to Dallas with eight points. The game is the last of the barnstorming season for the Bearcats.

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

Here from Merrill—A. H. Stange and C. J. Kinzel arrived in La Grande this morning from Merrill, Wisconsin and will be here until Wednesday on business. Mr. Stange is visiting at the A. J. Stange home here and Mr. Kinzel is a guest at the home of his son, Leslie Kinzel.

Home from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Walsinger, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past three weeks, where she underwent an operation has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Walsinger live on a farm, but have taken apartments in La Grande for the remainder of the winter.

Visiting in City—Showalter "Bud" Lynch arrived in La Grande Wednesday night from Klamath Falls and is visiting here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch. Mr. Lynch has been in Klamath Falls for the past two months, playing piano with an orchestra there. He is well known here, having formerly been a member of The Observer news staff.

Word Received Here—Word has been received here of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe at their home at Torrance, California, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Howe formerly lived in La Grande but left here about six years ago to make their home in California. Mr. Howe is a sister of Lester and Pete Kingles of this city. The following item appeared in the Torrance Herald, "Christmas eve when the two little Rowe girls, aged 10 and 5 respectively went to bed their mother told them that Santa might leave a baby brother before morning. When the two little girls awoke Christmas morning they hurried to the Christmas tree to see what old Saint Nick had left for them, sure enough, in the basket was the baby. But Santa had made a slight error and left a baby sister and not a baby brother. But just the same the two little Rowe girls are mighty happy over their Christmas present."

Princess Helen Viora, former wife of Prince Nicola of Greece, is to marry Count M. D'Arco, seen manufacturer of New York. It will be the princess' fourth marriage. One of her previous husbands was Frank J. Gould.

Washington, Mrs. Edwards is the wife of the proprietor of the La Grande Mattress company.

Selects Election Board—Election boards and judges are being selected today by the county court, which is now in the third day of its January session. Jury lists will be drawn this afternoon.

Spent Holidays at Nampa—Miss Edna Mae Matheson, secretary of the Intermountain Commercial college here, has returned to La Grande from Nampa, Idaho, where she visited during the holidays with her parents.

New Sign on Door—A new sign has been painted on the door of the forest ranger's office in the post office building. The rooms were formerly occupied by the land office and the old sign was not removed until yesterday when the new one was put on.

Awaits Family's Arrival—Until the arrival of his family from Shattuck, the Rev. C. V. V. (Chicago, Pittsburg and New York), his orchard is located four miles due north of Elgin and contains 150 acres of several varieties of trees. In sorting and packing, each box is classified as first, second or third grade. There is a demand for all three grades, it is stated.

Phenomena Patient Better—Leonard Stevens, who is suffering from pneumonia at his home near Elgin, is making a steady improvement. His fever has been broken, and his general condition to be favorable for a good recovery.

Have Baby Son—Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Watson are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy born to them Wednesday at the Grande Ronde hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Pays Fine and Goes—Harold Hug, who was committed to county jail Wednesday to serve out the $500 still owing on a $1000 fine imposed upon him last June for violation of the liquor laws, canceled the remainder of his debt Thursday and was released to his freedom.

DeMolay Meet Last Night—Members of the La Grande Order of DeMolay met last night in the Masonic hall in regular business meeting. Plans were made for the next meeting of the organization, which is set for January 21, when both the first and second degrees will be exemplified.

</