TIGERS TRIM ENTERPRISE

on the tip-off, flipped the ball to Glass or Hanks and before Enterprise realized what it was all about, Lyman had deposited the globule in the hoop for a brace of markers. It was the first demonstration of basketball as it should be played seen since the championship tournament at Union last year.

Lyman High Point Man.

Besides the outburst of teamwork the rest of the first half of the game was Enterprise's close checking in the first half Lyman's 25 points and Zundel's six consecutive conversions following four misses in the first of the game.

Lyman was easily the star of the game with his quick, yet accurate shots and his floor work, although the latter was equalled by Glass and Zundel. Incidentally Lyman scored the first and last field goals of the game, the latter coming with the whistle.

McCorkle started the game but before the first half was up, Hanks, another comer who fights to a finish, replaced him and took care of his forward position.

Game Rough.

The game was rougher than the ordinary. Two players, Stewart and Glass, took the bench before the game had ended because of personal fouls called on them, and other members of the two teams also stepped over. Most of the fouling, however, was unintentional and the result of over-eagerness.

Confidence that La Grande will have a strong team by tournament time was increased following the Saturday night contest. If Bennett can develop the five during the remainder of the season as he has to date, the fans reason, La Grande won't be entirely out of the running.

Two Games This Week.

The next appearance of the Tigers here will be Saturday night with Union the visitor. In all likelihood the Union girls will accompany the boys here and in that case, an especially attractive court bill is in prospect.

Friday night the blue and white will invade Elgin.

Billy Evans Says:

Shortstop Jimmy Caveney of the Cincinnati Reds has been shunted back to the minors. He goes to Seattle of the Pacific Coast league.

In his place comes Frank Emmer, who is just about the same age as Caveney. Peculiarly enough, Emmer received a trial by Cincinnati about 10 years back. He lacked experience.

The fact that every major league club waived on Jimmy Caveney was surely a big surprise to me. I didn't think there was a chance to get him out of the majors.

Perhaps Jimmy Caveney has faults with which I am not familiar, but every time that I have seen him in action he has looked like a great ball player.

With three or four clubs in both big leagues in need of shortstops, it is rather surprising to me that none of them were willing to gamble on Caveney's past performances.

Possibly next fall some big league club will be paying a fancy price to Seattle for the return of Jimmy Caveney. Stranger things have happened in baseball.

FLORIDA CAMPS.

Florida still has a decided edge as to major league training camps.

Now that all the big league clubs have announced their spring plans, we find that Florida will take care of 10 of the clubs. Five clubs in each league go to Florida.

The remaining three clubs in the National have selected California for training purposes. The other three in the American have picked on Georgia and Louisiana: Chicago goes to Shreveport, Boston to New Orleans and Detroit to Augusta.

Five years ago Florida was constantly bidding for big league clubs, but since last spring have made no efforts in that direction. Thus no new clubs have been added to the Florida roster but the 10 of last year have returned. Satisfied customers.

No doubt the fact that everyone in the state has been so busy with real estate get-rich-quick schemes, there has been no time to cater to baseball.

SCOTT'S RECORD.

Last season witnessed the breaking of one of the most remarkable records ever made in sport. Incidentally it appears to have marked the passing of the player who made it.

I have reference to Shortstop Everett Scott's feat of playing 1307 consecutive contests. Starting his endurance stunt in 1916, he continued it until May 6, 1925, when he was removed from the lineup by Manager Huggins of the Yankees.

Scott didn't relish being benched in place of some one whom he still considered his inferior and demanded that he be traded. He was sent to Washington, where he filled utility roles for the remainder of the season.

Since the close of the season Scott has invested his savings in a big recreation center at Ft. Wayne, Ind., and the report is that he will give his entire attention to that business.

If Scott holds good to his determination to retire, baseball will lose a player who has been a credit to the game. He always gave his best.

Fifty-Nine Cases in Which Losers Were Given Shutouts

CHICAGO (AP)—There were 59 games in the American league last year in which the losing team was set down without a score. Three of the season's shutouts went into extra innings and one was a six-inning contest halted because of darkness.

The White Sox pitching staff led in this respect, holding their opponents scoreless twelve times. Eddie Collins' crew was blanked only four times, not counting the game forfeited to Cleveland where the field could not be cleared of the crowd.

New York proved the easiest outfit to shut out. They were blanked an even dozen times. Yet it was a Yankee pitcher—Herb Pennock—who pitched the year's most notable shutout game, a fifteen-inning battle in which he retired the Athletics, 1-0.

The Red Sox failed to score nine times and the champion Senators, the Tigers and the Indians fell victims on six occasions. The Athletics and the Browns kept off the score-board in eight games.

The White Sox chalked up the heaviest total against a shutout team. In a game on Sept. 19, the Chicago team scored seventeen times against the scoreless Senators.

August was the shutout month, league records reveal. There were nineteen such games. August 7 was the banner day for shutout pitchers, when three games resulted in no scores for the losing teams.

NEVERS RESTS EASILY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., (AP)—Ernie Nevers, fullback from Leland Stanford university was resting easily Sunday night in his room at the Mason hotel. Examinations Sunday confirmed reports, of the physicians at the field Saturday that he had torn ligaments in his back when downed in an attempt to buckle the line during the game with the New York Giants. The Giants won, 7 to 0, from Nevers and his Jacksonville all-star eleven. Nevers will not be able to play again for at least a week. The attending physician made this statement Sunday.

Grange's Bears Trim Southern All-Stars

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Harold "Red" Grange and his Chicago Bears exhibited their football skill before a crowd of 6000 persons by defeating the Southern All-stars, 14-0, here Sunday. The contest, market by numerous penalties, was played on a muddy field.

Grange supplied the biggest thrill of the game in the last quarter when he sidestepped in a half dozen players and returned "Moon" Ducote's punt 51 yards to the six yard line. A fifteen yard penalty was imposed on the Bears on that play for clipping. Line plays by Walquist and Knopp gained 12 yards and Grange plunged over the line for a touchdown.

Evik scored the Bear's first touchdown in the second quarter by a punt he had blocked behind the goal line, Sternaman drop kicked goals for the two points after touchdowns.

Grange's runs almost always netted five yards. A 20-yard gain was Grange's best from scrimmage and nine yards his next best. He carried the pigskin 16 times from scrimmage for a total of 72 yards, an average of four and a half yards per jaunt. He was thrown for losses twice, once for two and again for six.

Stetcher Is Eager to Meet Lewis for Title

DODGE, Neb., (AP)—Anton Stecher, brother and manager of Joe Stecher, heavyweight wrestler, when advised Sunday night of the desire of match-maker Ralph Mondt of Denver for a match between Joe Stecher and Ed (Strangler) Lewis, said that as soon as Mondt can sign Lewis, Joe will sign.

"When Lewis signs, we'll talk turkey," Anton said.

He claims that Joe is anxious to settle the title claims.

It costs you seven dollars out of every ten to live

Economic experts tell us that it costs the average family about 70 per cent of its total income to buy food, clothing, household utilities and all the multitude of little things that keep a family comfortable and happy.

Seven dollars out of every ten—and that doesn't include rent, luxuries or entertainment.

Think what a job it is to spend this large proportion of your income wisely and well. To get the biggest and best possible value from every one of those seven dollars.

The clever woman goes to the advertisements of her daily paper for help. There she finds a directory of buying and selling. She learns about the offerings of merchants and manufacturers. She compares values. She weighs quality and price. She takes this opportunity of judging and selecting almost everything she needs to feed, clothe, amuse, instruct and generally bring up her family.

Do you read the advertisements? You will find them willing and able to serve you in the daily business of purchase.
