BRITISH OFFICIALS WARN AGAINST POISON APPLES LONDON, (AP)—British officials for the second time in recent weeks have called attention to the danger of arsenic poisoning from imported apples.

The Middlesex county council has distributed a leaflet to dealers referring to recent announcement of the minister of health that certain imported apples have been found to contain arsenic on the skin surface. The leaflet points out that in spite of recent precautions quantities of dangerously contaminated apples are still on sale and warns the public against eating the skins.

Most of the fears you see in the movies are faked. Movie stars really have nothing to cry about.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Stewed dried peaches, cereal, thin cream, fried cornmeal mush, sirup, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Creamed eggs on toast, buttered spinach, raisin bread, old cake pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Pot roast of veal, mashed potatoes, jellied tomato salad, baked squash, fig custards, Graham bread, milk, coffee.

The old cake pudding suggested in the luncheon menu is much like a bread pudding using cake crumbs in place of bread crumbs. Care must be taken in sweetening the pudding not to make it too sweet.

Fig Custards One-fourth pound figs, 1 1/2 cup cold water, one half cup hot water, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 orange, 1 and one half tablespoon cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 egg.

Wash figs through several waters and let stand in cold water until tender. Rub through a colander. Add hot water, juice of orange and sugar. Bring to the boiling point and stir in cornstarch stirred to a smooth thin paste with cold water. Cook, stirring to prevent sticking and burning until clear. Beat white of egg and 2 teaspoons of cold water until stiff and dry. Fold into hot fig mixture adding salt. Pour into individual molds and let stand until well chilled. Serve with boiled custard made with the egg yolk.

Declares Everyone Should Be Made to Sing by Law LONDON, (AP)—Everybody should be compelled by law to sing when they are young, because of the disciplinary effect of music, in the opinion of Sir Hugh Percy Alton, director of the Royal College of Music.

"And folk shouldn't discontinue singing when they have grown up," he said. "We talk too much and sing too little. We listen too much to music and do not sing enough of it. Music is one of the very best disciplines in the world. Singing teaches the singer courage, and combines singing, humil-
