Mrs. Sawyer Host At Bridge Luncheon
Mrs. W. G. Sawyer entertained the ladies of the Monday Bridge club Monday afternoon with a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock. Covers were laid for twelve. The table was decorated with a pretty color scheme of red and white.

During the afternoon's play at bridge following luncheon Mrs. A. T. Hill won high score among the club members. Mrs. A. L. Richardson received the guest prize.

Party Compliments Miss Smith
The birthday anniversary of Miss Roula Smith was the inspiration for a surprise party Saturday night given by her mother, Mrs. L. A. Smith, at their home at Indian city. The rooms were prettily decorated with the season's flowers. Twenty-five people were present and cards were at play during the evening.

At an appropriate hour delicious refreshments were served. Miss Smith received several beautiful and useful gifts.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Robinson
Mrs. Frank Robinson was hostess to the members of the Junior Bridge club Friday afternoon with an attractive party at her home on Washington avenue. Lovely bouquets of the season's flowers were used to decorate the home. During the afternoon's play Mrs. Elmer McManus won high score among the club members and Mrs. Ray Price won second prize. Mrs. Lloyd Young received the most prize.

Following the play a two-course luncheon was served.

Club Luncheons Benefit Fund
At the beginning of the Neighborhood club year arrangements were made by the state scholarship fund by giving a series of luncheons. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. T. Richardson, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Crews, Mrs. Evelyn Hearnshaw and Mrs. Charles Noyes entertained at one of these luncheons.

Cards were the principal diversion of the afternoon.

Raffia Again

Here is a novel use of raffia which is being worked more and more into the ensemble this year. Here it is used as an insert of bright color on a white kid sandal. Very chic for the south.

R. N. District Deputy Guest of La Grande

Mrs. Phoebe Williams, district deputy of the Royal Neighbors, arrived in La Grande Sunday from Baker. Mrs. Williams is here to install officers Wednesday evening when the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors will have joint installation at the K. P. hall.

Mrs. Williams is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Perle Monday night in La Grande.

Cove (Special)—Mrs. R. H. Daniels was hostess to the Young Matrons Bridge club Saturday afternoon at a luncheon at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for Mrs. T. H. Hefly, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. William Hallmark, Mrs. William Bradner, Miss Boss Kelly, Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. Lyman Chadwick, Mrs. P. Miller, Miss Vina Conley and Mrs. G. E. Barker. Miss Conley was elected to membership in the club.

After luncheon the afternoon was spent at bridge, with Mrs. Hefly winning high score.

Cove (Special)—The marriage of Mrs. Elsie Murchison, of Cove, and John Collins, of Baker, took place at the Methodist Episcopal church parsonage Thursday, January 7, the Rev. Mr. Spajley officiating. The happy couple will make their home at Cove.

Announcements
Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. O. Payton, 604 Adams avenue.

Mrs. Charles E. Gump will be hostess to the members of the Parkdale club tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Thomas Standley will be assistant hostess.

The W. R. A. will meet in regular session at the K. P. hall this evening. There will be installation of officers followed by the serving of refreshments. A large attendance is expected.

The teachers of the Baptist Sunday school will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. L. Devine. This is the regular monthly meeting.

Cove (Special)—Mrs. Ray Goodnough and Mrs. J. J. Conley will entertain the members of the Ladies' Guild Saturday afternoon, January 16, at the home of Mrs. Ray Goodnough in La Grande.

Scientists have changed the sex of salamanders. Maybe they did so by bobbing its hair and letting it smoke cigars.

Woman Coach

Miss Donna Perry, Seattle, is the only woman soccer coach in the west. Her team won the city title.

OFFER APPLES TO WALLOWANS

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Date Conklin and family of Imber, were in this section of the country the latter part of the week. Mr. Conklin was investigating the possibility of finding a part of his apples in this section. They visited at T. G. Johnson's white here. Mr. Conklin reports mild weather in Union county, with an absence of severe storms.

T. G. Johnson left the first of the week for a few days visit at Portland. G. I. Martin, a farmer living on Diamond Prairie west of here, had the misfortune to break his arm recently while cranking his automobile.

C. F. Harmon, who has been a patient at the hospital here during the past week, is reported to be slightly improved at this time, but not entirely out of danger. His condition has been serious for the past several days.

H. G. Masterson, a farmer living in the valley section a few miles east of here expects to install a radio revolving set soon.

Radio Reception Good.
Radio reception is reported to be very good in this section now, some of the fans report hearing many of the eastern stations. Earl Hoopars, using a three-tube set, reports he received programs from Schenectady, N. Y., during the afternoon the early part of the week.

R. C. Dunlap, and Mrs. C. F. Harmon and Mrs. F. W. Heskett of Leap, were here the latter part of the week, visiting C. F. Harmon who is a patient at the hospital.

Quane Bathrope of Parsnip Creek was busy the latter part of the week hunting some cats, which he has been unable to locate yet this fall.

Habitat Permit Necessary.
A number of persons who have engaged in the business of raising chinchilla rabbits during the past few months, have learned recently from the deputy game warden that these rabbits are classed as fur-bearing animals, making it necessary to obtain a game breeder's permit from the state game commission.

Albert Childers of Trout creek, was helping Gerald Heskett of Leap, cut wood the latter part of the week.

This is the last week of the Sale. We have some great bargains in Ladies' Shoes. But you must come and see these shoes and get filled. Our prices are very modest and reflect on lots of these broken sizes. Arch-Aids and Red Cross, 10 per cent off this week only. Children's Felt Slippers, size 5 1/2 to 11, 50c, and size 11 1/2 to 2, 75c—red or blue. These are cheaper than wool hose for the kids. Do you want them? We have a few Silk Hosiery at cut prices. You should look these over. I know you will take home a pair at our price. I have a few pair of Zippers left. Wear these rubbers and don't get your feet wet and be sick. They are cheaper than cough syrup. Glad Fruit wears our rubbers—he's never sick.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Apples, cereal, thin cream, country sausage, creamed potatoes, spider corn cake, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Noodles in cheese sauce, celery sandwiches, cranberry whip, rolled oats macaroons, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast beef, potatoes

baked with meat, gravy, turnips in cream sauce, grapefruit salad, Spanish cream, graham bread, milk coffee.

With the exception of the sausage suggested in the breakfast menu there are no dishes unsuitable for children as young as four years.

A cool, juicy apple is an ideal appetizer in the morning. It means little work in preparation. Careful washing and drying so that the skin can be eaten if preferred is all that's necessary.

Two cups cranberries, 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons granulated gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 2 eggs (whites).

Pick over and wash cranberries. Put berries and boiling water into a large sauce pan and cook until tender, about 20 minutes. Rub through a sieve. Add sugar to juice and bring to the boiling point. Soften gelatin in cold water for 10 minutes. Stir into hot sirup, stirring until gelatin is dissolved. Add lemon juice when cool. When mixture begins to jelly fold in the whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a mold dipped in cold water. Let stand in a cold place until thoroughly chilled and firm. Serve with a custard sauce made with the yolks of the eggs.
