Griddle Cakes - Fruit Fritters - Popovers - and eight more!

from ONE Master Recipe

Griddle Cakes for breakfast. And from left-over batter, Pineapple Fritters for lunch! That's one reason you'll enjoy using this Master Recipe. But it's only one of eleven reasons—every one delicious!

Popovers are another. You didn't dream that these hollow, muffin-shaped cakes were related to Griddle Cakes; yet a slight change in that Master Recipe—and there they are! Here's how you do it!

The Sperry Master Recipe for Griddle Cakes

2 cups Sperry Drifted 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 tablespoon sugar
Snow Flour 1 egg 1 tablespoon melted
2 teasp. baking powder 1 1/2 cups milk 1 shortening

Measure and sift dry ingredients; beat egg until very light, then add milk and combine mixtures, beating with rotary egg beater until free from lumps. Add melted shortening and bake at once. If batter is not baked soon after mixing, beat well again before using. If only one-half recipe is needed, still use the whole egg.

Except that baking powder is omitted, the Popover recipe is almost identical to the Griddle Cake recipe. Use only 1 cup of flour, 1 cup of milk, 2 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon of melted butter. Beat flour and milk until smooth; add 1 egg unbeaten and beat mixture one minute; add other egg and beat again; then add melted butter. Meanwhile have custard cups or iron muffin pans heating. They should be hot. Grease well just before adding batter, 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 15 minutes, then reduce heat and bake 30 minutes longer. Bake thoroughly, or Popovers may fall.

Pineapple Fritters Use left-over Griddle Cake batter, or prepare 1/2 Master Recipe. Drain slices of pineapple; dip into batter, then drop into hot deep fat and fry until a golden brown on each side. (A small cube of dry bread dropped into fat should turn golden brown while you count forty.) If you substitute other fruits, such as apples or bananas, fry longer, testing bread by counting to ninety.

With this Griddle Cake Master Recipe you can make just as easily: Waffles, French and German Pancakes, Corn Fritters, Potato Pancakes, and five kinds of Griddle Cakes. To learn how, send for the free booklet, "EIGHTY Food Delights from EIGHT Master Recipes."

Let Me Help You Speaking of Griddle Cakes, do you know how to make them come out fluffy and golden-brown always? Write me and I'll tell you the trick.

Perhaps you're looking for pointers on some other phase of cooking—cake baking? pastry making? Tell me just what you'd like to know and I'll help you the best I can. No charge, of course, for this is Sperry's treat. Write me now.
