Edison Give Report—During the school semester the club has made eight hikes to places near La Grande.

Review Started—Nearly all the classes have finished their required amount of work for the semester and have begun their review.

Fresh Practice—Freshman squad, which contains about 15 men, practice in the local gym every Monday and Wednesday evening under the supervision of Coach Hichelieu.

Hugs Ordered—The junior class has ordered its rings and is anxiously awaiting their arrival.

Science Class Progress—The physics class was given a set of 50 problems to work individually. All these are to be in by a week from Friday and will take place of the customary six-weeks test.

Orchestra at Work—Miss Dillon has procured two new selections for the orchestra, "The Brownie's Story" and "Angry." The two pieces were tried Monday evening and it was found that it will take a great deal of practice to master them properly.

Go Skating—Last Saturday week the La Grande high school hikers started on a short hike to go ice skating. This was not holding strictly to the order of the club but every year during the skating season one hike is devoted to skating.

Class Meet—The senior girls held a class meeting Monday afternoon to tell their chief talent. Most girls were humbly modest, but those who could play the victrola did not hesitate to say so.

AUTHENTIC STORIES--

Of early Eastern Oregon life and development should be preserved and perpetuated. An effort to do this is being made by the Hot Lake Sanatorium.

It will be appreciated if any early settler, any descendant of our sturdy pioneers, or anyone interested in collecting such history, will communicate with Working Hard—The Mimic staff has again renewed its diligent preparation of the Mimic. A meeting of the staff was called by the editor, Marjorie Warnick, and supervisor, Miss Margaret Bennett.

Mothers Entertained—The junior girls entertained their mothers Wednesday evening at the high school. The teachers were also invited.

Assembly Held—Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock the students were assembled in the auditorium to hear an address by Sivanus Smith, an old marine, who was introduced by Earl Reynolds.

Booklets Made—The world history class has been busy preparing short booklets on great historical characters. Those handed in narrated on the lives of Foch, Pershing, Napoleon and Marie Antoinette.

Economics—The economics class has been reading books which deal with the economic conditions in other countries. Books on Turkey, Mexico, China, Europe, Russia, Morocco and Algeria, Austria and America have been read by the students.

Basketball—After two victorious games last week with Wallawa and Enterprise the blue and white quintet is hoping it will prove as competent in the remainder of the games.

Civics Committee—The civics committee of the A. G. S. has made known the two girls selected from each class in the high school.

Vague Doubts—The seniors are anxiously looking up their credits to see if they can graduate or must cram to get through. Fifteen credits are required to graduate but 16 is more desirable.

Rest Room Closed—The girls' rest room has been closed the past two weeks so as to help in preventing scarlet fever.

Scoreless Hero

Capt. Clarence Leddington of the Utah Aggies is credited with being "the whole team, although in his four years of varsity playing he's never scored a point. He's helped many others to score, though.

You Can't Stay Where You Are YOU turn through a kodak album and smile at old-style clothes. Skirts clattering the ankles . . . hats perched high up on hair . . . wasp waists . . . awkward sleeves—odd how your taste has changed! Yet day by day your taste changes in all you wear and do. You don't like the same books, enjoy the same movies, choose the same underwear, prefer the same soap you did a short while ago. You are so used to the better, you wonder why you liked the old. Advertisements make you know the better as soon as it's proved to be better. They tell of good things accepted as good taste in the best homes. The hosiery, glass-curtains, lighting fixtures other moderns use; why their use is preferred. Advertisements influence so many around you, sooner or later you'll feel the change. Even if you never read an advertisement, you'll use in time some of the conveniences which advertisements urge you to use today. Advertisements form a tide of taste that sweeps you forward; you can't stand still. Since you'll enjoy what they advertise anyway, why not begin enjoying it now?
