Celebrate Birthday With Party

Mrs. E. F. Wilde entertained a number of children Saturday afternoon honoring the sixth birthday anniversary of her smallest son, Gordon. The afternoon was spent at games followed by a delicious luncheon. Pastors, in bright colors, were given the children. A feature of the luncheon was a birthday cake with six lighted candles.

The children present were: Junior Reynolds, Rex Lowry, Margaret Dixon, Patricia and Frances Clark, Geraldine and Barbara O'Brien, Marcia Miller, Mary Etta Foley, Nellie and Helen Sargent, Nancy Helms, Stuart Wilde and the honor guest.

Junior Endeavor Meets at Church

The women of the home department of the Presbyterian church entertained the members of the Junior Christian Endeavor society at a delightful party Saturday afternoon in the community room of the church. Twenty children and that many women were present. An impromptu program was given during the afternoon, including several readings by Frances Wallace.

A number of interesting games were enjoyed by the children. Mrs. Newland and Ruth and Margaret McAllister were in charge of the games.

W. R. C. Officers Are Installed

Members of the Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps No. 27 held their regular dinner Saturday at noon at the K. P. Hall. The Rev. C. V. Dunn spoke during the evening of dinner and Mrs. Jessie Nelson gave a reading.

The regular meeting of the corps was held at 2:30 o'clock following dinner and officers for the regular year were installed by Mrs. Jessie Nelson, past president, assisted by Mrs. Ross, Wright as conductress. The following officers were installed: President, Laura Braden; senior vice president, Lena Jones; junior vice president, Susan Williamson; conductress, Alice Turner; assisting conductress, Elsie Wilcock; chaplain, Ella Bunting; treasurer, Elvora Carr; secretary, Edie Slings; guard, Francis Plank; assistant guard, Susan Turner; press correspondent, Edie Nye; patriotic instructor, Rebecca Koehnsperger; musician, Edna Gates; and color bearers, Florence Nelson, Nellie Smith, Lorraine Smith and Annie Pollard.

Previous to installation two new members were initiated. The installing officers were presented with a beautiful bouquet by the members of the corps.

Cove Ladies Guild Meets Here

Mrs. Ray Goodenough and Mrs. J. J. Conley were hostesses to the members of the Cove Ladies' guild Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Goodenough on Oak street. A delicious luncheon was served at the meeting.

Tied In

Here is an original way to wear the pearl necklace. A long rope is wound about the throat to hold a silk flower on the left side. Then it is looped twice, tying in a knot. One end drops below the waistline in front, the other behind.

1:20 o'clock with covers laid for 16. After luncheon four tables of bridge were formed, with Mrs. A. J. Conklin winning high score and Mrs. A. Creton the second prize.

Maxims Entertain At Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. Maxim entertained a number of friends at bridge Saturday evening. Three tables were played with Mrs. L. Crawford winning high score among the ladies and Charles Floburg and gentlemen's prize. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Cinden and Mrs. Mat Colwell.

Luncheon was served after the play.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Grapefruit, cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, bread, cranberry pancakes, sirup, crisp bran toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Egg and vegetable salad, rice, bread, squash pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Veal timbales, twice baked potatoes, creamed carrots, molded spinach salad, prune whip with custard sauce, whole wheat bread, apple jelly, milk, coffee.

The veal timbales use up bits of veal left from the roast suggested for the dinner just preceding.

The egg and vegetable salad is somewhat out of the ordinary but very much worth while.

Egg and Vegetable Salad. Five hard cooked eggs, 1 small green pepper, 2 cup finely chopped celery, 4 tablespoons tomato catsup, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons olive oil, mayonnaise, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup French dressing.

Put eggs in hot water, remove yolks and mash. Remove yolk and seeds from pepper and mince finely. Combine celery, pepper and egg yolks with vinegar, oil, salt, paprika and lemon juice. Mix well and add enough mayonnaise to make moist. Fill the whites of the eggs with this mixture. Mix cabbage with French dressing and arrange on a platter. Serve eggs on the bed of cabbage.

Threads of punnets through the cabbage add much to the attractiveness of the salad.

IDAHO ASSESSORS CARRY ON

BOISE, Idaho.—Tuesday's session of the annual convention of Idaho county assessors was devoted to discussions of problems common to all assessors, and to hearing addresses. Justice Raymond L. Glynn of the supreme court, and W. A. Kincaid, former assessor of Ada county, were two of the speakers.

Resolutions being prepared are expected to be submitted to vote Wednesday morning. Groups, by counties are working at intervals on values to be made uniform on assessments of land.

BANDIT VICTIMS—Mrs. Hugh O. Turndine of Little Rock, Ark. (above) and Miss Pauline Ritter of New York, near East Relief workers, were held up by bandits in the remote Caucasus and robbed of money and jewels.

HAVE STORE AT AUTO CAMP

LEWISTON, Idaho.—Miller and Jess, extensive Lewiston property owners, announced January 16 that a general store would be installed as part of the equipment of the model auto camp they are starting on East Main street. A brick building will be erected to house the store, while on the same lot an oil station will be built. Shower baths, summer dining rooms, and other facilities are being installed, the plant to be one of the finest on the Pacific coast. The investment, exclusive of the brick building, will reach $16,000.

The plant will accommodate 129 cars. The site is a short distance east of a block of land owned by J. O. Lasker, rumor being persistent that the Lasker property is the subject of negotiation as a site for a 100-room hotel. The Lasker property is just east of the county building.

LIFE INSURANCE MEN UNITE

LEWISTON, Idaho.—At a meeting January 2 at the Lewis-Clark hotel, life insurance representatives of the 13 northern counties of Idaho organized the National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters for Northern Idaho, to be a branch of the national organization. Officers chosen are: George W. Seeger, Lewiston, president; Al Hauch, Lewiston, vice president; Roy V. Pauloy, Lewiston, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was attended by 50, nearly all northern counties being represented. Letters were received from several announcing that they would join. Speakers expressed belief that the organization would benefit the public.

There will be a monthly meeting at Lewiston. The directors will represent all northern counties. During the year, regional meetings will be held in principal towns.

"Trouble"
Behind your telephone service is the "plant"—a complicated mechanical equipment of poles, cables, wires, switches, boards, instruments, etc., carefully adjusted and absolutely dependent on perfect construction and maintenance.
The "plant" is constantly subject to accident and outside interference. Storms, fires, the carelessness of workmen, the pranks of children, concealed defects of material—all play their part.
Your lines are constantly watched and tested. In the case of trouble we are generally the first to know it, but a notification to our Complaint Department when there is anything wrong will be appreciated.
