EYE INJURED ACCIDENTALLY

PLOMERS (Special)—Edna Carper had the misfortune to get struck in the eye with a stick while playing at school a few days ago. She was taken to Miss... where the wound was dressed. Her eye was badly swollen but it is not thought that her sight will be affected.

Miss Carper spent several days with her parents at Troy last week.

Lee Smith moved to his new home at Promis last Tuesday. Ernest Knutson helped him move. Leo Pink came down from Massville Saturday and went to the Grand Island river, where he intends to trap and prospect. J. Will Hovest, lately from Okla-

WOMEN ACCOMPANIED HIM

They intend to camp near the German canyon. Miss Carper moved their outfit down for them.

Walter Carper took a load of potatoes to Maxville Tuesday.

Robert Carper attended the dance at Troy Saturday evening.

The Division is suffering from an abcess in his ear.

Both Hayes spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Carper.

Alfred Hoff, a government trapper, who is trapping on the Egan side of the river, was struck in the eye by a stick while riding through some brush. He was taken to the doctor at Wallawa and it was found that a piece of the stick had broken and was in his eyeball. He is staying at Wallawa and receiving treatment.

Edna and Eugene Gorski are attending business college at Baker.

William Carper was ill two days the first of the week and was unable to attend school.

Spring Wheat Arrives Larger

Millions of acres in Oregon and in the United States show that the planting of winter wheat was considerable below normal in the fall of 1925. There is some justification for increasing the acreage of spring wheat over the normal

In Style

This is the correct winter dress in Oregon this year, as worn by Miss Maxine Orick. It just shows that knee suits aren't new, after all. However, the Oregon girls aren't pulling their pants.

ederation, Jenkin club, and three-chaff clubs are all excellent holders. On the heavier soils, and upland soils and on some of the soils that are somewhat run down, Huston is without doubt the best available variety from Douglas county north.

The wheat situation has changed but little as the market has tapered off to some extent and demand in the Pacific northwest has lessened, and a late O. A. C. experiment station radio dispatch. News-hunt are the highest yielding and best priced varieties. For Western Oregon, substitution is very good in Jackson, Josephine and Douglas counties, especially in the middle and fairly rich soils. In the Willamette valley on mellow rich soils tending to confirm the theory that the early December flurry was to a considerable extent speculative. The seed situation remains about the same as last week, this being an off season for planting.

Women's Club Seeks Members—WILBUR, Wash.—The Women's Civic club has begun a membership campaign with Mrs. W. F. Gray and Mrs. John D. Arington as sponsors, the winners to be entertained by lunch at the close of the contest March 1. No entrance fee will be charged to those joining during the contest.

Mrs. William J. Jones, Mrs. L. A. Lyar and Mrs. Charles Schreiner were named as a committee to draft new by-laws.

The club plans a play within a few weeks. The committee on entertainments is Mrs. E. J. Johnson and Mrs. V. Howell. A committee was named, including Mrs. Charles Pike, Mrs. James M. Roy and Mrs. W. J. Jones.

The club will be guests of Mrs. John D. Arington for the February session, which a program will be given and refreshments served.
