What Are You Doing For Your Puny Child?
 One boy gained 11 pounds in 7 weeks and is now strong and healthy.

For weak, frail, under-developed children—and especially those that have rickets, and need a sure builder that promotes the growth of teeth and bones, cod liver oil is the one medicine supreme—nothing helps like it.

But it is nasty and repulsive and evil smelling and nearly always upsets children's stomachs—so now up-to-date chemists advise McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Children love them as they do candy, because they are sugar coated and easy to take. One boy gained 11 pounds in seven weeks, and is now healthy and happy—thousands of other children have grown strong and robust.

Sixty tablets for 50 cents at all drug stores, Glass Drugs and all druggists—but be sure and ask for McCoy's—the original and genuine.

Zober hall this evening. A general invitation is extended.

DAWES, REED IN VERBAL EXCHANGE

officers' club in the temple, Vice President Dawes today engaged in an exchange with Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri over vice presidential strictures on the conduct of the senate debate under the present rules.

Reed, resuming his speech against the world court, remarked that he would not attack Dawes from the senate floor because the vice president could not reply, although Dawes had attacked him over the radio last night when he could not reply.

Dawes, presiding, interrupted to say he was not referring to Senator Reed, but to a "senator from New York" when he told a radio audience that a fresh demonstration of need for rules revision had been given during yesterday's senate session.

TAX BILL PRESENTED.
 WASHINGTON (By the Associated Press)—The senate finance committee today formally presented the tax reduction bill to the senate. Chairman Smoot, however, said he would not ask the senate to take up the bill before Monday, or before a definite agreement on the world court vote is reached.

STRAY BULLET HITS MAN.
 BURGESS, Ore.—C. L. Glasper, sawmill hand at Lowell, was struck on the head today by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of an unknown person. He was at the dinner table with other employes when the crash of the bullet was heard as it came through a window and Glasper fell to the floor unconscious.

The bullet did not penetrate the skull. Glasper was rushed to a hospital at Springfield, where he regained consciousness and later in the afternoon was on his way home.

Short and Sweet.
 After the usual introduction of fighters and wrestlers, including August Busch, Salt Lake man, who may make La Grande his headquarters, Referee Scott presented Lewis and Adams to the crowd.

The first round opened with each feeling out the other. After a powerful exchange of blows, Adams rushed Lewis to the ropes and drove in enough punches to the body and face to be in the lead at the end of the round.

The second was vastly different. Adams tore into his opponent from the first and built up a big lead. In the third Lewis came back to some extent, although Adams held a margin of superiority. In the fourth Lewis was staggering and seemed about ready for a kayo punch. Adams, after Lewis staggered one to the body, sent him to the ropes in the beginning of the fifth, cornering him and broadcasting a series of punches at close quarters until Scott separated them. Lewis fell to the floor and took a count of nine. Adams again sent him to the ropes with a right and left and then sank another punch that seemed to have the knockout drops. Lewis' seconds ended the affair then by tossing in the aerosol sponge and towel.

Although Adams held the edge throughout, Lewis put up a game fight, although his hand was broken midway in the scrap.
