UNION LIKES CHURCH PLAY

UNION, Ore. (Special)— The play staged at the L. D. S. church by several members of the church was so well received that it was decided to put it on again at the school gym. It was given last Friday evening and was very well patronized. The acting was good and the parts well learned. The play which was called "Eyes of Love" included the following cast: J. W Wilde, John Harris, Lawrence Sirrine, Jack Orde, Ora Cline, Hazel Sirrine, Bertha Hoyle, Mary Atkinson, Irene Kohler, and Grace Halling.

At a meeting held last week the following officers were elected for the First National Bank of Union: president—G. W. Benson, vice-president— Thomas Brasher, directors—S. E. Miller, J. F. Hutchinson, Mrs. [illegible] Stevens, John Dean and L. A. Wright. The same office force was retained; cashier—J. F. Hutchinson, assistant—Fred N. Fox, bookkeeper—Vera Shaw and assistant—Erma Puckett.

A. Hanson, proprietor of the Hanson Cigar store, has been in Portland most of last week a witness in the timber claim trial going on there.

George W. Benson has gone to Portland for a visit of several weeks time.

A. C. Hess and J. F. Hutchinson went to Portland last week to attend the timber claim trial.

Paddock Speaks

Charles Paddock, the noted athlete appeared at the school gym last Wednesday evening under the auspices of the lyceum course. His lecture was fairly well attended.

Dr. Little was over from Cove last Friday on business. He returned to his home the same evening.

Last week seemed to be an unlucky one for Union basketball boys, as they dropped two games, one Friday evening and a second on Saturday evening. The Friday game at Baker resulted in a victory for the Baker team 25 to 5, while the one at La Grande the following evening was not so uneven in the score, La Grande winning 27 to 15. The girls also played at Baker Friday, winning their game. This makes the seventh victory to one defeat for the Union girls. The only loss was on the Wallowa floor when they were nosed out by two points after having won over the same team on the local gym floor by one point.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Orange juice, cereal cooked with prunes, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, cornbread, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Ragout of celery, orange pudding, molasses cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Rolled breast of veal, buttered spinach, cabbage and grapefruit salad, whole wheat rolls, Indian suet pudding, milk, coffee.

The dinner meat is one of those dishes that require more time than money but is worth the time. It may be sad but nevertheless true that we can't conjure a meal out of thin air. However, if we can spend a few extra "minutes" in the kitchen some days we can spare our ever-yawning purses.

Rolled Breast of Veal

Four pounds breast of veal, ½ pound sausage meat, ⅓ cup rice, 1 tablespoon grated cheese, 3 cups stock, 1 large onion, 1 carrot, ½ small turnip, parsley, thyme, bay leaf, peppercorns, salt and pepper.

Remove bones and tendons from veal and trim neatly. Season with salt and pepper, spread with sausage meat, roll tightly and bind with string. Put bones and trimmings from meat into a kettle. Add vegetables cut in dice, herbs, salt and pepper. Put roll of meat on top and add water to cover vegetables. Cover kettle closely and simmer for two hours. Baste meat frequently and add water as necessary. Remove roll of meat and strain stock. There should be 3 cups. Boil rice in salted water for 15 minutes. Drain and add to boiling stock. [illegible]

WASHINGTON, (NEA Special) — [illegible] ly are too many lawyers in Congress.

The Senate debate over the question of Gerald P. Nye's title to a seat in the upper house brought this out as it hasn't been emphasized in a long time—though Nye did win in the end.

The thing was one long wrangle over legal quibbles. It wasn't all pure politics, either. The division was not much along party lines. It was a disagreement between lawyers.

To the lay mind the proposition seemed simple enough.

Governor Sorlie of North Dakota appointed Nye to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Ladd's death until the next election.

Now, three men already occupied Senate seats by appointment, under similar circumstances, when the Nye dispute arose— William M. Butler of Massachusetts, George H. Williams of Missouri and Arthur R. Robinson of Indiana.

* * *

It looked as if the governor of North Dakota ought to have as good a right to fill a Senate vacancy temporarily by appointment as the governors of Massachusetts, Missouri and Indiana.

But 64 of the Senate's 96 members are lawyers and they got into a technical squabble, which they argued quite meaninglessly to a legally untrained intellect—to the tune of about 150 pages in the Congressional Record.

* * *

Sixty-four lawyers are a lot of lawyers. Two of them, Senators Butler and Fess, are principally something else— respectively a manufacturer and a teacher—but on the side they're lawyers.

The rest are just plain, unadulterated lawyers and always have been, with the sole exception of Senator Tyson, who was a professional soldier—a West Pointer—for a good many of years before he hung out his legal shingle.

This will marks the entrance of the seventh store in Albany within the last few years.

4 BARS SAWED, 3 ESCAPE

BEND, Ore.,—Officers scoured vainly the country north of Bend in search of George H. Hoehl, W. C. Johnson and Joe Brown, who sawed their way out of the county jail. The search led as far as the Metolius county. The prisoners were awaiting investigation by the grand jury. Hoehl was bound over Saturday on two charges of obtaining property on false pretenses. Brown was held on a charge of issuing worthless checks, using minor boys as accomplices, and Johnson was charged with possession of a still. Other prisoners, who refused to accompany them, said the men left about 2 o'clock. They sawed through two bars of the cage and two bars in a window.

Due to a shortage of underwear lots of knees are cold.

Your DEFENSE

The Foundation of True Thrift

No matter what you wish to accomplish in the accumulation of money, in the protection of your family, in providing them with the worth-while and enjoyable things of life — you can accomplish it only by practicing the requirements of thrift as emphasized during this National Thrift Week.

And a Savings Account is the foundation of thrift accomplishment. If you would own a home of your own, if you would own safe investments that will guard your earning power in the future, if you would buy many of the things that make life happier and more enjoyable — a Savings Account is the first step. It lends impetus to and makes possible the "Ten Point Success Creed" emphasized during Thrift Week.

Practice Thrift

The Ten Point Success Creed

1. Work and Earn.
2. Make a Budget.
3. Record Expenditures.
4. Have a Bank Account.
5. Carry Life Insurance.
6. Own Your Home.
7. Make a Will.
8. Invest in Safe Securities.
9. Pay Bills Promptly.
10. Share With Others.

Teach Thrift

Save — but save for a purpose. Let your savings account accumulate gradually for you until you can make a worth-while investment, until you can buy a bond, some real estate, or build a house. Teach children the advantages of saving for a purpose — how they can accomplish things by thrift. If you haven't a savings account for them (or for yourself) make Thrift Week count by opening an account with this strong bank.
