W. C. Fields Stars In Griffith Comedy Now at Sherrys

Since the time when D. W. Griffith made the first motion picture comedy, he has been producing himself for the great comedy that is now produced under the title "Sally of the Sawdust," a Capitol Artists Corporation release, now at Sherrys theatre.

When D. W. Griffith made the first comedy, called "The Curious Tale," it was roundly denounced as an unwise investment by the financial advisers of the company. Their answer was an immediate success and great profits, and these business into films a new type of picture that has ever prospered.

Incidentally, one Mack Sennet, an unknown clown boy, was employed in that first comedy picture, and then got the idea which later developed into his rich success as a maker of comedies.

Since that first comedy, Mr. Griffith has gone far from the fields of laughter with his great dramas and spectacles such as "The Birth of a Nation," "Way Down East," etc., but has long waited for a comedy story suitable to the talent available.

He found it in a stage success by Dorothy Donnelly and employed W. C. Fields, creator of the stage role, to play in the film. Fields is now star comedian of the Zigfield "Follies." With Carol Lombard developing into a supreme pantomime, Mr. Griffith has found his perfect cast for a great comedy and the result is "Sally of the Sawdust," which has been acclaimed as one of the greatest entertainments ever given to the screen.

Barbary Coast Is Picturized in New Drama at Star

Today and Thursday there is being unfolded at the Star theatre, a gripping story of the redemption of two characters from life's other side—Camille, the queen of the Midway—famous retreat of underworld habitués, a flaming place of sin, where feet shuffled to the sound of perky jazz, where glasses clinked and merry voices added to the din. Because he was down and out and a dollar couldn't make him much poorer than he was, he was going to buy a bottle of wine. But she knew. There was something about him that bespoke a higher station in life. He was frank and fair in the story of his prison sentence, she could associate the reason for her own downfall.

Bob Norton bought no drinks for Camille. They were soon out of the Midway and having a quiet chat in Camille's apartment. Her homelike surroundings and the change that came over her once she had thrown off the underworld armor won a place in his heart for her. Bob accepted food and shelter and a new ray of hope dawned for both when he got a position in a machine shop and began bringing in love each week his unearned pay envelope.

The glimmer and lure of the underworld soon faded. In each other they found happiness and contentment.

Bob and Camille are played respectively by Owen Moore and Mae Busch.

A Buster Brown comedy is also being shown.

BEETLE CONTROL TOPIC KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Representatives of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company and the Long-Bell Lumber company will meet here to take up the question of pine beetle control work in the Klamath pine districts during the coming year.

The government has withdrawn its support in the pine beetle control work here, and according to Jackson F. Kimball, secretary of

BACK BAD TODAY?
 Then Find the Cause and Correct It as Other La Grande Falls Have.

There's little rest or peace for the backache sufferers of La Grande. Days are tired and weary. Night brings no respite. Colicky troubles, headache, dizziness and nervousness all tend to prevent rest or sleep.

Why not use a combination of the two best things, a laxative and a tonic?

Read the La Grande cases. C. W. Cole, 1400 T street, says: "My kidneys were weak and acted too freely. I had attacks of backache and soreness across the small of my back that made it hard for me to stoop. Bought this from the first Oregon Drug Store here. Always relieved these attacks by strengthening my back and kidneys and benefiting me in every way. I depend on Don's now if I have any sign of the trouble."
