seeking the pointed-toe shoes of the American style. Thus far, the stores here have not been able to supply the demand for these shoes, despite the fact they cost twice as much as Russian-made foot-wear.

BERLIN (AP)—Blonde and blue-eyed German mannequins are favored because the crown of model queen rests on the black, bobbed head of an eighteen year old lass, Sonia Jovanowitch.

Although a German citizen Sonia is not a typical German beauty, the frauleins contend, Sonia, however, is not worrying over the criticism, for the award, which was made by five German artists at the first annual mannequin ball has brought her fame and a contract with the German edition of the "Follies."

With her father, court apothecary to the late Czar, and her mother, a native of Serbia, Sonia fled from Russia during the first revolution and settled in Berlin.

The Turnverein, an athletic club in Sankt, has served notice that women can not wear bobbed hair and continue as members of the organization.

"Women members with bobbed hair must let their hair grow again," the executive committee has ordered, "and the others are warned not to ape this un-German style of fashion."

ALBANY FIGHTS DISEASE
ALBANY, Ore.—The spread of smallpox and other contagious diseases in Albany has caused the authorities concern as to the methods in which to combat the epidemic without closing all public gatherings. More than ten cases of smallpox have been reported since the census was taken two weeks ago and vaccinations of school children are being given in considerable numbers.

D. Joseph Meyers, city health officer, reports about 120 cases in Albany, with 40 homes quarantined and Dr. J. H. Robnett, county health officer, report 23 cases of smallpox and 24 cases of other contagious diseases outside of Albany.

A Civil War veteran, more than thirty years ago, made a vow he would not have his hair cut until William Jennings Bryan was in the President's chair. Upon Mr. Bryan's death, however, he consented to have it cut.

ADOPT POLICY FOR THE STAR

Formal adoption of a new policy for the Star by Meyers and Bowen, proprietors of the Arcade and Star theaters here, will take place Sunday, Jan. 31, when daily shows will be inaugurated.

"We believe the movie fans would rather see a picture while it is new and not have to wait several weeks after it has played Portland," Meyers and Bowen declare. "Because of the vaudeville and road shows that have appeared at the Arcade we have not been able to play some of the pictures as soon as we wanted to but with this new arrangement we feel confident that we will soon be able to catch up on the pictures we have had to put off playing and we will be showing pictures here before or shortly after they have appeared in Portland."

The western and action pictures will not be the only ones shown at the Star in the future. Such stars as Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson, Richard Dix, Raymond Griffith and others will share in the new policy.

New carpets, new drapes and other improvements have been recently installed.
