Pastor Bids Farewell To Parish Here

The Rev. W. F. Holl Will Preach Final Sermon at Lutheran Church Sunday.

The farewell sermon of the Rev. William F. Holl at the Zion Lutheran church, a celebration of the forty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Christian Endeavor in charge of the young people at the First Presbyterian, a sermon by the district superintendent at the First M. E. and the first in a series of monthly musical programs at St. Peter's Episcopal are among the special events announced for services in the La Grande houses of worship tomorrow.

Closing a pastorate of more than two years in this city, the Rev. Mr. Holl will address his people for the last time as their pastor at divine service in the Zion Lutheran church at 11 a. m. As scriptural basis for his message he has chosen Paul's farewell on the banks of a river in Italy—the only farewell recorded in the New Testament.

Mr. and Mrs. Holl, who came to La Grande from Everett, Wash., in December, 1923, will make their new home at Bellingham, Wash., following the synodical meeting in Portland next week.

Trojan May Visit.

From the president of the synod comes word that the Rev. N. I. Trojan has not definitely determined to remain at Astoria. He wishes to come here to look over the field before accepting a call from the Zion church. Arrangements for the visit will be discussed at the morning service tomorrow.

Bible school will open as usual at 9:15 a. m. There will be a meeting of the church council in the parish hall at 6 p. m., and the regular evening song service at 7 o'clock.

First Presbyterian.

Once a year the Christian Endeavor society at the First Presbyterian church conducts a Sunday evening service in celebration of the founding of the organization by Dr. Francis E. Clark, at the Congregational church in Portland, Me., February 2, 1881.

Such a service will be in charge of the young people at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow, with both junior and intermediate societies participating. The program on "The Call, Claims and Conquests of the Church," will be composed of talks by Robert Eakin, Eleanor Cleaver and Ross Geibel. Special music will be given.

Last summer at the international convention of Christian Endeavor at Portland, the founder of the society, who has been at its head for many years, resigned his place to the Rev. Daniel Poling, assistant pastor of the Marble Collegiate church, of New York City. In his lifetime, Dr. Clark has watched the Christian Endeavor grow from a tiny society created to give the young people of his own parish a part in the church work to an organization that touches every country in the world and numbers its members by millions.

Sunday school at 9:15 a. m., will precede morning worship, which begins at 11 o'clock. The Rev. William Crosby Ross, pastor, will deliver the third sermon in a series based on the Lord's prayer. Special music will include an anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" (Schnecker) by the quartet; a contralto solo, "But the Lord Is Mindful of His Own" from the oratorio, "St. Paul" (Mendelsshon), by Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., and an organ number, "Intermezzo" from a Storer sonata, by Mrs. J. A. Telford. Christian Endeavor societies will have their weekly sessions at 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.

St. Peter's Episcopal.

Beginning a succession of monthly musical programs, the choir at St. Peter's Episcopal church will follow the shortened evening prayer service with three special selections. The first will be an anthem, "I will Lift Up Mine Eyes," by the choir. G. S. Birnie will sing a baritone solo, "The Sun of My Soul." A duet, "I Come to Thee" (Cara Roma), will be offered by Mrs. H. N. Ashby and Mrs. E. L. Holmes. Mrs. Ashby is director of the choir. The sermon for the prayer service, which is to begin at 7:30 o'clock, will be "The Christian Conflict."

Holy Eucharist will be celebrated in the chapel at 8 a. m. Church school will be at 9:45, and morning prayer service at 11. The Rev. Oliver Riley, rector, will preach a sermon on the theme, "God Our Maker."

Central Christian.

Entrance into a contest with the Bible school of the Christian church at Baker was voted without dissenting voice at the Central Christian Sunday school last week. The session convenes at 9:45 a. m. A duet will be sung by Mrs. Stanton C. Lapham and Mrs. C. F. McPherson.

For his sermon Sunday morning, the Rev. C. V. Dunn has chosen the subject, "Christian Missions." The discourse is third in a series to prepare the congregation for a financial canvass.

In the evening, the pastor will have for his theme, "On the Jericho Road." Mrs. Coleman George will be the vocal soloist for the service.

First Methodist.

The Rev. Harry S. Hamilton, Western district superintendent in the Inter-Mountain conference, will occupy the pulpit at the First Methodist church Sunday at 11 a. m. The choir will sing the anthem, "Praise Ye the Father" (Gounod) and Mrs. Ashby will sing a solo.

Guest speaker for the Epworth league meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be Eugene Pearson, of Walla Walla, Wash. An invitation to all young men and women is extended for this service.

Dr. Henry W. Parker, pastor, will address the evening service.

First Baptist.

Birthday offerings for the month of January will be received at the Sunday school session at 9:45 a. m., at the First Baptist church.

At morning worship, beginning at 11 o'clock, Dick Lindsay will play a violin solo. The Rev. George Albert Pollard, pastor, will use as his sermon theme, "Our Dwelling Place?" To the little folk, he will speak on the World Court.

"Jonah" will be the topic for the pastor's message at 7:30 p. m.

Church of Christ, Scientist.

The subject of the morning service at the Church of Christ, Scientist, at 11 a. m. tomorrow will be "Love." Sunday school will have its regular meeting at 9:45 a. m.

Methodist Church South.

Under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Elam and Mrs. Mabel Walker, the Sunday school at the South Methodist church is flourishing. The adult Bible class has interesting meetings under the direction of E. A. Soare. W. B. Warmer has charge of the young people's class.

There is also an active Epworth League society, meeting each Sunday at 6:30 p. m. Samuel Walker is president, and W. B. Starmer, superintendent of the first department.

The Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. tomorrow on the subject, "The Relation of God, Nature and Man." There will be evening worship at 7:30 o'clock.

Church of the Nazarene.

The Nazarene Young People's society has a surprise in store for the meeting at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow according to the committee in charge of the program.

Services at the Church of the Nazarene will begin with worship at 11 a. m., the pastor, the Rev. L. D. Meggers, to preach on the subject, "A Life of Victory." An evangelistic session will feature at 7:30 p. m. meeting.

TO LEAD PRAYER MEETING.

Mrs. John Plowes will be leader for the regular cottage prayer meeting of the Church of the Nazarene Tuesday evening at the Roscoe Jordan home, at 901 Division street.

Bible Class Of 100 Men Is Planned

Movement Started Last Night at Annual Banquet of Men of Christian Church Here.

Plans for a men's Bible class, one that would surpass in numbers anything of its kind in Eastern Oregon, were enthusiastically discussed last night in the First Christian church basement when 48 men of the church gathered around the banquet tables.

The movement, fostered by the Rev. C. V. Dunn, recently arrived from Newberg, received hearty backing from the male members of the congregation, the greater share of whom pledged themselves to form a nucleus of a class that is expected eventually to reach a membership of five score or more. The first regular meeting will be held Sunday morning.

In an ardent plea for the formation of such a class, Mr. Dunn told of the glowing success similar organizations had met with in other cities, including Kansas City, Spokane, Los Angeles, Boise, and Nampa. He pointed out that two of the five named, Kansas City and Los Angeles, have classes numbering more than 1000. Spokane's class rung about 465 while Nampa and Boise boast of 75 and 100, respectively.

The speaker declared that if Nampa and Boise could secure such memberships, La Grande, a city of 10,000, should be able to at least equal the Idaho cities' mark. He said that in order to achieve its goal of 100, only one out of every 25 men in La Grande would need to be secured.

Classes Accomplish Much.

Great good, both for the members of the class and the community, is accomplished by such bands of Christian men, Mr. Dunn stated. He cited several campaigns for moral uplift conducted successfully in the past and stated, that in his opinion, the way is open for just such work here.

Following his address, a motion was made to appoint two committees of three members, to be named tomorrow, to arrange for organization and location. At present the class will meet at the church.

L. S. Weeks presided at the dinner which was served by the ladies of the church. Before adjournment the men present gave a vote of thanks to the women for their service.

Besides the remarks by Mr. Weeks and Mr. Dunn, J. J. Bunting, Dr. J. L. McPherson, Joe Williams, L. L. McKennon spoke briefly, all endorsing the bible class idea.

Mr. Bunting sang "The Silver Lining," a hymn of his own composition, during the evening and also recited some verses prepared by himself.

A motion was passed that another dinner for the men of the church would be held in the near future.

GUEST SESSIONS TO CLOSE ISLAND CITY INSTITUTE

All Epworthians in the Grande Ronde valley have been invited by the young people of Island City Community church to join them Sunday for the concluding sessions of their third annual indoor institute. The Rev. H. S. Hamilton, of Boise, superintendent of the La Grande district of the Methodist church, who is one of the corps of three teachers, will remain to address the assembly. Basket supper, with the host league furnishing the hot drinks, will be served between the afternoon and evening meetings.

40 Enrolled.

About 40 young men and women of La Grande are enrolled in the training school, which began a series of six sessions Tuesday evening.

Supper and a social program, with stories, games and songs, occupy the opening period. The remaining hours are devoted to instruction, with the district superintendent giving nightly lectures on life service.

The Rev. K. L. Haga, pastor of the church at Enterprise, instructs in methods of religious work for young people. Talks on the great characters of the new testament are given by the Community church pastor, the Rev. Hall K. Wallis, who replaced the Rev. Henry W. Parker, of La Grande, on the teaching staff when the latter was handicapped by a bad cold.

Last night's meeting was the fourth in the series. There will be no service this evening.

CAMPMEETING AT ARMY HALL GETS 33 CONVERSIONS

The Salvation Army's indoor camp meeting, entering tonight upon its fourth week, counts 33 conversions to its credit. Envoy and Mrs. J. C. Barker have been successful in their aim to bring speakers from the several Protestant pulpits to the army hall, nearly every pastor in town having preached once or twice since the revival started.

The Rev. L. D. Meggers, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, delivered an evangelistic message last night, using as his text: "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

Salvation, he said, is a soul insurance policy that begins to pay dividends as soon as the Savior's plan is accepted. It is universal, satisfying and eternal.

Tonight's service will be what the salvationists term a "free-and-easy" meeting, consisting mostly of testimony and singing.

Envoy and Mrs. Barker will have charge of the service of worship Sunday morning. The evening meeting will be at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. P. L. Johnson delivering the sermon.

Membership Contest Will Close Tomorrow

The current six-weeks membership contest between the Reds and the Blues of the Men's Forum will close Sunday morning at the regular session at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The losing side will immediately prepare to entertain the winners at a social gathering the following Tuesday evening.

Last Sunday, with an attendance of 37, the Blues, under H. H. Taylor, were one man ahead, but E. O. Payton, the Red Trotsky, promises to throw real "indigo" into the Blues tomorrow.

E. D. Towler will be leader and H. M. Huffman will conduct the current religious news review.

W. Frees and Janet H. Frees, his wife, and Harley D. Smith and Caroline H. Smith, his wife, and Harley D. Smith and N. W. Frees, co-partners doing business under the firm name and style of Smith & Frees, for the sum of $1050.00, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from September 27, 1924, and the further sum of $150.00 attorneys fees, and $15.20 costs and disbursements, in which said execution and order of sale I am commanded to make sale of the following described mortgaged property in Union county, Oregon, the same being the real property rescribed in the complaint and in said execution, to-wit:

Driving Out of Ruts.

Attempting to drive out of a deep rut places a severe strain on the parts of the front axle assembly. But if the car is brought to a complete stop, the wheels are turned to one side as far as possible, and the car backed, the wheels will easily mount the sides of the ruts without the least strain.

Environment is crazy stuff. Enough of it will make you think anything is right or wrong.
