church present the World Wide Guild of the church, met Saturday afternoon in the community room in regular session. After the business meeting presided over by Miss Cornelia Hanson, president, a discussion of the 15-point system of the guild and a report on missions, there was a debate between the guild members and the missionary society.

The subject was "Resolved: That Foreign Missions Are More Important Than Home Missions." Mrs. C. B. Happersett and Mrs. Stolls represented the missionary society on the affirmative and Misses Bonnie Oliver and Mabel Schaefer, guild members, had the negative. After the debate the judges, Edith Randall, Jennie Dolbow, Hazel Rector and Ethel Brown announced their decision with a little play entitled "All One."

Following the debate refreshments were served by the hostesses for the afternoon, Misses Edna and Margaret Mulholland. During the social hour a letter was read from Mrs. W. P. McAdory, counselor for the guild, who is ill in Portland.

Margaret Shotwell of Omaha, Neb., who was made independently wealthy a few years ago when an aged bachelor for whom she used to play the piano died and left her his fortune, has eloped with Captain James W. Arnold, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Crook, Neb. She is 19 and he is 25.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Stewed figs, cereal, thin cream, waffles, sirup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Vegetable chowder, tomato crackers, open egg sandwiches, tomato grape juice, milk, tea.

Dinner—Lamb stew, steamed rice, scalloped tomatoes, cauliflower salad, apple pie, graham bread, milk, coffee.

A well-baked pie can be served to grown-ups without misgivings. The filling can be served to small persons but a better plan is to have another plain apple sauce and a small cookie for their desserts. Crisp toast should be added to the breakfast menu for children under school age who do not eat waffles.
