

NEWS of SOCIETY

Youthful Musician Appears in Recital

Her own compositions were the most appreciated of her entire program last evening when little Miss Alice Jennette Cooper was presented in violin recital by Sacred Heart academy at the Presbyterian church. These numbers were "André Malraux" and "Sunset." She responded to the encore after these selections with "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

Every seat in the church was occupied by music-lovers of the city and friends of the young artist.

Although only ten years old Miss Cooper plays the most complicated violin music with ease. Her most difficult numbers last evening were "Sonata No. 2 in B Minor" by Beethoven and "Ballade at Polonoise, Op. 38" by Chopin.

Her other numbers were "Molly on the Shore" by Kreisler; "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child" by Clarence Cameron White; "Deep River" by S. Coleridge-Taylor; "Farewell to Cautain" by Kreisler; "Gypsy Airs" by Pablo de Sarasate and "On the Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn.

The little miss was presented with a basket of beautiful flowers by Miss Alma Lilly, accompanied by Miss Cooper at the piano.

Mrs. C. E. Moore, soprano, pupil of Mrs. Jesse Hoskins, assisted little Miss Cooper with three beautiful numbers, which were also well received. Her numbers were "I Bring You Hearts Ease" by Gene Branscombe, "Lullaby" by Gertrude Ross and "Sunbeams" by R. H. Elkin and Landon Ronald.

Miss Mildred Lovett served as an able accompanist for Mrs. Moore.

American Artists Reviewed at Session

Miss Blanche Clark gave a very interesting review of four American artists yesterday afternoon when the art department of the Neighborhood club met in the club rooms in the Higney building. The artists discussed were Whittier, Winslow, Homer, John La Farge and Horatio Walker. There was a large attendance at the meeting.

The next meeting of the department will be at the home of Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, chairman. Mrs. Cleaver will also have charge of the program for the afternoon.

WALLING'S

HAT Clearance Sale

ALL WINTER HATS
$1.00, $1.95 and $3.95

200 NEW COATS
Standard makes that wear.

WALLING'S

Your Mirror

Will bring a revelation after we have dressed your hair becomingly, given your skin a healthful glow.

Your beauty is an asset—don't neglect it.

Colonial Beauty Shop

New Foley Bldg. Main Floor

Minerva Says---

A new line of men's Spring Oxfords has arrived. Six different patterns to choose from. All sizes in stock now. Also new styles in regular Dress Shoes for men. We carry three patterns in men's 9-inch top Dress Shoes.

$2.95 will buy your boy a pair of Dress Shoes, also $2.15 to $2.50 well suited, rubber heel, color, brown. You know when The Bootery starts to close out a line of shoes, they go. Why? The price is the cheapest in town and the quality is high.

THE BOOTERY

Where you get your Corn and Bunion Pads.

Woody

This early spring hat of unusual shape is completely covered with large violets.

P. E. O. Entertained At Seitz Home

With Mrs. C. H. Seitz and Mrs. E. L. Holmes as hostesses, Chapter I. P. E. O. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Seitz. During the afternoon Mrs. William Miller gave an interesting review of the autobiography of Andrew Dickinson White. Twenty ladies were present.

The rooms were decorated with a pretty color scheme of pink and white, flowers being used. At an appropriate hour a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the chapter will be at the home of Mrs. E. L. Holmes and promises to be one of unusual interest.

J. B. Club Meets With Mrs. Pearson

Pretty bouquets of sweetpeas were used to decorate the rooms of the J. B. Pearson home Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Pearson entertained the members of the J. B. club. High honors for the afternoon went to Mrs. Frank Robinson and Mrs. Carl Douhan received the second prize.

Three tables were at play. After the games a two-course luncheon was served at the card tables.

Mrs. Bigger Hostess At Bridge Party

Members of the Junior Bridge club spent a delightful afternoon yesterday when Mrs. Raymond Bigger was hostess at her home on First street. Three tables were at play during the afternoon with Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., winning high score and the guest prize going to Mrs. J. Forrest Strougin.

Lovely bouquets of pink carnations and sweetpeas were used to decorate the rooms. After the play a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Four-M Club Is Entertained

With twelve members present the Four-M club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Eugene Tolls. An enjoyable evening was spent at sewing and visiting, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Aid Planning For February Dinner

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. Mary E. Marr on Cedar street. The president of the society, Mrs. W. L. Devine, presided over the business meeting, during which time plans were made for the February dinner to be given in the new I. O. O. F. building. A date for the dinner has not yet been decided upon.

A social hour was observed before adjournment and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Shower Compliments Mrs. Pieper

Mrs. Frank Melott and Mrs. Roy Cameron entertained at a surprise shower yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Otto Pieper, at whose home the affair was given. The guests included Mesdames Milo Biokland, Richard Burnett, Garret Biokland, Alva Wilhelm, J. Brown, L. L. Burnett, Richard Smith, J. Campbell and Lee Smith.

Lodge Enjoys Social Meeting

The Ladies of Mooseheart Legion met at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday afternoon for their regular social meeting. Games were played during the afternoon with Miss Beulah Shanks winning first prize and Mrs. Lovell the second prize.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Case and Mrs. H. C. Provost, after the games.

Mrs. George Rochester's name was omitted in an article about the meeting of the Missionary society of the Christian church yesterday. Mrs. Rochester gave a very interesting paper on the dress and customs of the people living at Jamaica.

CO-ED ORATOR CHOSEN

LINFIELD COLLEGE, McMinnville, Ore.—The oratorical contest was won here this afternoon by Carmelita Woodworth, who spoke upon the modern girl and her problem. She will represent the college in the contests to be held in the spring with other Oregon colleges.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

The Albert Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon, February 11, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Lytle, at 1206 G avenue, La Grande. Mrs. Lytle formerly lived at Alice and retains her membership in the society.

The Marytha class has postponed until Monday, February 15, the kids' party that was announced for February 8. Mrs. George M. Pierce will be the hostess. Election of officers and plans for a recent carnival will occupy the business session.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Halves of grapefruit, baked hash, with poached eggs, cream cornbread, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Mock oyster soup, croquettes, cottage cheese and jelly.

The Garden

GARDENING TALKS NOW LIGHTER

Our forefathers seemed to have the best idea that the harder work they could make of a task the better it was done, an idea that sandwiches, caramel custard, milk, tea.

Dinner—Veal and pork loaf, scalloped potatoes, buttered carrots and peas, salad chiffonade, brain rolls, peach cream, milk, coffee.

If you happen to live where cream is plentiful you will welcome this following recipe for cornbread. This time of year sour milk is not always at hand, so sweet cream is used. With maple syrup daisies just around the corner, it is well to "get our hand in" for good cornbread!

Cream Cornbread

One cup white flour, 1 cup cornmeal, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons sugar, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups cream, 2 eggs.

Mix and sift flour, salt sugar and baking powder. Add cornmeal and mix thoroughly. Add cream gradually, stirring to keep smooth. Add eggs well beaten and beat mixture hard for 1 minute. Turn into a well buttered shallow pan and bake 20 minutes in hot oven.

Cream is not available 1 cup of sweet milk and 1/4 cup of melted butter can be substituted. The salt is reduced to 1/2 teaspoon but the other ingredients remain the same.

Turning the soil one spade's depth is plenty, the main factor being to break it up finely as it is turned over. This will suffice for good crops provided the soil is fertile and if it isn't it is an easy matter to take in fertilizer. Fertilizer shouldn't be spaded in when commercial fertilizers are used as they leach out the soil and when near the surface or sprinkled on the surface are taken down to the roots of the plant where they will do the most good by the spring rains. Buried in the ground they are washed away from the roots.

Cultivation is the main essential, keeping the surface soil stirred and aerated to keep down weeds and prevent too rapid evaporation of the soil. We now have a series of hoes built to lighten this task with rake tines and cultivator tines as well as the old-fashioned blade for chopping. Best of does not prevail now. Gardening formerly was made as hard as possible. Old English gardeners from whom we derive our chief garden traditions always advise trenching the soil. They still advise it in English periodicals on gardening. This consists of digging ditches two spade lengths deep, putting the top soil back into the bottom of the pit with fertilizer and the bottom soil on top.

Americans grow just as good gardens without this extra effort which is unnecessary, as few vegetables send their roots down two spade lengths deep and rely upon the first foot of soil for most of their nourishment. Spading the garden doesn't need to be a ditch digger's job. It really isn't.

Turning the soil one spade's depth is plenty, the main factor being to break it up finely as it is turned over. This will suffice for good crops provided the soil is fertile and if it isn't it is an easy matter to take in fertilizer. Fertilizer shouldn't be spaded in when commercial fertilizers are used as they leach out the soil and when near the surface or sprinkled on the surface are taken down to the roots of the plant where they will do the most good by the spring rains. Buried in the ground they are washed away from the roots.

Cultivation is the main essential, keeping the surface soil stirred and aerated to keep down weeds and prevent too rapid evaporation of the soil. We now have a series of hoes built to lighten this task with rake tines and cultivator tines as well as the old-fashioned blade for chopping. Best of all is the wheel hoe which will cover a garden in its class if it is started to rake and harrow. Cultivation should start as soon as seeds are through the ground sufficiently to show the location in the rows. An early start will make gardening a light task.

Fashion Notes

(By the Associated Press)

The Paris milliners never rest in their quest for new designs, and in the aim of many of them seems to be a hat a week. The rate of production is greater at the beginning of each season, but new ideas are produced throughout the year and new hats spring up like gaudy mushrooms on the Paris boulevards.

The spring models already are appearing to meet the longing for new headwear which every woman seems to feel at the first faint indications of winter's breaking. The choice is wide enough. There are berets, turbans, hats with twisted brims or folded crowns.

Green and many shades of red seem to be the predominating colors.

GOODING SELLS TURKEYS

GOODING, Idaho.—The Southern Idaho Turkey Growers' association sold 1230 turkeys to Swift & Co., making a total weight of 16,723 pounds, for which the farmers received the sum of $6704.70 in cash.

Ninety-one farmers in this vic-

nity delivered birds to the building adjoining Harnett's hardware store, where the birds were weighed, graded and made ready for shipment the following day. The car was not filled until it reached Shoshone. A truck load of 56 birds was brought over from Fairfield, from four different farmers.

Most of the turkeys in this country were sold during the Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

Mrs. Mary Logsdon of Bliss, brought in the largest number of turkeys, having 109 birds, for which she received $488.14. Joe Arkness of Gooding brought in 109, which netted him in the amount of $364.69. N. H. Leiland of Wendell sold 47 birds, receiving a check for $237.55. C. W. Ross of King Hill was next highest with 43 birds, for which he was paid $261.44.

This is the last shipment of turkeys to be sent out by the association from Gooding until another crop is raised.

THE BIGGEST MONEY-SAVING EVENT IN YEARS.

CARR'S

HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES

BREAD

For Bread, the merchant labors long and late,
For Bread the beggar goes from gate to gate
For Bread the sailor loses health and home,
A thousand miles away bread seekers roam.
For Bread the wild birds fall in nets and guns
For Bread do men commit a thousand sins
For Bread men study all that man may know;
The house that wanteth Bread, is filled with woe.
'Tis Bread unites the family as one,
Its lack divides the father from the son;
For Bread are weddings made and sermons said,
Of all good things, the very best is—
BREAD

Golden Crust Bread

Gwilliams' Electric Bakery
Opposite Observer

Our Service Means

MINUTES instead of HOURS.

A message by telephone will travel the fastest.
Your time is valuable—save it.

Home Independent Telephone Co.

AUTHENTIC STORIES--

Of early Eastern Oregon life and development should be preserved and perpetuated. An effort to do this is being made by the Hot Lake Sanatorium.

It will be appreciated if any early settler, any descendant of our sturdy pioneers, or anyone interested in collecting such history, will communicate with

DR. W. T. PHY,

HOT LAKE, OREGON

Main 56

SALE PRICES

Quality Cleaning

WE HAVE DECIDED TO CONTINUE THE SPECIAL PRICE FOR ANOTHER WEEK.

Don't fail to get in on these bargain prices!
MEN'S SUITS . . . $1.00

Standard Laundry Co.

Dry Cleaners

Main 56

An Acknowledgement

Cooperation of citizens last Thursday night, during the very heavy windstorm over the system of Eastern Oregon Light and Power company, in reporting live wires down and other dangerous conditions, is gratefully acknowledged.

This public-spiritedness and friendly feeling on the part of many people, gives our employees, so intensely loyal in emergency service, a feeling that their personal hardships, are not unappreciated.

While electric service was continued uninterrupted over our system, there were many cases of minor trouble, such as blown fuses and lines down. During the entire night period when calls were coming from all directions, we did not have to record one unpleasant public contact. All seemed to understand that every available man had been pressed into service and that we would care for their service as soon as possible.

There is a tightening of heartstrings and a just feeling of pride when those in our organization responsible for uninterrupted service, go home after an all night battle with a storm knowing that thousands of Eastern Oregon people sat safely at home with lights burning cheerily.

A DECLARATION

—

To render the most dependable and courteous service *

To the greatest possible number of people *

At the lowest cost consistent with fair wages to the labor and capital employed *

Giving and deserving fair treatment *

thus

To be a factor in upbuilding this community *

Is the objective of this company.

Eastern Oregon Light & Power Co.

Always at your Service

New Spring Hosiery

In Reliable Brands.
$1.00 to $2.75

PUTMAN'S

Ladies' Ready-To-Wear and Millinery

THE BIGGEST MONEY-SAVING EVENT IN YEARS.

CARR'S

HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES

BREAD

For Bread, the merchant labors long and late,
For Bread the beggar goes from gate to gate
For Bread the sailor loses health and home,
A thousand miles away bread seekers roam.
For Bread the wild birds fall in nets and guns
For Bread do men commit a thousand sins
For Bread men study all that man may know;
The house that wanteth Bread, is filled with woe.
'Tis Bread unites the family as one,
Its lack divides the father from the son;
For Bread are weddings made and sermons said,
Of all good things, the very best is—
BREAD

Golden Crust Bread

Gwilliams' Electric Bakery
Opposite Observer

Our Service Means

MINUTES instead of HOURS.

A message by telephone will travel the fastest.
Your time is valuable—save it.

Home Independent Telephone Co.

AUTHENTIC STORIES--

Of early Eastern Oregon life and development should be preserved and perpetuated. An effort to do this is being made by the Hot Lake Sanatorium.

It will be appreciated if any early settler, any descendant of our sturdy pioneers, or anyone interested in collecting such history, will communicate with

DR. W. T. PHY,

HOT LAKE, OREGON