Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Grapes, cereal, thin cream, ham omelet, crisp graham toast, marmalade, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Turnips, an gratin, brown bread, shredded lettuce salad, chocolate bread pudding, milk, tea.
Dinner—Dressed broket of beef steamed rice, buttered parsnips, onion and citrus fruit salad, toasted English muffins, fudge, cake, milk, coffee.

Since this dinner requires no last minute preparations in its serving, the English muffins are suggested as a salad accompaniment. These are delicious with winter afternoon tea, and are well worth the effort of making.

The bread pudding planned for the luncheon dessert is made with eggs and is the plain protein dish in the meal.

Turnips as Gratin
Five cups boiled sliced turnips, 2 cups milk, 4 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, one third cup coarse bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons grated cheese.

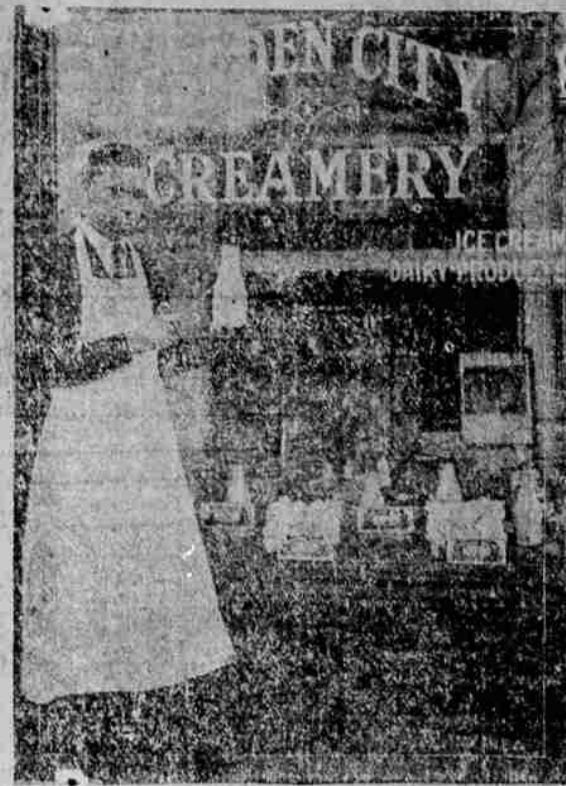

Put turnips into a well buttered baking dish. Melt butter in a sauce pan, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and add cheese. Cook, stirring until cheese is melted. Pour over turnips in baking dish. Cover and bake in a hot oven long enough to brown the crumbs.
