Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Baked apples, cereal, thin cream, broiled bacon, shirred eggs, crisp ham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Noodle souffle, granham roll, jellied tomato salad, cabinet pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Chicken and rice en casserole, candied sweet potatoes, parsnip patties, head lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce, nut cookies, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

These menus are planned particularly for the woman who is entertaining a week-end house guest. There is nothing elaborate to suggest extravagant effort on the part of the hostess, but thought and hospitality are evident. Noodle souffle is merely a new arrangement of everyday ingredients.

Noodle Souffle

Two cups or one package noodles, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup grated cheese, 2 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Cook noodles in boiling salted water for ten minutes. Drain. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk stirring constantly. Season with salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Add cheese and cook until melted. Add noodles and yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon colored. Fold in whites of eggs beaten stiff and dry. Turn into a well-buttered ring mold and bake 45 minutes in a pan of hot water. The oven should be moderate. Enmol and fill with a creamed vegetable or fish. Creamed mushrooms, creamed cauliflower or creamed spinach and mushrooms are particularly good if a vegetable filling is wanted. Oysters and shrimps are suggestions for fish.

For Bread, the merchant labors long and late,
For Bread the beggar goes from gate to gate
For Bread the sailor loses hearth and home,
A thousand miles away bread seekers roam,
For Bread the wild birds fall in nets and guns
For Bread do men commit a thousand sins,
For Bread men study all that man may know:
The house that wanteth Bread, is filled with woe,
'Tis Bread unites the family as one,
Its lack divides the father from the son;
For Bread are weddings made and sermons said,
Of all good things, the very best is—

THE BOOTERY

Five real reasons for its fine flavor

- Schilling is the only coffee roaster in America who specializes on but one grade of coffee and seals it in vacuum tins. There are no 2nd or 3rd grade Schilling coffees.
- The world's supply of high-grade coffee beans is limited. Occasionally there is an unforeseen scarcity. For years Schilling has carried reserve stocks of the finest beans so that whatever may happen—your Schilling coffee never varies a fraction in fine flavor.
- A blind person has a keen sense of flavor. Schilling is the only coffee expertly tested by the blind to insure unvarying quality.
- Not only is Schilling coffee packed in vacuum tins to preserve the flavor, but it is packed in "key-wind" tins to better protect the flavor after the tin is opened.
- You buy every tin of your Schilling Coffee on approval. If you do not like it—you do not pay for it. Your grocer returns your money. You keep the coffee.

That's the practical, appetizing story which appeals to every thoughtful housewife who uses Mazola, America's most popular oil for all frying.

Mazola is a pure vegetable oil—not an animal fat—and does not make fried foods greasy. Mazola itself is as wholesome and delicious as the corn from which it comes.
