Mrs. Perkins Hostess At Valentine Party

Members and friends of the Wednesday Bridge club were entertained at an attractive Valentine party yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. C. Perkins was hostess at her home on O avenue. The idea of St. Valentine's day was carried out in the decorations to the minutest detail—even red tally cards with white pencils being used.

At 1:15 o'clock luncheon was served at six small tables where bridge was enjoyed afterwards. The centerpieces were of red carnations and sweet peas. Valentine favors were at each table.

Mrs. Earl Stoddard received the guest prize for the afternoon and Mrs. G. L. Larson won high score among the club members. A second prize went to Mrs. H. M. Bay.

Five Score Attend M. I. A. Dance

More than one hundred people attended the character ball given at the Mormon amusement hall last evening under the auspices of the M. I. A. Music was furnished by the M. I. A. orchestra and an enjoyable evening was spent dancing from 8:30 until 12 o'clock.

Nepht Combs was awarded the prize for the best man character. He represented Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. L. A. Stoddard, who wore an old-fashioned costume such as in vogue during Lincoln's administration as president, was given the ladies' prize. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Andrew received the prize for the best dressed couple. They represented Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas.

Willow P.T. Features Program

One of the most successful meetings of the Willow Parent-Teacher association this year was held yesterday afternoon with a large membership in attendance. Mrs. S. D. Birch, president, presided. The meeting was opened by the singing of "America" and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

An interesting program was given. Two songs were given by the school children, "February Song" and "Yankee Doodle." The school was presented through the association by Mrs. Charles Runyan, a beautiful banner bearing the school's name. The lettering was in the school colors, purple and gold, on a background of soft gray. The banner will be placed in the hall of the school building.

Following this was a demonstration of school songs and lyrics by the students. A dance by Annett Runyan, a talk on thrift by H. E. Coolidge, a song by Mrs. Helen Geddes, accompanied by Miss Fern Geddes at the piano, a talk on "Child Welfare" and "Pounders Day" by Mrs. George H. Lyman followed.

During the business session it was voted to accept the offer of the city library to establish a branch library in the Willow school. Plans for a bookcase to accommodate the library were submitted, and soon the Willow school, through their Parent-Teacher association, will have a case large enough to contain several hundred books for the benefit of both parents and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nash entertained at an attractive Valentine party last evening at their home on Cedar street for fourteen of their friends. Symbols of St. Valentine's day were used to decorate the home. Cards were the feature of the evening.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Drama Will Be Presented Twice

As a compliment to the 40 or more business and professional members of the Neighborhood club whose workaday duties keep them from attending the afternoon meetings, the play prepared for Tuesday afternoon will be given in a preliminary performance at the clubrooms Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Donald Paine is directing the production, which is a Stephen Naughtan drama entitled, "The Circle." Mesdames Dwight Jesse, Lloyd Scriber, L. H. Russell, Robert Newlin, G. R. Claycomb, Dale Cox and J. E. Woodell compose the cast.

There will be no charge of admission, and the teacher and business members are invited to ask their friends. Refreshments will be served during the informal hour after the play.

Tuesday afternoon, the play will be given again as the program on English drama under supervision of Mrs. Pogue.

Missionary Society Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon in the community room of the church. Mrs. H. H. Weaver, president, presided over the session. Reports were heard from the various committees and officers, after which officers were elected as follows: Mrs. O. E. Moran, president; Mrs. Frank Jackson, vice president; Mrs. G. H. Baker, treasurer and Mrs. Phil Thompson, secretary.

Mrs. A. S. Anderson had charge of the devotional after the business meeting, which was followed by a program with Mrs. L. B. Moo in charge. The subject for the afternoon was "The True American." Miss Grace Geddes rendered a vocal selection "Thine Forever."

Four-M Club Meets With Miss Hoyt

Members of the Four-M club were delightfully entertained Thursday evening when Miss Mildred Hoyt was hostess at her home on Main avenue. After a few hours spent visiting and sewing the guests were seated at a table prettily decorated with pussy willows, where a delicious luncheon was served. Favors in the form of valentines were found with each place card.

N. O. W. Enjoy Social Hour

Forty-five members were present Thursday evening when the regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft was held at the K. P. hall. Mrs. W. H. Allstott, president, presided over the business meeting, which was followed by initiation ceremonies.

Before adjournment refreshments were served and an enjoyable social hour was spent.

Hot Lake (Special)—When Dr. W. T. Phy entertained informally at dinner Friday evening, he had as his guests Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bideler, of Union, as well as several members of the sanatorium staff.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bideler were formerly employed at the sanatorium.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

The Westminster society will meet Monday evening, February 15, with Misses Emily and Olive Snook at their home at 1505 M avenue.

Will the next fashion craze for women be jeweled nose studs? A London woman, Mrs. Muriel Blantyre, says they are wonderfully becoming.

School News

Robe Purchased—The Associated Girl Students, with the help of Miss Mabel Bennett, dean of girls, has purchased a robe for the girls' rest room. In the center of the robe are monogram initials "A. G. S. 1926."

Chemistry—The chemistry students have been working on interesting experiments with milk, calculating the amount of solids and water in the milk. They are also making lactase sugar from the milk.

Senior Play—The senior play cast has been selected and is now practicing steadily and hard.

Tigers Score—The Tigers met and defeated the Imbler quintet on their floor with a score of 39 to 14 this week.

Express Thanks—Mr. Post, who was recently hurt in an auto accident, has sent his thanks to the A. G. S. for the flowers sent him. He says that he will resume his work soon.

Scholastic—A new current magazine has been introduced into the high school for use in English, history and civics classes. It has met with favor among the students as it is not so difficult to comprehend as was the Literary Digest, which was used previously.

A. G. S. Have Program—The Associated Girl Students gave a program Tuesday, February 9 at 12:30 for the benefit of the girls who bring their lunch. This plan was used last year and was very successful so it is to be continued again this year. The program Tuesday was as follows: A dance by Trillian Ashby, and a dance by June Stange, both accompanied by Lois Nelson at the piano; a solo by Daisy Robbs accompanied by Myrtle Wilcock; a solo by Adelaide Clark accompanied by Myr-le Wilcock; a duet by Edna Gekeler and Barbara Hiatt; a duet by Myrtle Wilcock and Lulu Ansell accompanied by Daisy Robbs. The program was enjoyed by all the girls present. Another program will be given next Tuesday, February 16, during the noon hour. It is hoped that all the girls will participate in making this plan a success.

A. G. S. Meet—

An A. G. S. assembly was called Wednesday for a brief business meeting and a pleasure hour. The girls' chorus sang two selections which were well received. Work for the credit committee of A. G. S. was outlined and an essay on "Our School Motto," written by Elva Turner, was read. The girls were fortunate in having had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Brooks, who has traveled in Europe and Asia. She told the girls of many of her interesting experiences. She gave a detailed description of the various places she has visited and in connection with her talk she showed a number of curios, which she collected in her travels.

Assembly—An assembly was called Friday morning in commemoration of Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary. Hugh Brady gave a colorful description of one of America's greatest statesmen—Lincoln. After Judge Brady's talk the meeting was turned over to the student body president, Wesley Brown, who called on several members of the basketball team, also Coach Bennett, who told of the game with the Pendleton team. Miss Johnson, coach of the girls' team, also spoke. Captain Goldie Owen told of the game which will be played at Union Saturday night. Yells were led by Jack Coolidge, La. Paul Boylan and Gene Anderson. "The Alma Mater" was sung by the student body with Barbara Hiatt and Edna Gekeler at the piano.

Her husband brought back from India a ruby nose stud such as is worn by men and women of that country. In a spirit of curiosity Mrs. Blantyre pierced her nostrils and inserted it.
