when they begin to organize machinery and furnish funds to bring about change.

"We can't remedy the present condition, but we must impress upon the younger generation the seriousness of marriage and parenthood. Then we must provide publicly for leisure and amusement by community athletics, playgrounds and amusement halls. Something must be done to halve the interest between parents and children."

"The unrest is due to our present day forms of education, our commercialized social system and commercialized amusements."

"The responsibility for the present day condition can not be centered on one thing, but is a combination of circumstances."

"A fine type of child welfare work is now being accomplished by commissions. Dr. Parsons said. The work in Oregon has been well supervised, and much good has resulted. The most constructive work is done by paid workers, while local enterprises and clubs advance the work in the cities."

"The public is now more interested in public welfare and health than in any other large problem, and I believe the factor of child welfare will be soon solved."

"I am not in sympathy with the talk of immorality and irresponsibility of the young people. I believe they are doing well considering the claim upon their interests, and I am all for them."

MRS. GRACE 82 YEARS OF AGE

COVE. (Special)—Mrs. Nellie R. Grace, the librarian at the Cove Public Library passed the eighty-second mile stone of her life February 11. Mrs. Grace was born in the south, at a little town in Kentucky. She passed much of her early life in St. Louis, Missouri. She was a school teacher for many years but later entered the newspaper business. She was editor and publisher for 44 years.

The last eight years of her life have been spent in the Cove library. She was librarian through all of Cove's devastating fires, when the library was wiped out. The building burned at one fire and the next fire destroyed the books. Mrs. Grace stood by loyally and took excellent care of the few books contributed to a new library and when the new building was planned and began to assume shape she watched it eagerly and hopefully. She was equally happy when the new books began to come in from so many generous contributors. The library means more to her than to any other person in Cove.

David L. Grace, a newspaper man, died in 1909, leaving Mrs. Grace a widow. Her eighty-two years have passed by lightly and she is still active and happy.

ASSOCIATION WILL EXPAND

COVE. (Special)—At a recent meeting of the Cherry Pool association it was decided to enlarge the organization and handle other fruits such as peaches and apples through the association. A committee composed of directors of the association, A. A. Antillon, T. Kelly, J. G. Lantz, Roy Bell and H. B. Canklin, made the necessary changes in the by-laws to permit the expansion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert DeVore were made happy by the arrival of a baby daughter at their home last week.

Mrs. E. C. Rees is seriously ill at her home here.

Miss Bess Kelly will be hostess to the young Matrons bridge club this week.

Celebrates 50th Anniversary
 Stephen V. Smedley, of New York, but who has been spending a few years here, celebrated the ninety-fifth birthday anniversary February 5. He has had an eventful life traveling from the east coast to the west coast several times. He spent years in the service of the United States with Barley's army and saw many battles. He received an honorable discharge May 21, 1865. He and his wife now make their home on a small farm here.

Mrs. Hattie Alexander of High Valley was here Saturday.

H. G. Blank is closing out his shoe and harness shop and will go into the ranch and dairy business March 1. He has rented a ranch from Ben Duffy.

 health work being done among the students.
 Following the luncheon, members of the board, accompanied by city officials, inspected the sewage disposal plant.
 This afternoon members of the board are scheduled to speak at every high school in Union county and also attend a business meeting at Hot Lake.
 This evening a community meeting, part of the local observance of Union county's first annual health week, will be held at the high school at 7:30 o'clock with Dr. Smith as main speaker. His subject will be "The relation between water and sewage problems and epidemics." Dr. Smith is well known here, having been one of the members of the first Oregon health board and having taken an active part in medical and political work in the state for many years.
 Arrangements for the program here are being made by a committee headed by Mrs. George Lyman, representative of the parent-teacher organizations. Others on the committee are Mrs. C. H. Seranton, Chase Bohnenkamp, Mr. Longfellow, and the Rev. W. C. Ioss.
 Speakers in other towns of the valley and their topics will be: Union, Dr. Stricker, "The Influence of Highways on Health Problems"; Elgin, Dr. Barboe, "Epidemics and Their Control"; Imbler, Dr. McNary, subject unannounced; Cove, Dr. Morse, "Rural Community Health"; North Powder, Dr. Rosenberg, "The Growing Problem of Municipal Sanitation."

IMBLER PLAYS TIGERS TODAY
 Coach Thorson Bennett planned to match his second team with the squad that came from Imbler at 2:30 p. m. today to get revenge for the beating La Grande administered over there last Wednesday night. The score, when the Tiger firsts took the floor against the truistarians, was 39 to 14.
 The retainers went into the game for four minutes during the third period last week, and scored two points to Imbler's one.
 "I don't want to pile up scores. I want to hold Imbler, that's all," the coach said this morning.
 He might send the chieftains in for a practice scuffle or two, he added.
 The lineup for the second team as forwards; Stoddard and Waldinger as forwards; Larson, as center; Williams and Berry, as guards; Jimmie Rosenbaum has been engaged as referee.
 La Grande has only one game scheduled for the coming week
