...to pass the tourists... of from the Palace, concealing himself in the midst of them to be sure to be thrown out. In the group he has seen Mary Brian, and he falls in love with her but she abuses him because she blames him for her not seeing the Prince. Griffith starts to explain to the girl but is grabbed by several members of his staff and dragged into the palace again. Then things do happen and the picture comes to an end with the most novel twist and the most highly humorous situation ever seen in a Griffith picture. In addition to Griffith and captivating Mary Brian, the cast includes such well known players as Tyrone Power, Gustav Von Seyffertitz, Jerry Austin, Jacqueline Gadsden, Lincoln Plummer, Carl Stockdale, Michael Dark and Kathleen Kirkham. Edward Sutherland, for a long time connected with Charlie Chaplin in the capacity of assistant director, made this one. Sutherland also directed Tom Meighan in "Coming Through" and "Wild, Wild Woman," starring Hebe Brainer. Reginald Morris and Joseph Mitchell wrote the story, which was adapted for the screen by Kerne Thompson. The picture will be shown at the Arcade theater Wednesday and Thursday.

Western Thriller Hailed as Directorial Triumph

Irvin Willat, the noted Paramount producer, whose directorial achievements include such film successes as "North of 36," "Wanderer of the Desert" and "Heritage of the Desert," is evidently not content to rest on his past laurels, for he has just completed filming Peter B. Kyne's latest novel, "The Enchanted Hill," which advances reports hail as his finest to date. This latest contender for western honors is a corking western melodrama with all the heroic qualities that make stories of the American West so universally popular. It is entirely modern, however, in theme and setting, and the plot develops along lines that are decidedly original and far from the beaten path of the usual hackneyed western movie. An indication of the extreme care that went into the making of

"My China Doll" To Be Played at Arcade Tonight

Charming, graceful, petite Barbara Bronell, who is playing the title role in the musical extravaganza "My China Doll" is to be presented at the Arcade Theater, tonight, at 8:15 p. m., amid a galaxy of the most beautiful girls that ever graced the boards behind the foot-lights, girls who surprise with their versatility. They are clever dancers and sing with thrilling voice. Handling melodies, strains of Chinese music, dim lanterns, twirling parasols and waving fans introduce the atmosphere of the Orient. This magic setting becomes the background for an excursion into the realms of fantasy, which gives free reign to the most amazing array of brilliantly staged transformations which the heart of the artist and musician could desire.

Lighting, Equine Star, Showing at Sherrys Tonight

Probably no more intelligent nor lovable horse ever appeared on the screen than Pete Morrison's Lightning, who will be seen in "One Shot Ranger," which comes to the Sherry theater tonight. In this picture, when Betty Goodwin, who plays the lead, leaps into a river from a high cliff to escape the villain, Morrison on Lightning's back, spur the famous animal over the brink. Without hesitation Lightning takes the plunge. Comedy showing "Etiquette."

"He's A Prince" Is Ray Griffith's Latest Hit

Very much akin to the poor little rich boy, who gazes from the rear seat of the family limousine with envious eyes on the rugged archer playing ball, is Raymond Griffith in his first starring production for Paramount, "He's A Prince," which tells in a scintillatingly funny manner of a European prince, who abhors display parades, social affairs and the like and who just wants to be one of the common people. Always he is on display. He is shown here and he is shown there, always "dress parade."

Has the "bulk," too, that makes laxatives seldom needed

THOUSANDS have unenergetic mornings because they start the day with breakfasts that lack in certain important food elements. To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen. Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today. It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.
