More Than 200 Attend Elks' Ball and Banquet

With more than 200 persons in attendance the twenty-seventh annual ball and banquet given by the La Grande lodge of Elks last evening at the Elks' home here was a success in every detail. Dancing started at 9 o'clock and continued until 11 when the lights in the hall suddenly became very dim and the excited ruler of the lodge, Cecil Holton, gave the 11 o'clock toast.

During the toast the orchestra was moved to the dining room and at 11:15 o'clock the grand march started, led by the exalted ruler and Mrs. Anna Pollack. After them came the other officers of the lodge and their partners in order. Members of the lodge followed.

The march came to an end in the dining room where long tables were arranged to seat everyone present. The tables were prettily decorated for the occasion in the lodge colors purple and white. Bouquets of carnations were also used. Following is the banquet menu:

- Oyster Cocktail
- Olives Pickles Celery Hearts Fruit Salad
- Roast Young Turkey with Cranberry Jelly Giblet Gravy Stewed Sugar Cured Ham Pickled Tongue
- Cream Brick Cheese Salted Wafers Mashed Potatoes French Rolls Cakes
- Caramel Angel Chocolate Nut Cream Macaroon Marble Lady Baltimore
- Brick Ice Cream Pineapple Sherbet After Dinner Mints Coffee

During the banquet an excellent program was given instead of the customary after dinner talks. French's eight-piece orchestra, which played for the dance, played two numbers. Raymond O. Williams sang a baritone solo, "Rose of Picardy," by Weatherly and as an encore he sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. Mrs. Williams accompanied him at the piano. Andrew Long Jr. played a trumpet solo accompanied by Eugene Tolk at the piano. His first number was "My Regards" by Lewelyn and as an encore played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." The chamber of commerce quartet, G. J. Dutton, Sherwood Williams, Elmer Stoddard and G. S. Birnie, sang a medley of old time songs and responded to the hearty applause with an encore number.

After the banquet those present returned to the ball room, which was also decorated in a purple and white color scheme, where dancing was enjoyed until about 2 o'clock. During the dancing punch was served.

Members of the general committee in charge of the banquet were Harris F. French, Roy M. Healey and E. H. Boylen.

Local Couple Wed In Walla Walla

Miss Neva Salder and T. B. Hannefeld, both of this city, were married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church at Walla Walla, Washington, the Rev. Mr. Brombray, pastor of the church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. McGivock of Walla Walla, accompanied the bride and groom.

The happy couple returned to La Grande Sunday night and will make their home here at 1608 Seventh street.

Both Mr. Hannefeld and Miss Salder are well known here. She has been employed as stenographer in the railroad office here for the past six years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Salder formerly of this city. He is connected with the Oregon Hardware company here.

Standard Oil Party Enjoyable

Employees of the Standard Oil company and their wives and friends were entertained at a dinner dance at the country club Saturday evening. Twenty-two couples were present including people from Baker, Ontario, Athena, Bend, North Powder, Wallawa, Enterprise, Elgin and Boise, Idaho.

Dinner was served from 7 until 8 o'clock after which the remainder of the evening was enjoyed dancing. Music was furnished by Phillips' orchestra of Union. Pretty bouquets of sweetpeas were used to decorate the dinner tables.

Union (Special)—Mrs. John Martens delightfully entertained the members of the Lucky Thirteen club and a number of guests Friday afternoon. After a delicious four-course luncheon at 1 o'clock bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Emily Cook. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Nell Hutchison.

Guests present besides the club members were: Mesdames Walter Cook, Alex Slater, Newell Martens, Mary Hutchinson, H. C. McClay, Bert Knight, L. Davis, Nora Webb, George Seibird.

Mrs. Sewell Martens and Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips assisted Mrs. Martens in serving.

Union (Special)—Friday evening of last week the "Shutanka" camp fire girls had a theater party, after which they were entertained at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Bert Knight. At an appropriate hour the girls were seated around a prettily appointed table and served a delicious luncheon.

On Saturday afternoon the campfire girls and their guardian hiked several miles up Pyle Canyon. After arriving at their destination Amaryllis Knight and Edna Cheney cooked dinner on an open campfire. After dinner games were played until time to return home.

Union (Special)—One of the best patriotic programs ever sponsored by the Preston Woman's Relief Corps No. 22 was given by the society Saturday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Washington, Lincoln and McKinley. The following program was given:

"America," sung by all present; prayer, by the Rev. Mr. Quinn; reading, "February," Miss Lola Scott; song "Old Black Joe," high school trio; talk on George Washington, the Rev. Mr. Hiale; piano solo, Susan Chadwick; reading "Oh Captain, My Captain," Miss Carrie Sliff; talk on Abraham Lincoln, Agnes Paddock; talk on McKinley, C. L. Cadwell; vocal duet "Murmuring Song," Edith Pfy and Pearl McClay; talk on Washington and Lincoln, Murray Jensen; tribute to the flag, Agnes Paddock; reading "Ship of State," Henry Dick Miller; reading "Flag of the Free," Mrs. Nora Cheney; song by Lorena Carns. The program was closed with a salute to the flag.

Union (Special)—The old-line dance given by the Woman's club here recently was a success in every way. Lindsay's orchestra from La Grande furnished the music. Fifty dollars in prizes was given away to the following: Alma Jones of North Powder, fiddler's prize; Ernie Miller of Cove, jig prize; Wallace Greenwood of Union, caller's prize; Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Blamett, waltz prize.

The judges were A. T. Hill, of La Grande; C. J. Forstrom, of North Powder and John Dean, of Cove.

The Right Breakfast for Workers

Eat Food that Supplies "Balanced" Ration After Night's Fast

IF YOU feel tired, hungry, "dizzy" hours before lunch, don't jump to the conclusion of poor health. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because they start days with breakfasts lacking in certain food elements.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Halves of grapefruit, cereal, thin cream, rice with sausage sauce, graham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Beef broth with carrot dumplings, apple-sauce, raisin bread, molasses cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Pices of veal, mashed potatoes, buttered, Brussels sprouts, molded fruit salad, cheese pudding, bread, milk, coffee.

In this dinner the fruit salad makes a dessert unnecessary. Although the menu is simple the meal is delicious and well balanced.

Rice With Sausage Sauce

Two cups hot steamed rice, 1 cup tomato soup or 1 cup canned tomatoes rubbed through a strainer and 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1 cup milk, 1 cup chopped cooked sausage, 4 tablespoons grated cheese (optional), 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon butter, salt and pepper.

Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk and soup or strained tomatoes with soda. Add sausage and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Drop rice by spoon-

SKIING CONDITIONS FINE: SANDY, Ore.—A temperature of 54 at Government camp had no effect on the snowfall which started last night, and by tonight nearly eight inches of new snow had fallen, bringing the depth to 18 inches and affording ideal skiing conditions for the numerous parties that passed through here, prepared to spend Sunday and the following holiday in outdoor sports.

A group of Portland Y. M. C. A. members and the Oregon City Ski club were among those who went up the mountain.

The temperature was 24. The snow extends down as far as Twin Bridges, nine miles this side of Government camp.

One-way traffic will be the rule tomorrow and probably Monday, it was announced. Automobiles will be permitted to go up the mountain only in the morning, on account of the difficulty in turning out in the narrow trail that has been cleared.

Ten inches of new snow has fallen at Bull Run lake, the source of Portland's water supply, within the last 24 hours, bringing the total depth there to 27 inches. Rain was falling at Sandy.
