

BUSINESS MEN ELECT T. COCK

UNION (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haid are here from Vale visiting with Mrs. Haid's mother, Mrs. Hicker.

Miss Mary Hayden came over from Baker for a few days visit with friends in Union. She will return to Baker about the 24th.

The commercial club elected officers last week for the year. T. T. Cock was elected president, Louis Hilder vice president, and Newell Marlin secretary.

A number of the local Knights of Pythias went to Elgin Saturday for a special meeting of the order.

The local commercial club has ordered a beautiful silver cup, which they will award to the team that wins the basketball championship at the tournament to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Select Class Plays

Each of the four classes of the Union high school has selected its class play and rehearsals on all of them have been started. No definite dates for any of the four productions have as yet been selected.

Mrs. F. B. Conner is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Vohr in Salem for several weeks. Mr. Conner accompanied her as far as Salem and then returned home.

At the morning service Sunday nearly fifty members were taken into the Methodist church, and nearly that many also were admitted into the Presbyterian church.

These according to the two churches came as a result of the Wells revival recently held here.

Mrs. Sarah Shapatt returned last week from a visit to Marshfield where two of her daughters, Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Fred Osborne, now live. Another daughter, Miss Opal, who went to Marshfield several months ago, is reported as much improved in health.

Attended Institute

Among the out-of-town teachers who attended the institute here Saturday were E. A. Sayre, R. A. Wilkerson, J. D. Towler and Miss Nina Kane of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morgan, Leona Rosewall, Audrey Delap and Emma Baxter, from the Imbler school, several teachers from outlying districts in this part of the county. In all nearly fifty teachers were in attendance at the institute.

The lectures of Prof. Kells, of Whitman college were about the best that many of the teachers present have ever heard on the subject of modern tests and examinations. As special numbers on the program were the following: Piano solo by Misses Marjorie Sturges and Vina Conley, vocal solo by Miss Emma Baxter, vocal solo by Mrs. Edith Phyl, and dramatic readings by Miss Alma Brant. All of these numbers were well rendered and several of them were encored. The institute members went on record in the resolutions adopted, as favoring a normal school in eastern Oregon, free text books for the schools, and consolidation of the rural schools wherever feasible.

Friday evening the L. D. S. temple of Boy Scouts put on a program at the Mormon church, consisting of three one-act plays. The program was followed by a social time and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson are here from Washington visiting at the C. D. Head home. The Johnsons formerly lived in Union and are thinking of locating here again.

W. O. Haggerty, who was quite ill for a few days, is reported as much better at this time.

Mrs. Sarah Jones and her grand-daughter, Mrs. Vida Fleetwood, are here from North Powder visiting with relatives.

W. J. Baxter, personal training teacher in the Union High School, accompanied the basketball boys on their junket into Wallawa county. Mr. Baxter furnished one of the cars to make the trip.

Observed Day. Throughout the high school and the grades of the Union schools programs and exercises appropriate to the anniversary of the birth of Washington were held Monday and then the pupils were dismissed for the remainder of the day. In some of the rooms talks were made to the children by some of the leading business men of the town.

The two primary teachers who have charge of the school in North Union, Mrs. Voge and Miss Ittly, were very pleasantly surprised last Wednesday when the mothers of the children arrived at the school in full force. The children were dismissed after being served a lunch, then the visitors put on a program consisting of music, readings and papers. Following the program a lunch was served by the mothers. The event was a very pleasant surprise to the two teachers, and needless to add, to the little folks also.

Brownsville to Build Jail. BROWNVILLE, Ore.—The city council this week went on record in favor of the building of a city jail. Brownsville has not had a municipal jail for a number of years and the city police have frequently had to sit up nights with criminals arrested here. The decision to build a jail not to cost more than $1000 was the result of public opinion and a petition bearing the names of practically the entire citizenry of Brownsville.

Hunters Kill 9454 Crows in Six Days

and of them were encircled. The institute members went on record in the resolutions adopted, as favoring a normal school in eastern Oregon, free text books for the schools, and consolidation of the rural schools wherever feasible.
