DEBATE SERIES TO START
VALE, Ore. — Debating for the championship of southeastern Oregon will start February 26, in the Vale high school assembly hall. At this time Vale high will meet Burns, the latter upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That the present policy of restricting immigration according to the quota system should be continued."

At the same time the Vale affirmative team will go to Ontario, and the Ontario affirmative team will go to Burns.

The winner of this triangular debate will go to Baker and compete for the championship of eastern Oregon. The winner there will go to Eugene and debate on the world court.

Stop That Backache!
Many La Grande Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak, nervous, find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this La Grande resident says:

"J. R. Shockey, 15041 N. avenue, says: 'I suffered with a dull ache in the small of my back that made me miserable. When I stooped, it was all I could do to straighten. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. A friend advised me to use Doan's Pills. So I tried them and they soon fixed me up in good shape.'"
Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Shockey had. Foster-McMillan Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

"Happy Warrior" Featured at Sherrys Today

"The Happy Warrior," the Vitaphone picture which comes to the Sherry theatre today for a run of two days, is the latest novel by A. R. M. Hutchinson to reach the screen. The author of "Off Winter Comes," "The Freedom," "The Clean Heart," and "Once Aboard the Lumber," is said in "The Happy Warrior," to have supplied his finest screen material. Readers of the novel will recall with vivid, melodramatic situations, the sort of situations that are most effective on the screen.

The production was made by J. Stuart Blackton, and is presented by Albert E. Smith, with a cast that includes Malcolm McGehee, as Ralph; Alice Calhoun, as Dana; Amy Alden, as Aunt Maggie; Wilfred North, as Mr. McGehee; Anders Randolph, as Stingo Hanna; and Otto Malmgren, as Elbert. Others in the cast are Olive Bard, Buladie Jensen, Gardner Jones, Andrew Towner, Jack Herick, Philippe de Lacy and Bobby Gordon.

The story concerns an English boy, who is right heir to a peer's title, but who, brought up in ignorance of his birth, joins a traveling circus, and becomes an exhibition boxer. When he comes of age, he learns of his noble birth but he foregoes his claim to the title in favor of his closest friend. His life has made him feel more at home in the circus than in the world of aristocrats, and he marries the circus girl with whom he has fallen in love.

Comedy showing "Wild Waves."

"That Royle Girl" To Be Shown Here Thursday

A new production by D. W. Griffith is always one of the big film treats of the year. Consequently, local moviegoers will find cause for general rejoicing in the announcement that for three days beginning Thursday at the Arcade theatre will show his latest masterpiece, "That Royle Girl," a melodramatic picture of a heart-throbbing, hand-picked cast is headed by such notable favorites as Carol Dempster, W. C. Fields, James Kirkwood and Harrison Ford.

In this, his initial picture under the Paramount banner, the master turns the lens-light of his camera on a vivid and thrilling story of modern life—a story, laid against the glittering and sinister background of Chicago's roaring night life and underworld in which tragedy, intrigue and madcap pursuit of excitement are some of the startling, dramatic elements.

The action of the plot centers around Joan Daisy Royle, a jazz, pretty, worldly-wise modiste's mannequin, whose infatuation for Fred Kellar, famous jazz band leader, involves her in a sensational murder-mystery trial. Calvin Clarke, the austere, puritanical district attorney, is the third angle in this complex love-triangle. The amazing chain of extraordinary events is finally capped by a crushing cyclone, which eventually spells love and happiness for "that Royle girl."

India's weather bureau is studying air currents by setting free toy balloons and offering rewards for their recovery.

A dancing success in the world of finance and a financial failure at rearing a family is the story in contrast strikingly shown in "The Best People," Sidney Olcott's newest production for Paramount, showing at the Arcade theatre today only.

A husband learns that, after he has failed by his millions, he has entirely overlooked the welfare of his son and daughter, until it is forcefully brought home to him by the daughter falling in love with the family chauffeur and the son with a chorus girl.

The mother of the children is more alarmed about the ensuing disaster to her than she is over the future welfare of the children, incidentally, the children, who have come to mock and scorn the authority of the parents, feel that they are able to choose for themselves.

How this tangled in straightened out makes a mighty interesting picture and gives its own answer to the problem "who are the best people?"

Featured in the production are Warner Baxter, as the chauffeur; Kathlyn Williams, as the mother; in the supporting cast are Edwards Davis, who plays the father; Margaret Morris, the daughter of wealth; Joseph Striker, cast as the son; William Austin, Margaret Livingston and Ernie Adams.

Bernard McConville adapted the story for the screen from the play by David Grey and Avery Hopwood.

Scenes in Color Add to Charm of "Yankee Senor"

Tom Mix in "The Yankee Senor" will be the attraction at the Star theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

This is the screen version of "Conquistador," the famous novel by Katherine Fullerton Goudou, and many of the scenes are in Technicolor.

Mix fell to the lot of the westerner to introduce the color scheme at the Fox studios and Emmett Flynn, directing Mix, has made the best possible use of the innovation.

"The Yankee Senor" is a colorful story of Old Mexico and affords Mix a wonderful opportunity for some splendid action. Many of the battle scenes are strikingly beautiful. There are numerous close-up shots of Mix and other members of the company.

This cast includes the vivacious Olive Borden, Margaret Livingston, Kathryn Bell, Marden Mattox, Francis McDonald, Alice Francis and others. Excellent wilderness sequences were filmed in Santa Anita, Arizona.

Tony has his usual, high moments—and his master does a tango with Margaret Livingston.

This is one of the most romantic pictures in which the western star has appeared during his long association with William Fox organization.

The Imperial comedy "On the Go" will also be shown.

Surprise Given Pastor.

EUGENE, Ore.—Dr. E. V. Silvers, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, received a surprise. Contemplating a trip to the middle west in a short time, he placed a notice in two of his church papers published in that section stating that his services would be available for a short evangelistic meeting. He was surprised about 9 o'clock last night to receive a telephone call from
