The convenience and pleasure of motor stage trips to and from neighboring towns and cities is known to an ever-increasing number of the traveling public who must move safely and swiftly. There is no waiting for trains, no night travel, no delay from infrequent service. In a stage you can go at a number of convenient hours during the day and enjoy the scenic wonders of Oregon highways as perfectly as if you were driving your own car.

You are served particularly well in our line to Pendleton, where connecting stages may be taken for Walla Walla, Lewiston, Portland, etc., and our line to Joseph through Imbler, Elgin, Wallowa, and Enterprise over the beautiful Wallowa Lake Highway. Two more beautiful highways could not be found in the Northwest than these covered by our service.

Convenient, fast service is maintained always, but with the most careful regard for safety. Specially trained and experienced drivers are assured every passenger, and regular inspection of equipment keeps it mechanically perfect from a safety standpoint. With adequate accommodation of hand baggage, your comfort is the same you would enjoy in a private motor at very small traveling cost.
