Bob Custer at Sherrys Today in "That Man Jack"

Thrilling feats of horsemanship, roaring fun scattered profusely through the story and the warm breath of young romance are outstanding elements of "That Man Jack" in which Bob Custer, the western star, comes again to the Sherry theater. One stunt in particular reveals the agile Texas youth as a horseman of no mean skill and daring. It is a Roman ride in which Bob stands astride two horses as they draw a buckboard in swift flight down a winding mountain trail. Other thrilling stunts enliven this engrossing narrative of the rugged in which Bob Custer is to be seen supported by Mary Milford, Monte Collins, Hayford Hobbs and Buck Moulton. Comedy showing "On Edge."

"First Year" at Star Held Up as Rollicking Comedy

If you have any prejudice against laughing, stay away from the Star theater. The use of comedy-drama opens there Sunday when Frank Craven's stage play, "The First Year," will be shown for the first time. There is not a couple in the world who will fail to recognize themselves in Tom and Grace everywhere they play as they com-

Eight-Minute Act Heads Arcade's Vaudeville Bill

The vaudeville bill coming to the Arcade Sunday is headed by the Dulcis Duo in "Novelty Perch Odities." They do many remarkable feats. It is not an act that while it only runs eight minutes, contains a world of novelties and surprises. Tony Deosta, the trick harpist, is one of the best all-around comedy harpists in vaudeville. He does all manner of tricks with his harp and with all is a real musician. O'Brien Sisters and Mach in "Bits of Musical Comedy Hits" give variety in their entertaining numbers and will be a welcome spot on the bill combining various dances with piano and saxophone solos. Chamberlain and Bennett in "Harmony Blues" are two dainty misses who should prove more than popular in this town in months.

We are very thankful for the way the kind people of this valley are patronizing us and we hope to save you lots of money and make friends in that way. We have lots of white paint now for $2.35 a gallon. Don't know how long it will last.
