TO SUBMIT QUESTION TO LEAGUE

opinion refused to believe the Geneva situation altogether hopeless. It feels that Premier Briand's diplomatic powers, stimulated by the danger of seeing his master work started at Locarno, destroyed, in the end will find a compromise.

STRESEMANN'S STANDPOINT

GENEVA, Mar. 12. (AP)—(By The Associated Press)—Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany summarized for the associated press that situation in Geneva viewed from the German standpoint.
"During the conversation with the powers' Minister, Stresemann said: 'We were told it was desirable that before being admitted to the league we should agree to three new permanent seats in the council besides the one intended for us.'"
"The German delegation has not seen its way to agree to such a proposal, because we see therein a serious breach of Germany's duties as a future member of the league and council."

MELLON IS SCORED BY MCKELLAR

"The so-called better class of people, the money aristocracy," he asserted, "is responsible for the flagrant violation of the law and the teaching of disrespect for the laws of the land. Not only do we find men of this class violating the law, but women also. They give parties and serve cocktails or highballs from liquor bought from bootleggers."
He told of a hostess who complained that she had to serve liquor or the "best people" would not come to her house.
"Prohibition is a success."
"What a travesty, what a misguided view this is of our life, that in order to rise in the so-called social life one must become a law violator and a constitutional derelict."
"Notwithstanding a stormy career," he concluded, "prohibition is a success; there is less drinking than ever before; the sentiment of the country is behind it and there is not one chance in a thousand of the prohibition amendment being repealed."

Weakness Prevailing in Portland Butter Market

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 12. (AP)—Weakness has prevailed in the local butter market almost throughout the entire week and the values have ranged approximately 4 cents lower than the close last Saturday.
On the dairy exchange (local) standards are 1 1/2¢ lower closing at 49 1/2¢. All other grades closed 1¢ off with extras at 42¢, prime fresh and firsts 40¢.
Local spring weather conditions, a little earlier than usual is helping on the flush period of cream production, and the market is increasing rapidly.
Print butter is steady at the 45 cent level, no change having been made since Monday and none is contemplated over the week end. The fresh egg market rules generally steady. Pullets or mediums were a cent lower at the close but other grades were unchanged on the local dairy. Churning prices were: Extras 25¢; firsts 24¢; mediums 23¢ and currents 21 1/2¢. Light arrivals of country dressed meats caused prices to strengthen the latter part of the week and close higher along the street. A keen demand prevailed for top stuff. Choice light calves sold generally from 17 1/2 to 18¢ although exceptional sales of fancy stuff were made at 18 1/2¢. Top offerings readily moved and the 18 1/2 to 19¢ with commission houses completely bare at the close today.
Live poultry prices also continued on the upward trend during the week. At the close today night hens were selling as high as 24¢ with the bulk of the stuff moving at 23¢. Heavy hens sold from 26 to 28¢. Not enough springs are coming now to test values and the market is more or less nominal. Fancy dressed turkeys sold at 42 to 45¢. Live ducks were nominal.
