A SURE DELIVERER—"And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah. Jehovah will fight for you."—Ex. 14:12-14.

Nobody really lives as long as a rich relative seems to live.

The height of ignorance is for a girl to get married simply because she is tired of working.

Flossie Gay—"You'll never catch me again going out to dinner with an editor!"

Her Friend—"Was he broke?"

Flossie—"I don't know whether he was broke or not; but he put a blue pencil through about half my order."

Having looked carefully around we conclude that soap is the last thing used in the acquirement of that schoolgirl complexion.

Two hard citizens were standing in a secluded spot talking confidentially. One of them suddenly sneaked away while the other stood on guard. Soon the first one was seen to emerge from a window and join his pal.

"Did you get anything?" whispered the one waiting.

"No, de guy what lives in dere is a lawyer," growled the other.

"Dat's hard luck," said his pal. "Did youse lose anything?"

First Old Maid—"What'd you rather have than anything else in the world?"

Second Old Maid—"A nice boyish bob."

What's become of the old fashioned child who asked for "simpler food" every time he went with his mother to visit a neighbor?

Father—"I want to apprentice my boy to you."

Master Plumber—"Where is he?"

Father—"Well—he forgot his references and has gone back home after them."

Master Plumber—"Right, I'll take him!"

"Haven't I seen you somewhere else?"

"Perhaps; I've been several other places."

WINS MARCH AWARD. PENDLETON, Ore., Mar. 15. (AP)—Alice Inlog, Pendleton, student, won the March award offered by the Oregon tuberculosis association poster contest.

SATISFIED WITH JOB. SACRAMENTO—State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson announced his candidacy for re-election, thus removing himself as a potential candidate for governor Johnson is a republican.

PARK ENJOYING WARM WEATHER

THE PARK (Special)—The weather has been warm and rainy here for several days. What little snow there was left has melted and the grass and spring flowers are coming up.

Ed Turner of Big Creek passed through the Park Thursday.

John Lay, the Park stage driver, reports that the roads are in a better condition for travel now.

Kenneth Vanorder went to Huntington Wednesday to work on the G. W. South dairy ranch.

A. J. Vandevanter is busy cutting posts now. He intends to rebuild some of his fence.

Mrs. Frank Whitten, Mrs. Hob Wanker and daughter, Maxine, and Mrs. Urdell Lay and little son, Lamar, all of Big Creek, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Joe Lay Wednesday.

Frank Wigglesworth is busy cutting wood for summer use.

Jack Hunter Jr. will soon go to Keating on Lower Powder to work for A. Oliver this summer.

GENERAL McDONALD PASSES. WASHINGTON, Mar. 16. (AP)—Brigadier General John Bacon McDonald, retired, died Sunday at the Walter Reed hospital. He was born in Alabama in 1859. He commanded the 182d infantry brigade, 8th division, made up of far western troops during the world war. He participated in the St. Mihiel, Argonne-Meuse and Ypres-Lys offensives. After the war for a time he was commandant at the Presidio, San Francisco. He was decorated with the Croix de Guerre and other medals for gallantry.

In Florida they jailed a New York swindler. Florida will have to outgrow her small town ideas.

Hear Protests Against Emergency Wheat Rate

PENDLETON, MAR. 15. (AP)—Several protests against an emergency wheat rate, west for damaged wheat have been received by the Great Northern company, according to word received by the Pendleton commercial association which is seeking an emergency rate east on good wheat to relieve the situation there. Other sections in the west are protesting the rate which would dump poor wheat in the eastern sections for feeding purposes.
