Junior Department Is Entertained

Approximately fifty people gathered in the dining room of the Methodist Episcopal church last evening for the annual banquet given by the ladies' foreign and home missionary societies for the Junior department.

During the three-course dinner, which was served at 6:30 o'clock an excellent program was presented. A toast "Greetings from the Mother Society to the Junior Department" was given by Mrs. H. W. Parker and a response was made by Louise Leighton. Miss Charlotte Walker played a piano selection after which the Junior society presented a playlet entitled, "What Next?" Mrs. Claude Cooper and Miss Mima Cooper sang a duet number and Miss Clara McKennon gave a reading, "Cyrus Irons's Prayer." The program closed with a song by the members of the Junior missionary society.

Senior Play Cast Gives Dinner Party

The senior play cast entertained at a dinner party Monday evening at the George Glass home honoring the directors of the play, Miss Mabel Bennett, Miss Florence Thompson and Miss Ruby Dillon. The dinner, which was prepared by the girls of the cast, was served at 7 o'clock with covers laid for eighteen. Green and gold, class colors, was carried out in the table decorations. After dinner mints were also in those colors.

After dinner a radio program was enjoyed.

W. R. C. Benefit Tea Attracts 52 Women

Fifty-two women called at the home of Mrs. Harry Turner on Washington avenue yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Turner, assisted by Mrs. F. S. Nye, Mrs. E. P. Willcock and Mrs. E. B. Willcock entertained at a benefit tea for Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps No. 37.

During the afternoon a delightful program of readings and musical numbers was given. Mrs. Loren J. Gates played a piano number, Schubert's "Minuet," and Mrs.

Different

The sailor collar creates a neck finish refreshingly different. A contrasting border and wide tie in printed silk emphasizes the sailor shaping.

A. S. Duryea gave two readings, "Smacks in School" and "Soerale Snook." Miss Katherine Wlesler sang a selection accompanied by Mrs. Lee Reynolds at the piano. Her number was "Daddy's Sweetheart" by Liza Lehmann.

Mrs. Crews Hostess At Bridge Luncheon

Members of the Tuesday Bridge club were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. C. Crews with an attractive luncheon at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Covers were laid for eight. The centerpiece was a beautiful bouquet of white tulips and daffodils. Place cards in the form of little yellow baskets.

Two tables of bridge were formed after luncheon. Mrs. S. A. Sanford won high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. Nate Zweifel.

Mrs. Bouvy Entertains

Luncheon was served at a prettily appointed table at 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Lee Bouvy was hostess to the members of the Clio club. The centerpiece for the table was a lovely bouquet of yellow daffodils and sweetpeas.

After luncheon bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Ray Murphy winning high honors among the club members. The guest prize went to Mrs. H. E. Westphaler.

Y. O. Club Meets at Mills Home

Mrs. Stanley Mills won high score among the club members and Mrs. E. R. Ringo received the guest prize yesterday afternoon when Mrs. E. Jacobson entertained the members of the Y. O. club.

Bouquets of spring flowers in pink and white, were artistically arranged throughout the rooms and on the table where a delicious two-course luncheon was served following the games.

Visitors Attend D. of H. P. A. Session

The degree of Honor Protective association met last evening at Eagles hall in regular session. Besides a large attendance of members there were two visitors, Mrs. Skala, of this city, and Mrs. Youngman, of Bendleton.

A class of six candidates were initiated.

The meeting of the King's Her-

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, bread crumbs, pancakes, maple syrup, milk coffee.

Luncheon—Vegetable omelet, lettuce sandwiches, canned strawberries, fifteen minute sponge cake, milk, tea.

Dinner—Casserole of beef with raisins, mashed potatoes, tomato fritters, radishes and onion, apple amber, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The vegetable omelet is well worth considering. It is a savory dish quite out of the ordinary. Leftover mashed potatoes are used up most appealingly without the addition of expensive ingredients with a nourishing and satisfying result.

Vegetable Omelet
Two cups washed potatoes, 2 tablespoons minced chives, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 2 tablespoons minced sweet green pepper, one third to 1/2 cup brown gravy, 3 tablespoons grated cheese.

Combine potatoes, minced vegetables and gravy. The gravy is any other left-over and can be "brightened" by the addition of water or milk of necessary to make the required amount. Beat the mixture with a fork until well blended. Melt 1 tablespoon butter or bacon fat in a hot spider. Spread potato mixture evenly over bottom of pan. Cover closely and cook over a low fire for 20 or 30 minutes, until a nice brown crust is formed on the under-side of the omelet. Remove cover, sprinkle with grated cheese and put in a very hot oven or under a gas broiler to melt the cheese. Fold like an omelet and serve on a hot platter. Garnish with crisp greens.

aid home guards of the Methodist Episcopal church which was to have been tomorrow at the church has been postponed.

The high school students and teachers and other young people of the community will be entertained at a dancing party Friday evening at the Elks hall room.

Many a woman standing in front of a shop window has merely stopped to reflect.

Wet and Dry—But They're Friends

Mrs. Florence P. Kahn, representative from California, is an outspoken opponent of the Volstead act. But here she is (left) shaking hands with one of her best friends, who is none other than Miss Laura Volstead of Grants Falls, Minn., daughter and law partner of the author of the national enforcement act.

Home Pointers

By garnishing dishes with slices of fancy shapes of lemon, whose flavor harmonizes with the dish served, the eye is attracted, the appetite is roused, and the food value and digestion are increased.

Delicious-tasting food is wholesome because it stimulates a sluggish and unenthusiastic digestion better than drugs. The normal healthy person digests better the food that promotes the secretion of the pan-creatic digestive juice, named by Pawlow "appetit-just."

A delicious cinnamon toast is prepared in three steps—after the toast is spread with sugared and cinnamon butter, it is held under the gas flame until the butter melts and soaks through. If it is kept under the heat until the butter sizzles, the sugar boils, the cinnamon smells, and the froth goes down, the butter and sugar form a brown coating over the toast. The finished product has the flavor of cinnamon enhanced by heat, of caramel from the browned sugar, and of the French "chouffe noir" from the browned butter.

In fruit cakes the flour and eggs serve to hold the fruit together. Such cakes, richly spiced and flavored, are better after standing six months to ripen. Some ingredient proportions used by cooking authorities are 1 lb. flour, 7 lbs. fruit, 2 lbs. nuts, 18 eggs; or 1 lb. flour, 5 lbs. fruit, 9 eggs; or 1 lb. flour, 4 lbs. fruit, 8 lbs. nuts, 12 eggs.

It is permissible to serve any kind of salad without lettuce when not obtainable. There is no objection to substituting cabbage leaves, plain or shredded, or celery tops.

Spinach is washed in cold rather than hot water by experienced housewives because the heat causes it to fade, losing many valuable constituents. Because of the vitamins and minerals in spinach, both the juice and the vegetables are served.

Flour is an unnecessary and improper ingredient for macaroons. The true, original, and proper macaroons do not have any flour. They are made wholly of coconut.

Monday was wash day once. Now it is the day on which we have the garage man put the auto back together.

Charm School

A bachelor won't have a chance in New Orleans soon—not when Miss Louise Koppel's Charm School has turned out a few graduates. Miss Koppel, an artist and society leader, has several score young ladies learning the secrets of physical, spiritual and mental charm.
