RUGBY, ENGLAND TALKS ON PHONE WITH CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Mar. 29. (AP)—When William H. Safford, answered his telephone last night he was startled to hear the operator calmly say:

"Hold the line for Rugby, England, please."

A moment later he heard the voice of his son-in-law, Arthur A. Oswald, whom he knows to be in England.

For 20 minutes the conversation continued, Mr. Oswald, who designed and built the Rugby radio telephone station for the British postal service, telling his father-in-law of the success of the venture.

The message, broadcast from Rugby, was picked up by an unknown station on the Maine coast and relayed by telephone to New York, and thence to Chicago. It was reported to be the first time a telephone conversation had been carried on between Europe and Chicago, although such communication had been established with cities on the Atlantic coast.

Five Klamath Falls Men Sentenced Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 29. (AP)—Five Klamath Falls men who pleaded guilty to violation of the liquor law were sentenced to jail by Federal Judge Benn today.

Assistant United States District Attorney Helgeson recommended light sentences because the men had pleaded guilty and saved the government the expense of trials.

The sentences imposed were: E. Wakefield, 618 Willow street, and S. J. Miller, 248 Broad street, operators of soft drink places, each 30 days in jail and $500 fine.

J. J. Mathews and J. R. Evanson, who were employed at Wakefield's place were given 20 days and fined $50 each.

D. W. Burling, employed at Miller's place, was given a 60 day jail sentence, it being his second conviction.

Tulsa charges were filed against both places and abatement proceedings started.

PERCENTAGE OF SPINAL CURVATURE HERE IS LOW

Children of La Grande show a low percentage of spinal curvature, according to the records compiled at the clinic held by Drs. J. L. and Margaret Ingle, with the assistance of several outside physicians, at their office Saturday afternoon.

Of the fifty-two children examined, only nine, or about 17.5 per cent, showed some degree of spinal curvature. This is a fairly low percentage, the doctors claim.

La Grande's good showing is attributed by the doctors to the fact that the children live in a small town where opportunities for outdoor play are abundant, to the general increase of knowledge as to how to feed children, and the general high standard of living maintained by La Grande people.

"Old cemeteries are full of tombstones over the graves of children whose mothers thought that insect was all the good they needed in caring for their children," said Dr. C. T. Samuels, of Baker, speaking for the visiting osteopaths.

Understanding. They thought he had come as a temporal ruler, instead of coming as the king of their hearts.

The scenes in the tabernacle, between the Greeks and the disciples and finally with Jesus, Dr. Clark dramatized and made very real to the congregation of Episcopalians and other-denomination visitors. Christ's concern for the gentiles, the missionary said, was the hope of the world.

Remington Speaks. Bishop W. P. Remington, of Pendleton, spoke preceding the sermon by Dr. Clark, expressing the gratitude of the parish for the efforts of the church's general missioner.

"We of western civilization have mixed up our methods and organizations with our religion," the bishop declared. "What we need to remember is that the only important question we have to consider is: 'What think ye of Christ?'"

The bishop addressed the Wayfarers' guild late in the afternoon. Practically the entire morning congregation partook of holy communion at the First Methodist church yesterday. The Rev. Henry W. Parker, pastor, used as his Palm Sunday theme, "A Dying Wish Respected." The choir, led by Mrs. Sherwood Williams, sang an appropriate anthem. Paul Knauth offered a vocal solo, "The Palmus." In the evening, the pas-meeting of this kind and we hope to make it successful. So many members are unable to attend the state convention that we thought the women of the auxiliary throughout the state could get better acquainted by holding district conferences," she said. There are three districts in the state, this part forming the second district.

tor preached on the subject, "The Triumphant Entry."

"The Dynamic of the Cross" was the morning sermon theme at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. W. C. Ross, preaching.

At Sunday school, Miss Katherine Moran and Edwin Kirby were presented seats in recognition of their perfect attendance for four years. Diplomas were given eight boys and girls who did not miss Sunday school during the year 1925.

Plan Easter Breakfast. The annual Easter breakfast was planned at the Christian Endeavor meeting. Members of the society will meet at the church after the sunrise service at Gungloff park.

Miss Isabella Miller sang in the evening, supplementing the illustrated sermon by the pastor. Miss Edna McGuire played the pipe organ. The music changes were necessitated by the illness of Miss Gladys Miller, organist, and Mrs. C. R. Moore, vocalist.

Revelry services that will continue every night this week until Saturday were commenced Sunday morning at the Central Church of Christ. Two unusually large crowds heard the Rev. C. V. Dunn's sermons yesterday. A quartet sang "The Old Hugged Cross," while Mrs. Robert E. Coker, wife of a former pastor of the church, drew a picture.

Tonight Mr. Dunn's sermon will be on the subject, "Christian Baptism." The speaker will illustrate with a chart.

Palm Sunday was the prevailing thought in the services of the First Baptist church. The worship tended toward preparation for Easter. Both morning and evening congregations were especially large, the Rev. B. A. Pollard reported this morning. Miss Isabella Miller sang the morning offertory.

In the evening, the illustrated sermon touched on the last passage.

The Rev. J. A. Hall preached to two good-sized congregations at the Methodist church, South, yesterday.

gress and for state and local offices.

"Our energies should and will be directed to this one essential end. Devotion to our party and its principles, unity for battle to disorganize and defeat the republican party—these are the thoughts and purposes of the national organization."

"The national committee, with limited means by comparison with the tampered republic organization," Mr. Shaver said, "will cooperate with the senate and house campaign committees and the state committees in the fight for control. Pointing out that democrats hold 24 of the 48 governorships, 42 per cent of the seats in the house and 40 per cent of those in the senate, he continued:

"Thirty-four senators are to be elected next fall. Of the 24 whose terms are about to expire, only seven are democrats and they are from safely democratic states. Again of ten of the 27 seats now held by republicans would give the democrats a majority."
