Home to Wallowa after a buying trip to San Francisco, California. He was away one week. Mr. Shell reports that business conditions in Wallowa county are very good.

On Way to Wallowa—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wood and two children Marjorie and Lavonne, passed through the city this morning on their way to Wallowa where they will visit. Mr. and Mrs. Wood have been making their home in Northern Idaho. They may locate in Wallowa county.

Here on Business—Mrs. Ed Thomas, formerly of this city but who makes her home at Seattle, Wash., arrived in this city this morning and will be here for a few days on business. Mrs. Thomas reports that the weather is like summer at Seattle and Portland.

On Way to Imbler—John Shuman passed through the city this morning on his way to Imbler from Baker. He will be at Imbler for about two weeks working as agent for the O.-W. R. and N. company. His home is at Baker where he is connected with the same company.

Left Yesterday for Lake—John C. MacPherson went to Wallowa Lake yesterday and will be there permanently from now on. Mr. MacPherson is manager of the resort. Building will start there immediately he said yesterday. He reports that six little fox puppies have arrived at the Silver Fox farm at the lake.

Here Since Sunday—After visiting in La Grande since Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Jack, Mrs. Charles McKinley left this morning for Bruno, Idaho, where she will visit for two weeks with her daughter who is teaching school there. Mrs. McKinley makes her home at Lewiston, Idaho.

Offering Prizes—In order to spur interest in the boys' and girls' garden work this summer, citizens of Cove are contributing funds for prizes. Six offers of five dollars each have been recorded. The winning boy will receive a free trip to the summer school at the Oregon Agricultural college in 1927.

Schools Open for Summer—Two district schools where the term extends through the warmer months of the year began classes yesterday. Fox Hill school is being taught by Miss Martin Fulkerson, of Seaside, who was there last year, also. The Durr school, District No. 54, opened with Miss Helen Overman, of Monmouth, in charge.

Stock on Range—J. R. Dobbin passed through the city this morning on his way home to Enterprise after a trip to Portland where he took one carload of beef cattle for the Portland market. He reports that the market is not so good at present as it was earlier in the season, that it is just a little slow for this time of the year. He said that stock in Wallowa county wintered well. Many stockmen in that section have turned their stock on the range, the season being much earlier than usual.

Attends Conference Here—Mrs. C. E. Spence returned to Milton this morning after attending the district conference of legion auxiliary units in La Grande yesterday. Her auxiliary devotes the most of its time to the needs of tubercular patients at the government hospital, No. 35, at Walla Walla, Mrs. Spence said. From 25 to 50 Oregon boys are there for treatment all of the time. They all seem very cheerful, and say they are getting the finest of care, according to the visiting auxiliary member.

Approve La Grande System—C. O. Hughes, P. H. Hawkins, J. G. Israel, W. B. Driscoll and R. P. Richardson, commissioners and city manager from Dayton, visited La Grande over the week end to inspect the new sewage disposal plant and system. They declared themselves thoroughly pleased with it and expressed an intention of using the same type at Dayton. They will employ the same engineer, too, the visiting commissioners announced.

Gathering Paper, Rates—The parent-teacher association of La Grande are now gathering old books, papers, magazines and clean rags. Money earned from the sale of these articles will be used in an attempt to bring Judge Lindsay, of Denver, to La Grande. The drive will last for a week. All papers will be taken from the school next Saturday. Those who live in Greenwood district may send the articles to this school. If any one has more than can be taken in a small wagon, Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson may be notified.

permanently crippled when Ray Wilson's car struck her as she was crossing the highway in front of her home, between Imbler and Allet, the evening of November 27, 1924, claims that the injuries were the result of Wilson's negligence in driving.

Mrs. Conklin and her husband had parked their car across the highway from their home. Just as she started to cross to her doorway, the other car, approaching from Allet, struck her, throwing

LOCAL CHRISTIAN PASTOR EXPLAINS BAPTISMAL RITES

Quoting many passages of scripture to support his position, the Rev. C. N. Dunn, in his sermon before a goodly audience at the Central Church of Christ last evening, declared that immersion in water is the act of Christian baptism, that the subject must be a penitent believer, that the rite must be performed "in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost," and that it must be done by Jesus, and that his purpose is the remission of sins.

In answer to a query from the question box, the pastor said that God is revealed through Jesus; that "In Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. He is the effluence of God's glory, the embodiment of right and wrong, and thus a perfect example for us."

Last night's services were one in the series of evangelistic meetings with which the church is observing holy week. The revival began with two meetings Sunday. At the evening hour, with Mrs. Robert E. Colker sketching an illustration, "The Old Hinged Cross" was sung by a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tower, G. L. Dutton, Mrs. C. F. McPherson and Mrs. Stanton C. Lapham.

In addition to the primary intermediate and junior departments conducted last year, beginners' division has been added to take care of the smallest children. Last year 575 pupils were enrolled. An even larger attendance is expected, of like advantage of the bible training offered this summer.

School, Owns Texts—A complete library of texts is already owned by the daily vacation bible school. The books were placed in the public library early last winter, where they have been circulated as other books from the shelves.

Sometime in May, a union meeting will be held at which time the school will be set going, and the public informed of all plans in connection.

Service This Evening—First of three union services with which the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches are observing passion week will be held this evening at the Baptist church. Dr. Henry W. Parker, Methodist pastor, will deliver the pre-Easter sermon. Music appropriate to the occasion will supplement his message.

These congregations are joining with others in the nonsectarian service at the Arcade theater, and the general union service that will be conducted from noon till 4 o'clock on Good Friday at St. Peter's Episcopal.

"Hold the Torch on High," and gave an interesting account of the work leading up to the auxiliary Poppy Day program.

The meeting closed with a round-table discussion, when the problems of the various units were carefully talked over. During the afternoon two new members were initiated. Mrs. Harry Mason and Mrs. Ed Snodgrass.

Proceeding the meeting at 12:20 o'clock a luncheon was held in the Summer hotel dining room, honoring Mrs. Eastman and Mrs. Baster, who left on last night's train for More where they are holding a conference today. While in La Grande Mrs. Eastman was the guest of Mrs. C. N. Palmer and Mrs. Baster was entertained by Mrs. Donald M. Page.

In congress is endorsed. Would Protect Wild Game. Conservation and protection of wild game and fish is urged, and the Jackson county delegation to the legislature "instructed to support such measures as will make it impossible for any future governor to build a political machine out of the great game organization of our state," and that game commission funds itself exclusively for game protection and conservation.

The voters are implored to vote against the "fishing bill," which has for its purpose the diversion of 10 per cent of the game funds into the general fund.

DEBT PLAN ATTACKED BY HOWELL (Continued from Page One)

This was justified, he said, with the new high phrase of "ability to pay" to the pavement and breaking both arms and legs, it is safe. Mrs. Conklin walks only with crutches, and had to be carried up the stairs to the courtroom to give her testimony this afternoon. Her attorneys are Cochran & Eberhard and H. E. Dixon. Green & Hess represent Wilson.

GIRL SINGERS DUE TOMORROW

Delayed at Meacham by a slight accident, the Madrigal club—girl singers from O. A. C.—reached La Grande yesterday too late to sing their scheduled program before the high school students. They will be here Wednesday morning in time to entertain at a special assembly for a short time before they accept Dr. W. T. Pity's annual invitation to the sanatorium for luncheon, they said in a long-distance telephone message.

The girls will be presented in a public program at the high school auditorium Wednesday at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the school and the chamber of commerce. After their concert, they will give a dance at Zuber hall, the Hotel-Henson orchestra, of Corvallis, playing. They entertained at Baker last evening and will appear at Union tonight.

A man named Roberts was seriously injured. He was rushed to Houston by train but is believed to have small chance of recovery. The three men were employees of the Pere Oil company and had just gone to work when the storm struck. The wind swept a path about half a mile wide through the South Liberty oil field. Virtually every derrick and building in the path was demolished.

SOUTHWEST UNDER SNOW KANSAS CITY, Mar. 30, (AP)—

With Easter less than a week away, nearly all of the southwest was covered with snow today. The storm, which had held the Rocky Mountain region in its grip since last Wednesday spread eastward over Kansas, Oklahoma, western Missouri and northern Texas bringing a white blanket in some places ten inches deep. A sharp drop in temperature accompanied the blizzard.

FRUIT TREES DAMAGED Some damage to fruit trees was reported. Winter wheat, however, is believed to have benefited by the moisture.

The heaviest snow fall was reported in Kansas. At Topeka the depth measured nine inches and it was still snowing early today. In the southwestern part of the state Greenburg and Lucklin reported from eight to ten inches.

Rain fell over Missouri last night, falling to snow as the temperature dropped. In Kansas City snow was still falling this morning after the ground had been covered to a depth of about four inches.

DAMAGE $250,000 HOUSTON, Tex., Mar. 30, (AP)—

Damage that may approach $250,000, according to unofficial estimates available at an early hour this morning was caused here between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning by a high wind, rain and electrical storm. Street car transportation is severely hampered due to fallen trees and broken power wires. The residence section of the city is without lights due to fallen wires.

Damage will be confined largely to broken plate glass windows in the business section and flooded stocks of goods.
