Mrs. Theison Heads Ladies' Aid Society

Mrs. John Theison was elected president to succeed Mrs. J. T. Richardson yesterday afternoon when the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church met at the church and installed officers for the ensuing year. Other officers installed were: Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, vice president; Mrs. Kay Murphy, secretary and Mrs. Frank Jackson, treasurer. The Rev. William Crosby Ross acted as installing officer.

The regular meeting day of the society is next Wednesday, but because of the congregational supper to be held at the church that evening at 6:30 o'clock the meeting was postponed until the following Wednesday. About fifty members were present.

After the installation Mrs. Harley Richardson played two beautiful numbers at the pipe organ. Those present then adjourned to the community room where the social committee, headed by Mrs. Oscar Pouch took charge, and dainty refreshments were served. Other members of the committee were Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. Ella Hymanson, Mrs. C. N. Palmer, Mrs. Otis W. Palmer, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Mrs. W. C. Perkins, Mrs. Charles Playle, Mrs. W. H. Helkens, Mrs. Turner Oliver and Mrs. W. C. Ross.

The next meeting of the society will be May 12. The regular meeting day is May 5, but because of the convention of the Federation of women's clubs during that week the meeting has been postponed one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill To Lead Grand March

An interesting feature of the old-time dance to be given Monday evening, April 5, under the auspices of the Altar society of the Catholic church, will be a grand march with all those wearing old-time costumes taking part. A prize—a beautiful picture—will be given to the person wearing the oldest costume. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill will lead the march.

Much interest is being shown in the old-fiddlers' contest, another feature of the dance which promises to be one of the most successful after Easter affairs. In this contest one or more complete dances will be played by each contestant, who must not be under 50 years of age.

The entire evening will not be devoted to old-time entertainment, however. Miss Beulah Newlin will dance the Charleston as a part of the evening's program and a jazz dance number will be given by Jane Stange, Trillian and Alida Ashby and Sally and Judy Siegel. These girls will also give "The Spring Dance."

Word has been received here that a number of Baptist old-time dance devotees will drive to La Grande that evening to attend the dance and entertainment. Mr. P. L. Meyers, chairman of the dance committee, has arranged for the sale of tickets in that city.

KEPT CHILD IN BOX

TACOMA, Wash.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schenckel were sentenced to six months in the county jail when it was learned that they were in the habit of solving the problem of disposing of a three-year-old son by placing him in a large box and leaving him all day. Juvenile officers found the child in the box at the end of a day's imprisonment without food or water.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Grapefruit juice, cereal, thin cream, breakfast codfish, cornbread, milk, coffee.
Dinner—Casseroles of smoked halibut, string beans, head lettuce with Russian dressing, cottage pudding with maple sauce, bran bread, milk, coffee.
Orange juice, rather than grapefruit should be served to children under ten years of age and children under school age should not be allowed to eat the breakfast fish.
This codfish dish is so much worth while, however, for the average family that the recipe follows.

Breakfast Codfish—Three-fourths pound salt codfish, 3 slices fat pork, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, paprika. Soak fish in cold water to cover over night. Drain from this water and cover with boiling water. Simmer until tender, about twenty minutes. Drain and dry. Fry out salt pork, cooking until meat is crisp. Remove meat to a hot plate. Roll fish in flour and cook to an appetizing brown in the hot fat. The fish should be browned quickly since it is cooked until tender and needs no further cooking. Place fish on platter with pork. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons of fat in frying pan and stir flour into the remaining 2 tablespoons. When thoroughly blended and smooth, slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thick and smooth. Season with paprika and pour around fish and pork. Garnish with sprigs of parsley if convenient and serve.

Breakfast—Baked rhubarb, cereal, thin cream, bread crumb pancakes, maple syrup, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Bean stew, toasted crackers, shredded fresh pineapple, vanilla cookies, milk, tea.
Dinner—Breast of lamb, boiled rice, buttered parsnips, jellied vegetables, salad, cream pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.
Little bits of left-over vegetables work up satisfactorily in a jellied vegetable salad. I like to fold a well seasoned salad dressing into the jelly just as it begins to thicken. This insures a "tasty" salad without any bare spots, as it were. Then a spoonful of real mayonnaise dropped on top of each serving forms an attractive garnish and adds to the richness of the salad.

Baked Rhubarb—Twelve prunes, 1 cup boiling water, 1 cup sugar, 3 cups rhubarb cut in inch lengths. Wash prunes and let stand 3 hours in cold water to cover. Remove stones and cut fruit in small pieces. Wash and cut rhubarb. Put rhubarb, prunes, and water into a covered baking dish and cook in a moderate oven about 20 minutes. Add sugar and cook about 30 minutes longer or until rhubarb is tender. Remove cover about 10 minutes before taking from oven to allow surplus water to evaporate. Serve warm or cold. Perfectly cold for breakfast.

Ban on Short Skirts In Greece Is Lifted

ATHENS—Greek girls may now wear skirts just as short as the mode in the U. S. A. or even shorter. Many protests after imprisonment of a judge's daughter for 24 hours have caused General Pangalos, the dictator to rescind his decree that dresses must be no farther from the ground than 14 inches.
