A RENEWED COVENANT—"And he dreamed; and behold, Jehovah said, the land whereon thou hast, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed."—Gen. 28: 12-14.

The deepest spot in the Atlantic is 27,965 feet—an excellent place to drop a saxophone overboard.

"Congress Hopes to Quit By June." We doubt if it would hurt the country a great deal even if they quit before that time.

The police department of Washington, D. C., announces that one-fourth of the city's population will be arrested during the year at the present pace of police officers. It is assumed, however, that the large number of arrests does not include all the congressmen who violate the Volstead law.

Political candidates for state and national offices this year seem to be greatly concerned as to who can beat the standard bearer of the opposing party. Each one claims the necessary qualities and the fact that "he is the only man who can beat So-and-So" is one of the main arguments of interested friends. Fortunately for the citizens of the state, the same qualities that will make for victory will also make pretty fair public officials.

SUBJECT TO REVISION.

After a tour of part of the world Herr Professor Katz, Berlin anthropologist, dogmatically announced the following world-wide comparisons:

"The most beautiful women in the world, Ceylonese; the strongest men, Fiji Islanders; the most gentle and genial people, the Malay inhabitants of Java; the richest people, the New Zealanders; the most interesting country, Germany; the most picturesque land, New Zealand; the most expensive, Sudan; the cheapest, Italy; where I would choose to live best of all, Fiji Islands."

When the herr professor's deductions were made public in Germany the frauens indignantly refused to concede the palm of beauty to the Ceylonese and protested that their own Wilhelms and Johanns and Ottos are quite the strongest and finest men in the world, not excepting the Fiji Islanders.

It is plain the professor has not adhered to the traditional German thoroughness. His conclusions would have been vastly different had he completed his world tour. His statement that the Ceylonese women are the most beautiful was positive evidence he had not visited the United States, and it develops that he has never set foot on American soil. Should he eventually visit this country he will find his judgment was premature. After all, what a great difference there is between the beauty standards of the several races and nationalities and from age to age.

BOUNCEBACKS.

He tried to beat the railroad train. When the signal light burned red.
For years he'd had a dormant brain.
Now his body's joined his brain.
He looked into his gas tank.
With a lighted match one night.
He'd always wished that he could fly.
He "blew" that time all right!
He tried to fix the electric motor.
A screwdriver in his hand.
He'd always wished that he could dance.
Then he wished that he could quit.
He always wished that he could go to
Perhaps a table and a quartet.
He tried it once with too much vigor.
And he's soaking wet in water.
Tomb of Egyptian king's wife opened and found unoccupied. So they couldn't keep the women at home in those days either.
Must have been quite a contortionist who, by declining a banquet invitation, expressed his sincerest regrets and sent a handshake from the bottom of his heart.
For ten years they lived happily and the future was rosy. Then they learned to play bridge. She was required her maiden name.

Teacher—What happens when a tadpole loses its tail?
Tommy—It is then called a frog which is caught and sent to market to be retailed.
A doctor says the nose needs exercise. Not the kind gotten by sticking it into other people's business, however.

Rich Lover: Will you marry me? I love you, darling; I would die for you.
Young Digger: Is that a promise?

Seven years ago Frank B. Patterson went to Detroit with a college degree and just enough money to rent a small office and go to work as a civil engineer. Now he has just paid a $20,000 premium on a million-dollar life insurance policy. He is head of one of the largest construction firms in Detroit.

GENEVA, Apr. 1. (AP).—The League of Nations advisory commission on child welfare adopted a resolution today declaring that every government should warn the younger generation of the dangers of alcohol by all the legislative and administrative means in its power. The commission called on the league council to bring its matter to the attention of governments represented in the league.
