Critic, After Seeing "Grass," Becomes Press Agent

"Grass," Paramount's latest picture, which arrives at the Arcade theater on Wednesday has won for itself many graceful compliments, none of them finer than these words which were contained in the review of the New York Evening Post.

"It is very seldom that a picture makes a critic feel like turning press agent, but 'Grass' had that effect on me.

"When the pictures are so much more vivid than any words, it seems useless to try further to describe this offering. But if you are in search of unusual entertainment, of thrills, of strange and marvelous scenes, if you want a real adventure in picture going, see 'Grass' and you will thank me for having urged you."

Seven Queens in Comedy Picture Coming to Star

First National's Robert Kane production, "Bluebeard's Seven Wives," is scheduled to be shown at the Star theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This is something different in the way of feature comedy. It is promised. The principal male role is portrayed by Ben Lyon.

Playing opposite Lyon are seven of the screen's fairest leading women, headed by Blanche Sweet and Lois Wilson and including Dorothy Sebastian, Diana Kane, Katherine Ray, Lucy Fox and Kathleen Martin.

The story of the comedy relates of the manner in which a humble bank clerk is catapulted to movie

"Cohens and Kellys" Coming to Arcade Monday

The most capable hands in Hollywood have made "The Cohens and Kellys," the Universal-Jewel coming to the Arcade theater Monday and Tuesday.

It is coming with an all-star cast which includes some of the greatest old-timers of stage and screen, all of whom are comedians extraordinary.

Charles Murray heads the cast, with George Sidney and Vera Gordon also featured. Others in the cast are Nat Carr, the brother of Alexander Carr, Kate Price, Jason Robards, Olive Hasbrouck, Bobby Gordon and Mickey Bennett.

Airplanes Frighten Predatory Animals

EVANSTON, Wyo., Apr. 2, (AP)—Wyoming flocksmen who for years have resorted to rifles, traps and poison in futile efforts to protect their sheep from predatory animals, are agreed that the brightly-lighted transcontinental air mail route has succeeded where they have failed. Shepherds have made the discovery that the coyotes and wolves have abandoned the ranges entirely for heavily lighted havens as a result of the powerful beacon lights. Yet to offset this benefit, a new problem arises. The stambon on which Harry Pollard, the

Bob Custer at Sherrys Tonight Only In "Man of Nerve"

One of the most entertaining western dramas seen in a long time will come to the Sherry theater tonight when Bob Custer's latest starring vehicle, "A Man of Nerve" has its first showing in this community. This star has been coming along fast in the past, and if the reviews of the current P. B. O. release are accurate, "A Man of Nerve" is a rip-roaring show, packed with drama and nicely seasoned with laughs. Lewis W. Chandler directed the picture for producer Jesse Goldberg, and he has proved once more that he is a masterly mentor for a young actor. The story, which deals with the difficulties of Hackamore Henderson, a quiet cowboy type on the Pandango ranch, was originally called "Forth and Found" and was written for the Western Magazine by John H. Hamlin. Comedy showing "Time Files."

New Charles Ray Picture Coming To La Grande

A new Charles Ray, a Charles Ray of romance, a passionate courtier, a strenuous Strophon! Charles Ray, that immortal orator of American boy roles, is hailed as the latest great lover of the screen in his Chadwick production of "Some Punkins" which comes to the Sherry theater Sunday and Monday.
