Home Wedding Event Of Easter Sunday

A lovely Easter wedding took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stoddard on Second street when Miss Myrtle Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Black, and Carl H. Russell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Russell of this city, were united in marriage by the Bishop Lester Stoddard. Before the ceremony Mrs. Stoddard sang "At Dawning" by Cadman.

As John Stoddard played Lohengren's wedding march the bridal party came down the stairs, headed by the two little ring bearers, Ann Stoddard and Patsy McManus. Other members of the party were Mrs. Carl Larson as matron of honor and Misses Lucille Black and Irma Lyman as bridesmaids. At the foot of the stairs Miss Black was met by her father, C. J. Black who accompanied her to the altar, where they joined the groom and his best man, Walter Stoddard.

The beautiful double ring ceremony took place before a simple white altar of Easter lilies. Other flowers used about the room were snapdragons and orchid tulips. Fifty people—relatives and immediate friends of the couple—were present.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a dress of cream georgette and lace-over-pink. She carried a beautiful bride's bouquet of rose buds. Her matron of honor wore pale green crepe de chine and carried a lovely bouquet of tulips. Miss Black and Miss Lyman were dressed in yellow and orchid tulle de chine, respectively, and had corsages of sweetpeas. The two little ring bearers were also dressed in orchid and yellow. The men wore black. Mrs. Black, the bride's mother, was pretty in a gown of powder blue crepe de chine.

Following the wedding ceremony a simple breakfast was served by Miss Winona Lyman, Miss Marie Coulter and Mrs. John Stoddard. The happy couple left immediately afterwards on a week's honeymoon trip by auto to Portland. As a going away costume Miss Black wore a dress of navy blue georgette over red, with hat to match.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Russell have lived in La Grande for a number of years and are popular among the younger set here. They are graduates of the local high school and he is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college, and is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

They will be at home to their many friends here after May 1 at 2165 Oak street.

Mr. Wilson, Miss Smith Married Sunday

Miss Ella Smith and Clyde Wilson, both of this city, were quietly married yesterday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Baptist church, with the Reverend George Albert Pollard officiating. Only relatives and immediate friends were present.

After the ceremony dinner was served for the happy couple at the home of the groom's parents.

Both Miss Smith and Mr. Wilson have lived in La Grande a number of years. He is employed with the Grand Ronde Meat company here. They will make their home on Spruce street, where they are building a new home.

Easter Dinner Honors Mr. and Mrs. Montague

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Sharp was the scene of a delightful dinner party Easter day given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montague who are visiting here from Portland. The table was arranged for six couples and was beautifully decorated in white carnations and pink hydrangeas. The same color scheme predominated in the decorations throughout the home.

Dinner was served at 3 o'clock to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Puckett and Mrs. Geer, all of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jameson, of Baker, Mrs. W. Smith, of Cove, and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Montague, who returned to their home in Portland last evening.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Stewed dried peaches, cereal, thin cream, waffles, maple syrup, milk, coffee.

Lunch—Hot chicken sandwiches, radishes and new onions, fruit cup, nut cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Cream of tomato soup, cheese souffle, creamed asparagus, brown bread, frozen fig pudding, milk, coffee.

This dinner menu is planned particularly for one of those first warm spring days. A nourishing, well balanced meal is provided without meat.

Bits of left-over canned or fresh fruits are used in the "cup" suggested for the luncheon dessert. It may be topped with whipped cream if convenient and if preserved or maraschino cherries are not at hand a bit of currant jelly makes an excellent garnish. Of course any kind of jelly "open" can be used but a bright colored one is naturally more effective.

Hot Chicken Sandwiches

Three-fourths cup chopped cold cooked chicken, 1/2 cup chopped cold cooked ham, 1 1/2 cups milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1 teaspoon curry powder, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 6 slices bread.

Combine chicken and ham, let butter, stir in flour and when perfectly smooth slowly add milk stirring constantly. Moisten curry powder in a little cold milk and add with onion to sauce. Bring to the boiling point and boil three minutes. Add chicken and ham and bring again to the boiling point but do not let boil. Remove from fire and stir in lemon juice, salt and pepper. Melt butter in frying pan and saute bread until a golden straw color on both sides. Spread each slice with chicken mixture and serve at once.

Hint the bright side. Wouldn't things be awful if it was dark in the daytime and light at night?

Popularity leaves very little time for steady thinking.

Women Use

Then dispose of this new hygienic help easily as tissue—no laundry

WOMEN by the millions are discarding the old-time "sanitary pad" for a new and scientific way.

A way that offers protection unknown before. A way, too, that solves the old embarrassment of disposal.

It is called "KOTEX." Eight in 10 better-class women now employ it.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheerest frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL danger of offending.

You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitancy, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.

14 Women Poker Players Held Up, Robbed of $1000

NEW YORK, Apr. (AP)—Fourteen women playing poker were held up and robbed by three gunmen in a Bronx apartment early this morning. The robbers carried off $1,000 in cash and gems. Children were asleep in a room adjoining that in which two games were in progress.

The robbers gained entrance to the apartment of Mrs. Ina Orr by pretending to be seeking one of the players. The women, true to the traditions of "poker faces," made no outcry and gave up their money and jewelry quietly.

When the robbers discovered the sleeping children they issued their orders in whispers to avoid waking them.
