Dress, Owned by Mrs. Golden, Wins Prize

Two old-fashioned costumes more than seventy years old appeared at the old-time Easter Monday dance given by St. Mary's Altar society of the Catholic church last evening at Zuber hall. The prize for the oldest costume was awarded to Mrs. Joan Mitchell. The dress she wore belongs to Mrs. Mattie Golden and is sixty-five years old. Mrs. Golden's mother wore it when she was a girl and when she crossed the plains in 1844 she brought it with her to Oregon.

The other costume was seventy-two years old. It was worn by Mrs. Mary Brooks, who is 82 years old. The dress belonged to her mother.

In the fiddlers' contest, with only fiddlers more than fifty years old taking part the $10 prize was awarded to Mr. Harpvisgen. Mrs. Herman and Hector Melunas received the prize as the best old-time waltzers. The floor prize, a beautiful hand-made quilt, was awarded to Mr. Wilkenborg. Old-time dances were directed by Pat Powers, of Medical Springs.

In addition to the old-time dance features Misses Jane Stange and Gilda Ashby gave a spring dance, and Miss Stange and Misses Gilda and Trillian Ashby gave a jazz dance number. Miss Beulah Newlin danced the Charleston.

Lindsay's orchestra furnished excellent music. Mrs. E. L. Meyers was general chairman of the dance and Mrs. Hugh E. Brady had charge of the ticket sale.

Besides a large attendance of local people there were several out-of-town guests, including a number of people from Finlay, Baker and other surrounding towns. The proceeds from the dance will be added to the church fund.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, scrambled eggs with spinach, crisp brain toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked cheese, bean bread, cornstarch prune pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Chicken loaf, candied sweet potatoes, creamed onions, stuffed celery, vanilla ice cream with maple sauce, sponge cake, whole wheat rolls, milk, coffee.

This time of year I would hate to be in the safe side if's just as well to serve them some other way than "amateurish." This chicken loaf is delicious and very little work to prepare.

Chicken Loaf

One four-pound chicken, 1 loaf stale bread, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, butter, salt and pepper, 2 cups chicken broth.

Clean and disjoint chicken. Cook in boiling water until tender but not falling from bones. When tender remove from broth and pick meat from bones. Carefully discard all skin and bits of gristle. Cut large pieces of meat into cubes not more than inch large. Pull the bread into coarse crumbs. Put a layer of crumbs into a well-buttered baking dish, dot generously with butter and cover with a layer of chicken. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and parsley. Continue layer for layer of crumbs and chicken until all is used, making the last layer of crumbs. Pour over chicken broth and bake 45 minutes in a hot oven.

White Radio Bill Is Passed by the House

WASHINGTON, D. C.—After a heavy 23 days' buffeting, the White Radio bill recently rode a stormy passage through the house which sat in a committee of the whole, placing radio broadcasting under the control of the secretary of commerce and a proposed federal radio commission. The bill was passed by a vote of 218 to 124, over a bitter attack led by Representative Davis, of Tennessee, and other democratic members.

Old Fireside Circle Brought Back by Radio

DENVER—Radio has restored to the American home what earlier inventions had ripped from it, according to George Sanford Holmes, managing editor of the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Times and a recent speaker over KOA at Denver. Through radio, he asserts, the familiar fireside circle has been reformed and thousands of homes have been reconstructed.

"Millions thrill beneath the spell of radio, drawing from the ether, inspiration and information, entertainment and education, recreation and relaxation," he emphasized.

"Upon the broadcasting station as well as the newspaper, rests a deep responsibility to discharge the public trust which reposes inherently in each."

Housekeepers Getting Attention from KOAC

CORVALLIS, Ore.—Afternoon broadcasts for the homemaker were begun recently by station KOAC, the Oregon Agricultural college here, under the title "The Housekeepers' Half Hour." This service is put on the air each Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 to 2:30 o'clock Pacific time. It is in addition to the regular half hour homemaker's program that has been included in the college station broadcasts since last October on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

Final matches in the National Amateur Athletic Union championships, to be held at Corvallis, Oregon, April 15 to 17, will be broadcast by the Oregon Agle station, KOAC, on Friday, April 16, from 8:15 to 11 p. m. Pacific time.

Upton Sinclair Would Have State-Owned Radio Station

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—A state newspaper, a state bank and a state radio broadcasting station would be established by Upton Sinclair, the Pasadena author, if he were elected governor, the recently announced socialist candidate for that office announced in a formal statement of his platform received in Sacramento.

UNKNOWN GIRL TO BE MADE FAMOUS ON AIR

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Probably the first effort ever made to popularize a motion picture personality entirely through radio has been started by Don Meany on his KNX midnight frolic over KNX each Thursday night from 12 to 1 a. m. Pacific time.

The name selected by Don Meany to make known to all America by means of the radio is Anne Howe. No one as yet has seen her on the screen, she is just an extra girl, with all the qualities that make for screen success, that Don Meany has taken in hand and promised to publicize throughout the land.

Members of the Wampas, Hollywood's association of movie press agents, are reported to be sticking very close to the loud speakers on Thursday nights to see if Don Meany can make a success of his new idea in publicity, which is novel, even in jaded movie-land.
