Mrs. Mossman Gives Lenten Lecture

As a part of the Easter program given for the members of the Young Women's Educational Auxiliary of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mrs. E. P. Mossman gave a Lenten lecture and showed slides of the last week in the life of Christ.

An opening musical number the women's chorus sang "Lament of the Women." Paul Knautz sang "The Palm." While Hoffman's picture "In the Garden" was still on the screen Mrs. Claud Cooper and Mrs. Sherrywood Williams sang a duet number "Tis Midnight." While the crucifixion pictures were being shown Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Cooper sang "Tis Finished." When Mrs. Mossman flashed the picture "He Is Risen" on the screen the women's chorus, assisted by Claude Cooper and Paul Knautz sang "Alleluia." The concluding musical number was "Joy to the World," with all of the seventy-five members and friends present taking part.

Following the program the committee in charge headed by Mrs. Curt Wallace served refreshments. Other members of the committee were Mrs. Beatrice Young, Miss Lola Gaskill, Miss Ruth Herzinger, Mrs. H. S. Brown, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Edna Maguire, Miss Iose Klein, Mrs. H. W. Fisher and Miss Sarah Williamson.

While there Alice Jancic and Maclaneth Cooper played several violin duets and solos. Maclaneth also gave a solo dance. They were accompanied by Miss Lilly at the piano.

During the afternoon and evening they were guests of the academy.

Union (Special) — One of the most elaborate parties of the spring season was given Friday afternoon at the Union hotel when Mrs. George Baird and Mrs. Tony Smith entertained the members of the Carnation club, the Lucky Thirteen club and several guests at a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock.

The guests were seated at one long table, covers being laid for thirty-three. The table was attractive with a centerpiece of beautiful yellow tulips. Bouquets of daffodils and narcissuses were also used. The place cards were also suggestive of spring.

After luncheon bridge was at play in the large living room of the hotel. First prize was won by Mrs. Baxter, second by Mrs. Holly and the consolation by Mrs. Knight.

Guests besides the club members were Mesdames Raymond Pitt, Leonard Davis, Erwin Hutchinson, Nell Hutchinson, C. P. Holly, Newell Martens, Jas. Webb and Mrs. Bator and her daughter from Elgin.

Capes Popular In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Judged by Fifth Avenue windows and Fifth Avenue walkers, the fashion edict that this was to be a season of capes is being carried out.

Ballooning full length in the spring breeze or fluttering just to half mast, the new capes are of many lengths and materials. Shoulder capes give a new flare to coats of hash or serge.

Half length capes, which may be pleated, make an ensemble with a dress of the same material.

Even dresses carry a bit of shoulder drapery suggesting an abbreviated cape, which is particularly flattering developed in the floating chiffons of the evening gown.

LONDON (AP)—Designers of women's spring fashions have gone to the farthest for inspiration and come back with what they declare is a novelty.

This is a "cock-comb" hat, close fitting, and made of satin the color of copper, a typical faraway shade. Shaded coral-colored ribbon on the crown makes a realistic looking cockcomb and looks very smart.

NEW YORK (AP)—Never has New York's lady fashion run to meet Spring so gaily as this season.

Shoes of all the natural light leathers, lizard, snake, alligator, creamy kids, now compete with dyed leathers in soft pink, yellows and roses. Smart shoemakers have dyed shoes in plaid patterns and in shadings of the same color.

Shoes may match any gown, or may give an ensemble its sharp accent of color.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Oranges, cereal, thin cream, soft cooked eggs, bran toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cream of asparagus soup, croquettes, lettuce sandwiches, apple cake, milk, tea.

Dinner—Breaded liver, fried potatoes, rhubarb, tapioca pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

If a whole wheat cereal is served for breakfast try to use a broad made of some other sort of grain for the toast. Since the toast suggested is made of a coarse wheat flour the cereal should be of oats or a finely milled cereal.

Cream of Asparagus Soup
One bunch asparagus, 2 cups milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup cream.

Wash and scrape asparagus. Cut into inch pieces and put aside heads. Cover with cold water and bring to the boiling point. Simmer until tender. Rub through a sieve reserving the water. Cook heads separately in as little water as possible to prevent burning. It will take about ten minutes to cook the heads and at least thirty minutes to cook the stalks. Add water in which heads were cooked to asparagus puree. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Bring slowly to the boiling point and boil three minutes. Add asparagus puree and when ready to boil again add heads. Season with salt and pepper. Whip cream until stiff adding a little salt. Remove soup from fire and stir in whipped cream. Serve at once.

EARLY SEEDING GIVES BEST LAWNS

An early start is necessary for an early lawn. The care and maintenance of a lawn in its infant stages is no light task if the owner desires it to be all that a lawn should be by mid-summer. Feeding is one of the prime requisites after a high-grade seed mixture from a reliable seed house has been obtained. Seedhouses furnish complete fertilizers which, with the commercially prepared pulverized sheep manure are the most convenient and practical to handle.

After the lawn is spaded and pulverized finely for the seed and the seed has been sown, the next task is to check top rank growth of weeds which, if given a good start, will soon disfigure the lawn and spread over it before you know it. Plantains and dandelions are of the worst colonizers to disfigure lawns. It will be necessary to pull the biggest and coarsest weeds by hand.

It is of course impracticable to tramp over the soft soil in spring when the young grass is germinating, for the surface would be badly disfigured. This difficulty can be obviated by the use of a plank which to weed, advancing the plank as the weeds are cleared away, which will reduce trampling of the new surface to a minimum.

Poultry manure, if dried and broken up fairly fine, is one of the most efficient fertilizers for a lawn. It should not be spread in large lumps, however, as it is a "hot" manure and is likely to burn the grass.

It is a good plan to reseed the lawn thickly each spring to be certain of a thick turf. There are bound to be a few thin spots after the thawing and freezing and deposits of ice during the winter, and this precaution often will be all that is necessary to bring the sward up to standard.

Start in early to give the lawn a fresh supply of food to start it on its way, whether it is a newly planted or an old lawn. The old lawn needs it even worse than the new one.

JUDGE MAKES RECORD
PENDLETON, Apr. 8. (AP)—It took the local police judge less than five minutes to dispose of two Indians, arrested on liquor charges. Jim Narcisse, arrested after a battle with police was fined $50 for breaking glass on the street. His companion was given a $10 fine for being intoxicated.

A real discovery by many Women

THE woman really interested in the welfare of her home—the foods she serves—is naturally curious about the culinary efforts of chefs in leading hotels.

And it is quite natural for even the experienced housewife to suspect a Mazola-made French Dressing or Mayonnaise to be one made of the imported oils that may cost twice as much.

Therefore, it is a real discovery for many women to learn that Mazola is the preference of many expert chefs—chefs who realize that, regardless of cost, the world affords no finer salad oil than Mazola.

And why not? Mazola is an absolutely pure, vegetable oil—bland in flavor—a clean, clear, transparent oil pressed from the hearts of full ripened corn kernels.

Test Mazola yourself in this French Dressing:
8 tablespoons Mazola 1/2 teaspoon Salt
5 tablespoons Lemon Juice 1 teaspoon Sugar
Juice of Vinegar 1/2 teaspoon Paprika

Mix dry ingredients. Add Mazola and lemon juice or vinegar and beat until creamy. This dressing may be made in larger quantities and kept in a bottle and shaken as used.

This is the regulation recipe for French Dressing, but the proportions of oil and acid may be reversed to make it a little more tart for those desiring a sharper dressing. A little Chili Sauce or Catsup also gives added piquancy.

Taste it! Is it not the most delicious and satisfying dressing you ever tasted?
