Carnation Club Meets At Herman Home

Lovely bouquets of mixed spring flowers in yellow and white were used to decorate the home of Mrs. Albert Herman last evening when Mrs. Herman and Mrs. E. F. Hensler were hostesses to the members of the Carnation club of the Degree of Honor Practical Association. Favors and score cards were in the same color.

During the early part of the evening there was a short business session, after which four tables of bridge were arranged. Mrs. C. E. Wade received high score at cards and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Parley Price.

Following the card games a dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses. The same color scheme was carried out to the luncheon.

For Formal Wear

Here is a very smart glove in the alphon style for formal afternoon wear. White kid is used. The turn-down cuff is trimmed with the new chain-mail trimming in gold. Gold beads emphasize the stitching.

Thelma Churchill, Phillis Gibson and Vera Tusselman sang a spring song in costume. They were trained by Mrs. Churchill. Vera Tusselman and Myrtle Parker, under the direction of Mrs. Parker sang and acted a duet entitled "Smarty." Mrs. Agnes Paddock gave a patriotic reading.

After the program the teachers served delicious refreshments.

TWO MINERS KILLED
RUTHE, Mont.—Two miners were killed by a powder blast and a third was crushed to death by a falling rock at Mines near here.

A detour is the longest distance between two points. If this is the best temporary route what must the worst be like?

Real Widow

For many years Mrs. Princess C. Harris and her husband, Brit Harris, lived happily. Then he died, leaving his $50,000 estate to a sister. And then Mrs. Harris discovered that seventeen years before Harris had secretly divorced her. But a San Francisco judge set aside the divorce and gave her the estate.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Stewed figs, cereal, thin cream, waffles, syrup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Scalloped cheese, hearts of lettuce with French dressing, rye bread, candied pears, sponge drops, milk, tea.

Dinner—Shoulder of lamb, buttered rice, parsnip patties, grapefruit salad, whole wheat bread, banana, snow, milk, coffee.

The shoulder of lamb should be broiled by the butcher; roll and tie firmly when ready to roast. A dressing made of bread can be used before roasting the meat and if a little meat is wanted to go a long way the dressing or stuffing helps out materially.

Scalloped Cheese
Four slices bread, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, one half cup diced cheese, paprika, butter.

The bread should be cut about 1/2 of an inch thick. Spread generously with butter and cut each slice into small squares, tucking ends of bread buttered on one side. Put half the bread buttered side down into a baking dish cover with cheese and add the remaining bread, butter side up. Mix salt, mustard and paprika with eggs and beat well.

Beat in milk and pour mixture over bread and cheese in baking dish. Press the top layer of bread down to become covered with milk mixture.

Let stand for ten minutes before baking. Bake forty minutes in a moderate oven. Increase the heat for the last few minutes of baking to brown the top. Serve in the baking dish.

Judge asked motorist why he didn't give his right name when arrested. Fellow replied that he wasn't feeling himself that day.

Goodbye, scooters and kiddie cars. Marjorie Evans arrived in Los Angeles recently with a bulldog, which can be made, by pressing a rubber tube, to open his jaws and bark.

MEN "BUY" RESTAURANT
DENVER, Colo.—Two hungry men "bought" a restaurant on the strength of a telegram saying money due them was coming from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo. They kept the eating house in operation long enough to enjoy four hearty meals and then closed up. The pair are now boarding with the city pending trial charges ranging from operating a confidence game to forging names to telegrams.
