Sustained Demand for Rail Shares in Market

NEW YORK, Apr. 10. (AP)—A sustained demand for the railroad shares was the outstanding feature in today's irregular and quick half session of the stock market. Buying of the carrier stocks presumably was influenced by the favorable nature of the 1925 annual report being published and by smaller reports of relatively heavy freight traffic. The closing was irregular; total sales were 575,000 shares.

WHEAT MARKET SHOWS A GAIN

CHICAGO, Apr. 10. (By the Associated Press)—With a liberal decrease expressed in the U. S. visible supply total on Monday the wheat market closed today at a substantial gain. Best figures of the day were reached shortly before the finish, notwithstanding that houses with eastern connections and pit traders here kept antagonistic and fought the advance. May deliveries in particular tightened and export sales of North American wheat were quite large for the week. Wheat closed firm 1 1/4 @ 2 1/4 net higher; corn 1/2 @ 1/2 up and oats unchanged to 1/2 off.

HEARINGS ANNOUNCED.
