Umpqua Strawberries On Sale at Roseburg

ROSEBURG, Apr. 13. (AP)—Umpqua valley strawberries were placed on the local market today, the earliest that they have ever appeared in crate lots. Indications are that there would be an abundance of berries this season and that there would be a sufficient quantity available for shipment to outside markets by the end of the week. Local prices today were 35 cents per box.

Stock Market Weaker Under Selling Pressure

NEW YORK, Apr. 13. (By the Associated Press)—Further weakness developed at the opening of today's stock market when selling pressure was renewed against the motors and other speculative industrials but the general list gathered strength in the early afternoon. The recovery was featured by bullish demonstrations in the local transactions sustained investment demand for the high grade rails presumably influenced the publication of excellent 1925 earnings statements and short covering in some of the motors, which appear to be oversold at least temporarily.

The close was firm. Operations for the rise made good progress in the late trade with buying of the motors and accessories aided by relaxation of money rates.

Total sales approximated 1,400,000 shares.

NEBRASKA PRISON WARDEN VISITS IN OREGON CAPITAL

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 13. (AP)—Warden Fenton, of the Nebraska state prison, was here late yesterday, Oregon prison officials said today, but was not asked nor did he speak about the recent rumor that he was slated for appointment as warden of the Oregon penitentiary.

Warden Fenton came west to Vancouver, Wash., to get a prisoner who is being extradited to Nebraska from Washington, and was accompanied to Salem by the sheriff of Clarke county. Unless he left for Nebraska last night he is believed still to be in Vancouver.

Neither Governor Pierce nor any any other official was informed that Fenton was coming to Salem. Warden Lillie is ill at his home here and was not visited by Fenton.

Governor Pierce today warmly denied that he had ever been in communication with Fenton relative to an appointment to the warden's job here. He did not see Fenton during the latter's visit here.

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 13. (AP)—Absolute denial of a rumor that he had been offered the position of warden of the Oregon state penitentiary was made here today by W. J. T. Fenton, who holds that position at the Nebraska institution. He also said that his trip to Salem yesterday was not for the purpose of seeing the governor in connection with such an offer and further denied that he had seen the executive.

Spud Prices at Peak As Season Nears End

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 13. (AP)—The Northwestern potato deal is drawing to a close with prices at the peak for the season and with buyers still scouring the producing sections, hoping to pick up additional supplies. There is a good shipping outlet to the south at levels that warrant the local jobbers a fair profit.

Buying has slowed down in Clarke county not from any lack of interest but because holdings in the growers' hands are getting scarce and pretty well scattered. The same situation applies at valley points.

Today local buyers are offering four cents freely for U. S. No. 1 grade Burbanks and premiums for fancy lakers. Yakima is quoting $90 a ton f.o.b. for U. S. No. 1 Gems. This is $4.50 in carload lots and means $4.75 paid down in Portland when freight, hauling and shrinkage are considered.

The new potato deal is being hurried up by the strength in old potatoes. New Garnet chilis are still selling around 17½ to 20 cents a pound although they are no longer in the novelty class.

Egg receipts are not so heavy this week and the local market is showing a good healthy tone. On the exchange current receipts are fractionally higher at 23½ cents with other grades unchanged. Considerable buying at country points now.

The butter market is barely steady with board quotations unchanged. Slight accumulations, however, are showing in this market. The first decline in April on raw milk is shown today with the buying price down five cents per hundred at $2.30.

The market on country dressed veal has a hard time recovering from last week's slump with receipts pouring in liberally. Top calves today quoted at 14½ to 15 cents with many choice, light offerings moved at a lower figure.

LORD, SON ROW ABOUT WEALTH

LONDON, Apr. 13. (AP) — Sir Oswald Mosley, Tory, and his socialist son and daughter-in-law Lady Cynthia, are at odds over the question of wealth and socialism. The father contends that the wealth of his son and daughter-in-law should be given up in the cause they espouse. The socialist son declares the socialist cause can better be aided by retention of wealth.

The question of waiving titles also involved in the issue.

Lady Cynthia is a daughter of the late Marquis Curzon and a grand daughter of the late Levi Z. Leiter, Chicago millionaire. On her recent visit to the United States she scoffed at her title and said she could not get rid of it.

In a letter Monday in the Daily Mail, Sir Oswald taunts his son and his daughter-in-law, saying that more valuable help would be rendered to the country if "instead of achieving cheap publicity about relinquishing titles," they would take more material action by giving up some of their wealth to make easier the plight of some of their more unfortunate fellowmen."

Eva Vanorder, Shot in Hand, Leaves Hospital

UNION, (Special)— Eva Vanorder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vanorder of The Park, was shot through the hand with a twenty-two recently, while out squirrel hunting. She had placed the gun on a buck-rake and took hold of the barrel to pull it toward her when a wire caught her hand.

She was brought to Union immediately to a doctor, who took an X-ray picture of the wound and took her to the Grande Ronde hospital for further treatment.

While the condition of the wound is serious, she will probably get along alright. She left the hospital yesterday morning.

DEFICIT CLEARED

There it goes again. I haven't any time to write an ad in the first place, but as I have formed a habit I suppose I will have to keep it up. 100 gallons of white paint and 100 gallons of pure boiled linseed oil due tomorrow. Put the two together, get a spray pump and go over your house and garage. After this is done, dump in about 100 lbs. of Venetian red and go over your barn, chicken houses and hog fences. Then if your wife don't behave herself, turn the spray pump on her. Whoop—I forgot. We have a fine lot of lady customers. They may turn the red paint on me. My wife says they ought to. Then she says not to put it in. The paint is $2.35 per gallon. I will have more to say next time; however, my wife says I have said enough already.
