Billy Evans Says:

Crooked jockeys will kill the racing game far quicker than the many reformers who are anxious to take a crack at it.

The running races are a most popular form of amusement. Any red-blooded person gets a big kick out of the thoroughbreds as they come down the stretch.

If you happen to have part or all of your bank roll riding on one of the ponies, the sensation is all the more pronounced.

Last summer a number of tracks flourished in Ohio. The reformers have already let it be known that they are going to stop betting on the races.

Stop the mutuels from clicking and you stop racing. The sport cannot thrive without the cut taken from the bets placed through the pari-mutuels.

The agitation of the Ohio reformers is a blow to the running horses but the jockey scandal is a far greater one.

Drastring action must be taken by the notable men in the turf game if the sport is to prosper.

Crooked jockeys will kill it far quicker than a legion of reformers.

ADVISES AGAINST PURCHASING OUT STATE INSURANCE

SALLEM, Ore., Apr. 15. (AP)—Will Moore, state insurance commissioner yesterday issued a statement advising Oregonians against purchasing insurance with a Kansas company which is circulating Oregon by mail in the solicitation of accident insurance.

"In-as-much" said Mr. Moore's statement, as the on purchasing a policy from this company does not have the protection of this department, or any of the laws of Oregon, it is appropriate that the citizens should be informed regarding this class of insurance.

"There are two primary causes for small order insurance first, to escape the payment of taxes, and second, to avoid the restrictions placed upon licensed companies for the protection of the policy holders.

"Should a claim against one of these policies be contested, the policyholder would be forced to go to the courts of Kansas for recourse, as the courts of Oregon would be closed to him.

"In purchasing insurance of any kind it is advisable to patronize only those companies which are licensed to do business in this state, as these companies are under the supervision of the insurance department and are amenable to all the laws of the state of Oregon."

WANTS COMPENSATION
SANTA BARBARA. (AP)—Ernest H. Smith, chemist, wants compensation from the state industrial accident commission because in his work as chemist at a local hospital he was compelled to inhale wood alcohol fumes rising from a still. Wood alcohol fumes when inhaled, Smith said, have the same effect as when taken into the system. He was confined to bed for several weeks he asserts.

ready expressed an opinion on it. I believe it is a step backward, while 12 feel that the new rule will curb haphazard passing and result in a better kicking and running attack.

When the coaches, the wise men of the grid game, differ so widely in their opinions, only a thorough trial of the new rule will determine its success or failure.

DISOWNS HULA HULA

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Miss Julie Marquis, princess of Royal Kanaka blood, has disowned the hula hula on behalf of Hawaii. If the hula hula dance started in Hawaii, then the Charleston originated in Lapland, the princess said. However, the dance is immensely popular in Hawaii and is crowding out the old tribal ceremonies and native dances, the royal visitor admits.

I want to write an ad and at the same time keep within the law. Talk about house paint—we have it. Some call it ground glass and some call it time and water, and some call it—well, I haven't the time to give the name. One man came yesterday morning and told us his painter called our paint ground glass and said it was not worth putting on a small building. The man went with me to a neighbor's house within a block and there saw a house that has been painted a year with this so-called ground glass. It still holds its color and shape and for further proof the lady of the house came out and testified that she had bought the paint of the Claude C. Pratt Lumber Company, and for still further proof we found an empty paint bucket in a woodshed. It said "Weather Shield Paint." Then the man was convinced that the job was O. K. and is going to paint a large building. About the worst feature of this paint that we can think of is that people are not used to buying paint for $2.35 a gallon. Our strictly pure linseed oil at $1.35 per gallon is no relation to fish oil. We are selling hundreds of gallons of paint and oil.
