Mr. and Mrs. Gekeler On Wedding Trip

Miss Bernice Lofland and Kenneth L. Gekeler were quietly married Sunday morning at about 9 o'clock at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church by the Rev. W. C. Ross. Only members of the two immediate families were present.

The happy couple left Sunday night for Portland and other Western Oregon points on a honeymoon trip. They will return to La Grande to make their home.

Academy Pupils In Doll Recital

"Dolls of Many Lands" was the title of the recital given by a group of students from the Sacred Heart academy Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Spaeth. As each of the ten little girls taking part in the recital entered, the dolls which were dressed in accordance with their musical numbers, were arranged in a neat little group.

The Japanese doll was the first to make her appearance when little Miss Genevieve Spaeth played "Japanese Doll's Day" by Paolo Conte. This was followed by a violin number, "Serenade" (Fossell-Franklin) by Christa Clark. Nadine O'Sullivan carried a China doll. Her numbers were "Little Chinaman" by Smith and "Dancing Doll" by Poldini. Margaret Tobben's doll was dressed in Scotch costume and she played "Scotch Doll" by E. A. Meuller and "Scotch Lullaby" by L. Von Kunz.

Allice Jeanette Cooper substituted a spring dance for her sister, Mae Elizabeth, who was ill and unable to attend. She also played some of her own violin compositions. Theresa Curran carried a French doll and played "French Doll" by E. A. Meuller and "Lullaby" by A. F. Venino. Julia Siegrist's doll was Indian and her numbers were "Indian Doll" by E. A. Meuller and "Indian Dance" by Devaux. Dorothy Wall carried a rag doll and played "My Jolly Rag Doll" by Toplirk.

Mary Louise Then had an entire family of Dutch dolls. Mamma, Papa, Hans and Gretchen — her number was entitled "Dutch Family" by Julia Fox. Barbara Guy played "In Kewpie Land" by Marie Crosby, also "At Play." The Kewpie Brigade and "Doll's Dream" by Oosten. Her sister, Beverly, played "Little Gossamer" by Mitchell and "Doll's Dance." The two little girls together closed the program with a duet number "Dance of the Kewpies" by Ashford.

About thirty mothers and friends of the children attended the recital. The academy is planning another recital to be given next Saturday by the first year students at the academy. About twenty children will take part. The recital which is entitled "A Day on the Farm" will be at the home of Mrs. Chester Newlin.

W. R. C. Members Attend Dinner

About fifty people gathered at the Knights of Pythias hall Saturday night for the regular dinner given by Oliver P. Morton Roloff (Corps No. 37). While dinner was being served Miss Myrtle Wilcock sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Rhodes at the piano. The Rev. C. V. Dunn gave an interesting talk on General Grant, who was born in April.

Union Couple Married Here

Miss Nellie McClellan and Reginald Woods, both of Union, were married here Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Justice of the Peace Hugh E. Brady. The young couple was accompanied to La Grande by Mrs. Irvin Hess. Miss McClellan is a senior in the Union high school and Mr. Woods is employed at the Oregon Trail garage there.

After a short honeymoon trip by auto Mr. and Mrs. Woods will make their home at Union.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary

Miss Vaulrie Harper celebrated her fourteenth birthday anniversary Monday night with a party for 20 school friends at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Blystone. The time was pleasantly passed with games and songs, some of the guests entertaining with duets and solos. Mrs. Blystone served refreshments.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Apple sauce, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, corn muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Asparagus in ramikins, toasted corn muffins, cherry salad, milk, tea.

Dinner—Lamb stew with dumplings, browned parsnips, orange and grapefruit salad, rice pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

When asparagus is a bit high in price it can be satisfactorily "extended" by following the rule for asparagus in ramikins suggested for the main dish for luncheon.

Keep in mind that parsnips and snails are at their best only in the spring when the "frost comes out of the ground" so the gardener can dig them. The winter freezing sweetens and crisps these vegetables making them quite delicate and delicious in flavor.

Asparagus in Ramikins One bunch asparagus, 4 eggs, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups rich milk or thin cream, 5 tablespoons grated cheese, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, parsley. Wash and scrape asparagus and cut in inch lengths. Cook in as little water as possible until tender. If much water clings to asparagus when done drain and use water in making the sauce, lessening the amount of cream in proportion. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk or cream, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and add cooked asparagus, baked in a glass baking dish. Break an egg in well buttered care must be taken in avoiding hot ramikin, cover with sauce, filling to break the eggs. Custard can be used in place of ramikin if more convenient. "Smog" is a new word coined to describe damp fog, but it doesn't mean enough like coming.
