buried today. Full church and military honors were accorded the "hanging prosecutor." Simple rites were held for Jas. J. Doherty, saloon owner and gangster, and Thomas Duffy, saloonkeeper slain with McGwiggan.

ROTARY CLUB ELECTS

EUGENE, Ore., May 1. (AP)—Dr. C. B. Willoughby was last night elected president of the Eugene Rotary club. The election was held at the meeting of the newly-named board of directors. Father Edwin W. O'Hara was named delegate to the International convention which will be held in Leavenworth, Kan., June 14.

STRAWBERRY DEMAND HIGH

PORTLAND, Ore., May 1. (AP)—The local butter market is marking time with the prints generally steady but a slightly cooler feeling in cubes. On the exchange extras are down a half cent at 38 cents. Other grades are unchanged. No change in print prices is anticipated over the week end.

Fresh eggs were steady and unchanged at the close. Receipts yesterday totaled 2835 cases and cooler receipts increased 338 cases. Local strawberry crop is coming on heavy now and receipts are increasing in the wholesale market. Quality is fine and prices on the early market were maintained at $4 to $4.25 a crate, mostly $4.10. Berries from the Roseburg district have also appeared in the local market. They are selling to the consumer at 25 cents or 2 boxes for 45 cents. California berries still arriving. They are sluggish at $3 to $3.25 a crate wholesale.

The local market is flooded with light broilers and prices are lower. Produce houses are urging their shippers to hold back the light broilers until they are larger and better conditioned. Heavy broilers of the Leghorn variety a little easier to move but the demand is for colored breeds such as rocks and reds. Broiler prices range from 25 to 28 cents on Leghorns and 29 to 32 cents for the heavy breeds. Hens are firm at 25 to 26 cents for light and 27 to 28 cents for heavies.

Country dressed calves closed about steady at 15 to 15 1/2c. There was nothing carried over to speak of. Dressed hogs sold at 18 to 18 1/2c.

CONVENTION WEEK OPENS ON MONDAY

Miss Chamberlain comes as the lone representative of the Southern Oregon federation, unless arrangements can be made to allow the new president, Mrs. Woodward of Grants Pass, to attend. The southern clubs are highly interested even though their remoteness from La Grande prevents their sending delegates, the vice president said this morning.

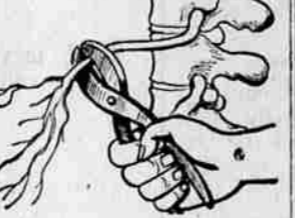

Everything is so quiet it sounds suspicious," she laughed. Miss Chamberlain's own name is prominently mentioned in connection with the nominations. Pierce to Speak Monday

By Monday evening, most of the delegates are expected to be in town. Governor Walter M. Pierce, together with spokesmen from important organizations of the city, will extend the welcome.

Speeches by college presidents and federation officers, surveys of the closing year and plans for the new will be featured during the four-day meetings. Thursday's program will include the election of officers.

Although decorating plans are nearly completed, there are still some welcoming cards to be had at the chamber of commerce office or from Harry H. Richardson, decorating chairman, he announces.

PRESSURE

NERVE TORTURES can be relieved without medicine, if you will try the chiropractic methods. The spinal column is the headquarters of all nervous disorders, and relief of these can only be obtained by operating at the seat of the trouble, naturally, painlessly and without fear of the slightest harm resulting.

Electrical treatments given. Consultation Free.

Stock Prices Lower; Street Trading Dull

NEW YORK, May 1. (AP)—Stock prices drifted irregularly lower in today's dull trading, but with the exception of a few specialties, no points of pronounced weakness were apparent. Speculative activities were confined mainly to the short side of the market with the drying up of the recent demand for U. S. Steel, General Motors and other leaders coupled with tighter money conditions encouraging an extension of those commodities.

Weather Outlook Sends Wheat Prices Higher

CHICAGO, May 1. (AP)—With the weather outlook the principal influence, the wheat market averaged higher today. Commission houses were active buyers at times but all bulges brought about free selling. The forecast indicated cloudy weather in the Dakotas, Nebraska and western Arkansas, where moisture is badly needed.
